

If the amateur theatrical bug is rampant you would think that it had been put to rest. But it is not so.

On your name more than three people have been known who could tell a story well.

Don't waste any sympathy on Sully. He got the dose of medicine his system needed.

Grin fuming is beginning to stalk through parts of the state and even the Tomk cats are starving.

"Too poverty is a blessing," said Father Houston. "It is a blessing, undoubtedly; but, ah—what is truth?"

London's experts are only half right. It is not the biggest, but the ability to use them that wins battles.

A Chicago alderman has just published a poem entitled "On Seeing a Robin." Yes, Chicago aldermen have changed.

If you must speculate be prudent. Don't plunge on margin until you have remembered to give a $25,000 house to your wife.

Prince Sanyachaw-Pate-Yafat-Baba-yo-Mohamed of Central Africa is lecturing in this country, but his name is not yet on any list.

One said something about it that the magazine editors will never ask Mr. Sully to write articles on the disadvantages of college education.

Patience, perseverance and practice will achieve wonders. Probably 5 percent of our population can now pronounce Vladivostok without stuttering.

The juice of the rubber tree is 56 percent water and 44 percent rubber. The percentage of water is said to be much greater in the rubber tree.

Andrew Carnegie says that the captain of industry who seeks a board of dollars is a low type. What is the best thing is reform—Philadelphia Ledger.

"The displaced mhm" seems to be about as unpleasant for the Russians at Port Arthur as the "salty mhm" does for the gulleivers in the earlier days of the West.

Jiji is the name of the leading newspaper of Japan. It requires a pretty long stretch of the imagination to find that no Japanese newspaper can be complete without Jiji.

Asked what impressed him most in this country, W. B. Yates, the Irish poet, replied: "The fat Irishmen; we have none at home." "What over, the rest of you, and fatten up!"

Gold deposits have been discovered in Utah. This being the case, the Grand Llama may as well get ready to move out. England can't let Tibet be around unsexed any longer.

"Do I like America as well as I did in former years?" says Patti. "O, no; the country has changed so much, and I like it better here than I do at home." "Just like Patti's voice."

The people would like clean money, no doubt, but they are willing to put up with badly soiled currency so long as they have it. The $10 bill mircro isn't so very abundant, after all.

Various gentlemen who at one time or another have thought they could buy up all the wheat in the world will now be accounted for. Sully's experience more thrilling than a detective story.

If a gallon of gasoline will run an automobile 20 miles and gasoline costs 15 cents a gallon, how long will it take you to save up money enough to buy a second-hand peep-perf machine?

Mr. Kubellik's experience with a German assassin differs from similar cases in that he was not a victim. He was not intended as a reflection upon his playing.

When the busy American reads that the census of India, just taken, shows a population of 294,000,000, and four times that of the United States, he naturally can't help wondering how they all got a living.

"The main business of the child," says Principal Watt, "is to grow." It is the opinion of many experienced parents that the main business of the male child is to grow. It is merely secondary and incidental.

John O. Heald of Orange, having offered a prize of $100 for the words and music of a song that will best describe the true Yale spirit, poets will now be at work for a striking rhyme to rhyme with "T. H. H. with Harvard!"

Hetty Green having recently purchased a week's rooms in New York with art gallery and music room attached to it is now in order. Her Russell Sage is designed for himself a marble palace.

People going home from church in Pittsburg one Sunday were surprised when they reached home to find a clubhouse suddenly fell out of the sky and a number of their friends and neighbors playing poker in the upper rooms.

According to the tenets of the "new thought" the material things of this life vanish before the vigorous onslaughts of our mentality; but no one has reported that new thought was done down the price of foug.

Dozens of prairie chickens are being held in game reserves on Grand Island.

For nesting his mother, Charlie was hatched in Lexington, is serving 60 days in jail.

McGraw found a keg of dynamite in a coal car on Grand Trunk train near Hamilton.

Samuel J. Loudon, Sandstone, took an overdose of hofadin after a spree of 4000 in motion and fifty 80000 more under arms, in garisons and at the depot.

The exact number of troops which will be sent to Korea is not known, but the entire first army has been landed, and has established itself in Seoul.

The water in a church basement at Boston was pumped out so services could be held.

R. L. Stearns, son of Justice S. Stearns, has been nominated for mayor of Ludlow.

Oakland county women's clubs are endeavoring to interest children in the Red Cross.

John Hoyt, for fifty-two years an employee of the Michigan Central at Jackson, died Thursday.

McDonald Morrow, Grand Rapids, died while working on the flood levee.

The keepers of northern Michigan have a successful meeting at Traverse City Thursday.

Mrs. Haight, East Tawas, aged 74 years, died from breaking her hip at Detroit.

Oscar Teller, aged 71, was killed in the paper mill at Glibon by being struck by a machinery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Parker, Grand Rapids, died of cholera.

Burglars in Clarkson took $45 from the safe of a merchant.

The $50000 prevented a meeting of the Michigan Central at Jackson.

The supreme court handed down a decision on the constitutionality of the income tax.

Richard Suggs, Negamere, returned from the west he found his wife had been divorced.

The duck hunting season on the Moore marshes was formally opened.

The case of Harry Fairbanks, charged with the murder of Art Marston, is now on trial.

The Grand Trunk railway has submitted a proposition to the state fair at Jackson.

Professor Adams, in the hearing held in Detroit, said that the railroad is not a public utility.

The socialist's Grand Rapids want the primary law for Grand Rapids declared unconstitutional.

Winford Cornworth, sent up from Jackson for two years for horse and buggy in August, 1907, was arrested as he was leaving Jackson.

Michael O'Brien, of Parma, aged 40, was killed by the caving in of a gravel bank at a Michigan gravel steam shovel.

A gasoline launch containing four men who were measuring the height of a dam, was overturned.

The damage to railroad tracks in the vicinity of the dam was at first supposed to be water recedes it was found that the tracks had been washed out.

While returning from giving an entertainment at Courtville, Ont., some of the men were taken by the ice, which nearly prevented them from making the St. Clair landing.

The wool season has opened in this state under favorable conditions for sellers.

The municipal elections in Michigan on Monday show some quite remarkable features.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

The entire Republican ticket won on the Little Creek, from mayor to constables.

The Ray City Republicans elected George Holmes brigadier commander by 620 on the east side, and 440 on the west side, showing a party victory.

Advices received from Kobe, Japan, show that the Japanese are occupying the town of Seng-Cheng.

The case of the interstate commerce commission vs. Hainl, commonly known as the Hainl case, was decided by the supreme court of the United States Monday in favor of the commission.

The exact number of troops which will be sent to Korea is not known, but the entire first army has been landed, and has established itself in Seoul.

The water in a church basement at Boston was pumped out so services could be held.

R. L. Stearns, son of Justice S. Stearns, has been nominated for mayor of Ludlow.

Oakland county women's clubs are endeavoring to interest children in the Red Cross.

John Hoyt, for fifty-two years an employee of the Michigan Central at Jackson, died Thursday.

McDonald Morrow, Grand Rapids, died while working on the flood levee.

The keepers of northern Michigan have a successful meeting at Traverse City Thursday.

Mrs. Haight, East Tawas, aged 74 years, died from breaking her hip at Detroit.

Oscar Teller, aged 71, was killed in the paper mill at Glibon by being struck by a machinery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Parker, Grand Rapids, died of cholera.

Burglars in Clarkson took $45 from the safe of a merchant.

The $50000 prevented a meeting of the Michigan Central at Jackson.

The supreme court handed down a decision on the constitutionality of the income tax.

Richard Suggs, Negamere, returned from the west he found his wife had been divorced.

The duck hunting season on the Moore marshes was formally opened.

The case of Harry Fairbanks, charged with the murder of Art Marston, is now on trial.

The Grand Trunk railway has submitted a proposition to the state fair at Jackson.

Professor Adams, in the hearing held in Detroit, said that the railroad is not a public utility.

The socialist's Grand Rapids want the primary law for Grand Rapids declared unconstitutional.

Winford Cornworth, sent up from Jackson for two years for horse and buggy in August, 1907, was arrested as he was leaving Jackson.

Michael O'Brien, of Parma, aged 40, was killed by the caving in of a gravel bank at a Michigan gravel steam shovel.

A gasoline launch containing four men who were measuring the height of a dam, was overturned.

The damage to railroad tracks in the vicinity of the dam was at first supposed to be water recedes it was found that the tracks had been washed out.

While returning from giving an entertainment at Courtville, Ont., some of the men were taken by the ice, which nearly prevented them from making the St. Clair landing.

The Russian plan is to draw them northward toward Harbin. These were the Russian troops which were sent to the front.

The Russian plan is to draw them northward toward Harbin. These were the Russian troops which were sent to the front.

The case of the interstate commerce commission vs. Hainl, commonly known as the Hainl case, was decided by the supreme court of the United States Monday in favor of the commission.

The exact number of troops which will be sent to Korea is not known, but the entire first army has been landed, and has established itself in Seoul.

The water in a church basement at Boston was pumped out so services could be held.

R. L. Stearns, son of Justice S. Stearns, has been nominated for mayor of Ludlow.

Oakland county women's clubs are endeavoring to interest children in the Red Cross.

John Hoyt, for fifty-two years an employee of the Michigan Central at Jackson, died Thursday.

McDonald Morrow, Grand Rapids, died while working on the flood levee.

The keepers of northern Michigan have a successful meeting at Traverse City Thursday.

Mrs. Haight, East Tawas, aged 74 years, died from breaking her hip at Detroit.

Oscar Teller, aged 71, was killed in the paper mill at Glibon by being struck by a machinery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Parker, Grand Rapids, died of cholera.

Burglars in Clarkson took $45 from the safe of a merchant.

The $50000 prevented a meeting of the Michigan Central at Jackson.

The supreme court handed down a decision on the constitutionality of the income tax.

Richard Suggs, Negamere, returned from the west he found his wife had been divorced.

The duck hunting season on the Moore marshes was formally opened.

The case of Harry Fairbanks, charged with the murder of Art Marston, is now on trial.

The Grand Trunk railway has submitted a proposition to the state fair at Jackson.

Professor Adams, in the hearing held in Detroit, said that the railroad is not a public utility.

The socialist's Grand Rapids want the primary law for Grand Rapids declared unconstitutional.

Winford Cornworth, sent up from Jackson for two years for horse and buggy in August, 1907, was arrested as he was leaving Jackson.

Michael O'Brien, of Parma, aged 40, was killed by the caving in of a gravel bank at a Michigan gravel steam shovel.

A gasoline launch containing four men who were measuring the height of a dam, was overturned.

The damage to railroad tracks in the vicinity of the dam was at first supposed to be water recedes it was found that the tracks had been washed out.

While returning from giving an entertainment at Courtville, Ont., some of the men were taken by the ice, which nearly prevented them from making the St. Clair landing.

The Russian plan is to draw them northward toward Harbin. These were the Russian troops which were sent to the front.

The Russian plan is to draw them northward toward Harbin. These were the Russian troops which were sent to the front.

The Russian plan is to draw them northward toward Harbin. These were the Russian troops which were sent to the front.

THE MARKETS
Chicago—Good to prime steers, $14.00 to $15.00; fair to medium, $13.00 to $14.00; poor to choice, $12.00 to $13.00; heavy, $11.00 to $12.00; stockers and feeders, $10.00 to $11.00; calves, $9.00 to $10.00; hogs, $7.00 to $8.00; pigs, $6.00 to $7.00; mixed and butchers, $5.00 to $6.00; corn, $1.00 to $1.10; wheat, $1.20 to $1.30; flour, $2.00 to $2.50; cotton, $15.00 to $16.00; sugar, $10.00 to $11.00; rice, $5.00 to $6.00; oil, $1.50 to $1.75; lard, $1.00 to $1.25; tallow, $0.75 to $0.90; hides, $1.00 to $1.25; skins, $0.50 to $0.75; wool, $1.00 to $1.25; live stock, $1.00 to $1.25; poultry, $1.00 to $1.25; miscellaneous, $1.00 to $1.25.