

Showing What's Doing in All Sections of the State

King Peter is preparing for his coronation by taking a five-mile sprint every day.

Pierpont Morgan is another sufferer from the malady known as millionaire's stomach.

A woman is willing to take the benefit of the doubt and let man have the doubt of the doubt.

Port Arthur seems to fall as easy and as often as a man who is trying to quit smoking cigarettes.

Millions have laughed at Mark Twain's quaint humor. Millions grin with him in his present sorrow.

There's no one crying over spilled milk. The better way is to seek the nearest pump and repair the damage.

A new Galveston greets the eye of the traveler. On the stepping stone of itself it has risen to higher things.

The war has, after all, its bright spots. So far neither Rudyard Kipling nor Alfred Assa has written a poem about it.

Oxford University is going to confer the degree of doctor of letters on W. D. Howells. "Who reads an American book?"

No wonder the railway engineer who saw his lifelong friend ground to pieces under his locomotive has wholly lost his nerve.

Jack White has won the British golf championship. It is a strange thing about the case is that he is an Englishman.

When that $2,500,000,000 trust in formid it will be something more than an airy joke to say that Mr. Rockefeller owns the earth.

The four-leaf clover is a favorite design with the younger ladies for embroidery their silk hosiery. We learn this from one of our exchangers.

He laughs best who laughs last. According to this, the best laughter is the man who has to be laughed at in order to make him see the point of a joke.

A new paper park is offering a prize for the best vacation suggestion. We have heard that it is a good plan to remain quiet at home and take a rest.

King Peter of Serbia announces that he is going to have a coronation banquet. It will be a banquet for innocent bystanders to stay away from.

Czar Nicholas has begun to find infernal machines under his bed. There's a boy who doesn't need a microscope when he goes hunting for trouble.

The New York Herald urges the establishment of a school for writers of fiction, but what it really needs is an institution to teach people not to try to write fiction.

An Iowa man after firing five shots at his wife was shot at seventeen times by policemen. Owing to the fact that there were no innocent bystanders nobody was hurt.

The duke and duchess of Marlborough are reported to be living apart. Nobody can blame any married couple from doing everything in their power to be happy.

The Boston Globe prints a roll of 89 G. A. R. veterans who are 80 or over. It is a list which demonstrates what kind of constitution the boys of other days were endowed with.

The arrival of Bozosa Sokop, an emigrant from the old world, was well recorded at New York the other day. We venture to predict a bright political future in this country for Mr. Sokop.

F. W. Oleson is said to be the name of the man who introduced the English sheep into the Mississippi valley. The charitable supposition is that Mr. Oleson didn't know what he was doing.

The Chicago girl who tried to commit suicide by drowning and was saved because her skirts floated her, has good reason to be glad that she never followed the example of Dr. Mary Walker.

Even at savings bank interest of 3 per cent, compounded semi-annually, money grows rapidly. Ten dollars a month is destined to become a pretty toothless and bald. Which makes us glad to see that money is so scarce.

The latest scientific information is that air and teeth have about served their purpose, and that the human hand is destined to become pretty toothless and bald. Which makes us glad to see that money is so scarce.

Twenty-four people of the Harry Lehr stamp are going to dine in a monster wine barrel in Berlin. The meal will enter through the bung-hole in just three days. The question is averaged, they get out after dinner.

The pastor and one of his elders in a fitful church treated the congregation to a few rounds with back-knives after the services. Comment is withheld until it is learned whether a man was a man to make divine worship more attractive to the main part of the community.

According to the latest figures the population of the world to-day is 1,602,000,000. About half of its inhabitants are feminine. And job work is a race to make divine worship more attractive to the main part of the community.
