THE BLUE RIBBON MEETING.

Blue Ribbon week the annual event in horse kingdom is now with us and it promises to be the greatest in the history of the Detroit Driving Club.

The assessment district together with a map and diagram of said extension of Elm street have been adopted by this Council and have been deposited with the Village Clerk and are now on file with him.

That the lands and premises, which in the opinion of this Council, will be benefited by the proposed extension of Elm street, and which constitutes the assessed district thereof, and which this Council intends to assess for the cost of such extension of Elm street, are as follows:

Parcel of land bounded north by Maple avenue, east by the proposed extension of Elm street, south by alley and west by Simpson $100.00

Parcel of land bounded north by Maple avenue, east by South, south by alley, and west by proposed extension of Elm street $125.00

On the same day the $5,000 Chamber of Commerce will be reached. This race will undoubtedly furnish new world's records for pacers in competition.

Already one of the entries' Chas. Mail, 2:03 1/4, has beaten the world's record one second.

Two other races, 2:10 trot and 2:07 pace, are down for competition.

Tuesday, the second day, has for the feature the $10,000 Merchants and Manufacturers' race.

On the same day the $5,000 Chamber of Commerce will be reached. This race will undoubtedly furnish new world's records for pacers in competition.

Three other races will be contested this day, Wednesday. Sunday and Friday are so less conspicuous for their excellent offerings in attractions.

Four races each day. The meeting opens Monday, July 25, and continues each day for the week.

GAS OR ELECTRICITY?

There was not a very large crowd in attendance at the "gas" meeting at Liberty Hall Monday night.

The Council will, no doubt, appoint a committee to further investigate fighting plants in the surrounding towns before granting a franchise.
