Showing What's Doing in All Sections of the State

RACE FOR LIFE.
A farmer's wife drove to save a horse's life.

For more than seven miles with blood dripping from his leg and leg for a chance to reach his stall, Leonard drove a literal race with death—and won. Louis Pearl lies in a Grand Rapids hospital, the result of a horse which he was saving at the point of death, but it is said he will survive.

Pearl was working on the Leonard farm in Alipine township about seven miles from Grand Rapids, and in some places was only a few inches from the cutting bar caught the right foot and cut through flesh and muscle as deep as a paw a few inches above the heel. A great artery was severed and the blood poured from the entire front of the horse, but Pearl put an emergency bandage on it but it did not check the flow of blood.

He cut the front end of the horse and started on the wild ride. The animal was kept on a dead run for the entire distance and Pearl, though the animal was running away, making efforts to stop him.

Edward McCreedy, a man 29 years old, committed suicide. Marshall on Thursday he bolted the door, and letting behind a looking glass and a 32 caliber revolver, he stepped back and pulled the trigger. The bullet went through his head, and dropped on the floor.

Public Opinion in England demands that women shall put pockets in their dresses. What good would it do—no body could ever find them?

Drunk a bargain counter rash in Burking a riot call was sent for the police. Yet we continue to refer to women as the weaker sex?

A government transport recently sailed for the Philippines with $1,000,000 of silver coins in it. A few of us would prefer to "hold" that.

This Chicago professor who says he has demonstrated that a man can live on fifteen cents a day, ought to lose no time in living down to his profession.

To the man past the prime of life, how different are the boyhood memories of mother's knee, according to whether he was kneeling at it or bent over it.

One reason why so many of the actors and actresses are able to turn their thumbs down was that they didn't celebrate with firecrackers in those days.

The Atlanta Constitution thinks that a pretty face will cure a broken heart. Only trouble is that it often breaks the artery of the second part in the operation.

Russia's Baltic squadron is going to sail with sealed orders. It may be taken for granted that they'll be unusual in a hurry if the fleet happens to meet any Japs.

A lot of Boston girls who inspected the St. Louis Pike the other day pronounced it harmless, and even elevating. The Pikers can't do less than return the compliment.

In a Missouri town two eccentric couples were recently married on a firing trap. It is by no means the first time that Cupid has caught a young couple on the fly.

Luettie Aslyms are said to contain a larger proportion of piano-tuners than other classes of men, showing the piano habit has certainly caught a good many people to "get mad."

A thoughtful contemporary is of the opinion that there are "too many small men in politics." And some observers say that there are altogether too many small bills in them, too.

BUTCHERS' STRIKE

The big meat strike has become a question of endurance. The claim that the strike is complete, the packers say they can replace all who went out in a short time. Both have taken their medicine and the meat markets of the city have made each side more determined to stick to its own position.
