REV. M. E. BARHAM. Birmingham's Loss--South Lyon's Gain. After being pastor of the Rev. M. E. Church at the place for four years the Rev. Mr. Barham goes to South Lyon. Mr. Barham and his estimable family leave a host of friends behind them who wish them well in their new home.

EX-PRISONERS OF WAR. VETERANS OF 22d MICHIGAN VOLUNTEER INFANTRY. Sixth Annual Reunion Held at the Home of Hiram S. Daniels.

The sixth annual reunion of the ex-prisoners of war of the 22d Michigan Infantry was held at the home of H. S. Daniels on Tuesday last and about 40 men and women were present and enjoyed themselves as only old veterans know how.

A business meeting was held in the morning, and the following officers were elected: President, George W. Robertson; Secretary, M. Clemens; Treasurer, A. H. Collins; Rochester; March 1st in the M. Daniels for the royal manner in which he entertained his veteran guests. He had seen to it that nothing was lacking for the comfort and pleasure of his guests. There was the tent on the lawn and the stars and stripes floated proudly over all.

FAREWELL BANQUET. Given by Latin Pastor Club on Friday Evening, September 16, 10 p. m.

During the State Fair it was necessary to have a full force of car inspectors at the power house on duty from early morning until late at night and to protect themselves from bad weather the boys set up a large tent which they decorated with some tropical plants from Japan and many of the Russian-Japanese war.

AT THE THEATERS. AVENUE. There is lots of show at the Avenue this week at the "Clubs" and they are keeping the large audiences interested during the play. The vaudeville portion of the show is unusually strong and is composed of only the top-notchers of the profession. You see this show it will be a case of laughing or crying or both, but you know laughing is conducive to good health. Next week "The Throughbreds" will hold the boards in extravaganza and vaudeville.

WHITNEY. "Too Proud to Beg" will be seen at the Whitney theater for one week, commencing Sunday afternoon. The story is an interesting one, whether you want to laugh or not, and you know laughing is conducive to good health. Next week "The Throughbreds" will hold the boards in extravaganza and vaudeville.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our thanks to our friends and neighbors for their many kind acts and sympathy shown us in our latest bereavement in the loss of our beloved mother. Such acts will live long in our memories. HELEN A. DELANO, THEODORE H. C. STOW. FOR SALES
