SOLELY THE SMALL BOY.

Reference to "Higher Mathematics" Too Much for Him.

James Hogan was no doubt an important person in Bradley's life, as he was the only man who could be hired to saw and split wood or to use a lawn mower. He never lost a change to improve his fast upon a casual teacher.

"I've got to get through this job for your ma quick as ever," he announced to the small son of one of his employers. "I'm losing sixty cents on your right along every minute I'm here. There's three folks waiting for me now, and I don't know how they're going to get along till to-morrow without me, any one of 'em."

"Why, Mr. Hogan," said the boy, respectfully, "I don't see how you're losing sixty cents an hour when mother pays you twenty, and you couldn't be but in one place and another."

"Have you got as far as geometry in your studies?" inquired Mr. Hogan, coldly, resting his arms on the handle of the lawn mower.

"N—no, sir," admitted the boy.

"When you do you'll understand a good many things that's hid from you now," said Mr. Hogan, resting his hands leisurely on the lawn mower.

And the boy went into a study of the Youth's Companion.

Mother Love.

Do you remember, long and long ago, When griefs came—weighty griefs that met a child— And you went in to her to sob your woe, How patiently and soothingly she smiled—

Do you remember how she healed each bruise— And stopped the hurt that came from slip or fall? How suddenly she lit a pain you had at it—

Do you remember how, long ago, You would awaken, trembling in your fright— When fearing things, which only children know—

Do you remember how she made you see They were but whiffs of smoke on the wall— And how she wore into a lullaby—

Do you remember, long and long ago, How every little fret of night or day Before her tall form, when whispering low—

Do you remember, too, how each soft word— And your happy to you would call— As though the joys of youth, which she had heard—

Do you remember how, long ago, When days are dark and nights are sad—

VARIOUS KINDS OF DAYS.

Word said to have No Real Meaning Without Defining Adjective.

Five kinds of day are recognized, and it has been said that the word "day" has no real meaning without an adjective defining what kind of a day is meant. There is a civil day, the astronomical day, the apparent solar day, the mean solar day, and the sidereal day. The civil day begins at the midnight preceding mean noon, and consists of twenty-four hours counted after twelve o'clock; the astronomical day begins twelve hours after the civil day, or at the mean noon of the corresponding civil day. These hours are reckoned from 0 to 24 and will be seen, therefore, that while 10 a. m. 12 m. January 1st astronomical time, is also 10 p. m. 12 m. January 1st civil time, yet 2 p. m. 12 m. January 1st astronomical time, is also 1 p. m. 12 m. January 2d civil time. There are many anomalies growing out of this one of the civil day, and there are many arguments in favor of using the astronomical day. It is one of the reforms which undoubtedly will come some time.

The Reason Why.

Drummond, Wis., Sept. 19 (Special)—While families in Bayfield County are singing the praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills and the reason why is given in an experience such as that of Mr. T. T. Wold, a well-known citizen here. "I had such pains in my back that I did not know what to do," says Mr. Wold, "and as I came across an advertisement of Dodd's Kidney Pills I sent for a box. That one box relieved me of all my pains. My wife also used them and found them just what she needed. I recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills as a sure cure for Backache and other Kidney Troubles."

Backache is one of the earliest symptoms of Kidney Disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure it promptly and permanently and prevent it developing into Rheumatism, Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's Disease.

Woman Bent on Vengeance.

As M. Leon Victor was passing along the Boulevard St. Michael, Paris, a woman attacked him and bit his ear off. He is now dangerously ill of blood poisoning. The woman said she had been jilted, and was determined to wreak her vengeance on every man she met.

Dishonest Asylum Officials.

In one of the London hospitals, asylums—that at Horton, near Epsom—wholesale thefts of supplies by employees have been discovered. No effort was made to detect the thieves until officers were engaged in them.

The Old-Time "Nanna."

A writer in a recent number of the Queen expresses the opinion (which is shared by many other people) that children are not one whit better brought up by the smart, white-crocked, certificated nurses so much sought after nowadays than they were by the comfortable "Nanna" of the days gone by. The old nurse still holds a place in the hearts of the men and women who knew by loving care when they were children, and they will never forget her "treats" that used to delight their hearts. "Best of all," says a woman, "was lantern tea, when all the lights were put out, and the nursery was illuminated by penny tin lanterns, containing colored candles, which cast weird shadows on the solemn faces round the festive board."
