

LAUGH AND BE GLAD

HERE ARE THE HUMORS OF LIFE IN SMALL TABLETS.

Boy's Practical Idea of a Tangle. Oh—so excellent! Footpaths for Fish—Too Much Superstition Drove Sleep From Romantic Maiden.

Worth While. Passenger (on trunk line of railway)—Somehow the scenery along here looks different from what it used to.

Conductor—Yes; the road used to run around this hill. We go through it now, in a deep cut. It cost the company $50,000 and two months' work to make the cut, but it shortens our running time nearly three seconds—Chicago Tribune.

Looking at Himself. "We had such a prominent actor as a guest at our house the other evening." "Tragedian" didn't you find it hard to entertain him?" "Oh, no, we just handed him a bunch of photographs and his own was among them. He amused himself for hours."

Which Can Be Touched.

"What is meant by something tangible, pa?" "Something that you can touch, son." "Then it is another name for an easy mark."

The Whole Thing. "Yes," said young Benedick, "we went to Niagara Falls on our honeymoon. Just as soon as we got off the train my wife and I walked right over to see the falls."

Not an Athlete. "How is Jigley's boy making out at college?" "Oh! he isn't amounting to much there." "Why, I heard he was making great progress with his studies."

Preparing for the Wedding. "I suppose," said the facetious stranger, "watching a workman ascend a carpet from the church to the curb, 'That's the high road to Heaven you're fixing there.'"

No Wonder. "Where is Charlie Blower, the cornet player?" "Studying abroad." "Who advised him to go so far to study?"

Superstitious. "Mother, what sort of a sign is it with your back to the horizon, and with your face to the engine. If you don't happen to be hungry when you sit down to your lunch, don't force yourself to eat more than you can get along to do, if, at the same time, you feel inclined to have a second helping, have it by all means. Don't take a tepid bath as a sort of religion on a morning when you feel shivering and cold, or if you happen to have a pain between your shoulders; on the contrary, have it as hot as you can get into it, and you'll feel all the better for it."

Why were you talking so confidently with old Skinkin'?" "I'm his nephew." "What! The nephew of that old sawbrother?" "You know him, eh? Then I might as well tell you that I'm not exactly his nephew—he's my niece."

Everything Else Was Up. She (on boat)—Is the moon up, dear? He—If it isn't it's lonesome—Harper's Bazar.

Keep Off the Grass. "Jump—Sey, Jimmy, come up here me the grass; the air is much finer, and it's smoother walking."

A Sure Cure. "Small! What's good for the tooth-ache?" "Small—Walk about half-way to the nearest dentist's—Judge."

New Letter in the Alphabet. Mother (who is teaching her child to alphabet)—Now, dearie, what's that letter of the lattice work we're reading this?

Headaches, tired, worn-out nerves, sallow, muddy complexion and that feeling of lassitude and utter weariness are a few of the symptoms of constipated bowels. If your bowels do not act as nature intended to, do not trifle with your health by resorting to violent or gripping purgatives. They can give only temporary relief at the best, and their effect on the delicate linings of the bowels and digestive organs is manifestly leaving them in a worse condition than before. When you feel in need of a safe medicine to relieve the constipated bowels, remember that there is no case where Iron-Ox Tablets have failed to be of great benefit to the sufferer from constipation, when used according to directions.

Iron-Ox Tablets Don't Outrage the Bowels with Violent Purgatives

The only safe way to cure constipation is to use Iron-Ox Tablets, the tonic-laxative remedy that is safe, sure and positive in action, giving health and strength to the entire body.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee Tells an Irish Story. I was sitting at the depot at Charlotte, N. C., one afternoon some years ago for a train to Richmond. "When I first saw him he was carrying a cigar and paced up and down the long platform. Among the waiting passengers a distinctive Irishman, with trousers touching the tops of his shoes, a cutaway coat six inches too long, and a little old billycock hat, particularly attracted my attention. He was an unusual character, with the style of whikers known to the lads in the army as 'sluggers.'"
