

The football play will now be added to the unfolding features of our column.

All great men are cheerful, says a contemporary. In other words, it is great to be cheerful.

Mrs. Frank Leslie says that women marry before they are ready and many of them don't.

There is no difference between pleasure and happiness, one is a brand, the other the song of a bird.

When the Russian Godiva woman Donna meets no time should be lost in introducing a bill to change its name.

A flawless 40-carat diamond has been found near Johannesburg. Dropped by some careless street urchin.

It is announced that there will be a great many imitations of coal on the market this winter, but so man can fool his wife.

We wonder if Commodore Perry would make his separation from civilization less abrupt by counting it in days and nights.

The man who is waiting for time to bring him his revenge says "the mills of the gods grind finely, but they grind exceedingly slow."

Doesn't it make you happy to think that gold imports are announced again? Not if he is that they are not consigned to you.

Rojevsky has, so far recovered from his wounds, so is able to travel home. It is to be hoped Rojevsky's real troubles begin.

We wish Mme. Wade would show how fat women get into their corsets. That is one of the mysteries that have never been able to guess at.

An Egyptian (H.I.) coed saved a man who was drowning in Long Island sound. Men are not so numerous that a coed can afford to take any chances.

A Kansas parson refuses wedding fees because he does not think it is right to profit by the mistakes of others, according to the Kansas City Star.

The Virginia young man who was fined $20 for kissing a girl against her will. If he is really gallant, will say, of course, that it was worth the money.

As yachtman Lipton explains the accident, his horse jibed suddenly, forcing the yacht to lurch to starboard and throwing the skipper overboard.

In his opposition to vacation travel Russell Sage has at last found an ally in the New York doctor who attributes the spread of typhoid to the "deadly vacation."

At Camden, N.J., the other day a woman deserted her husband, after drawing his pay for a month in advance. Yet some people think the indignation was cruel.

The able correspondent knows a sensation when he sees one. He cables under the Atlantic that a New York man and his wife are living happily together in Paris.

MICHIGAN BREVITIES.

Monday's office was two stamps, the second robbery in two weeks. Chin Lee, a Chinese landladyman, of 1000 Grand River, was arrested, the second robbery in two weeks.

Two more escape easily from the Jackson Prison. Blood hounds got mixed up with a skunk and lost trail.

Long list of escapes look like poor management by someone. Out of Jackson Prison.

Two more state prison convicts have been at liberty since Monday night. A leader, some ropes and a friendly skunk. The latter appeared in the same scene after the escape.

When the Russian Godiva woman Donna meets no time should be lost in introducing a bill to change its name.

A flawless 40-carat diamond has been found near Johannesburg. Dropped by some careless street urchin.

It is announced that there will be a great many imitations of coal on the market this winter, but so man can fool his wife.

We wonder if Commodore Perry would make his separation from civilization less abrupt by counting it in days and nights.

The man who is waiting for time to bring him his revenge says "the mills of the gods grind finely, but they grind exceedingly slow."

Doesn't it make you happy to think that gold imports are announced again? Not if he is that they are not consigned to you.

Rojevsky has, so far recovered from his wounds, so is able to travel home. It is to be hoped Rojevsky's real troubles begin.

We wish Mme. Wade would show how fat women get into their corsets. That is one of the mysteries that have never been able to guess at.

An Egyptian (H.I.) coed saved a man who was drowning in Long Island sound. Men are not so numerous that a coed can afford to take any chances.

A Kansas parson refuses wedding fees because he does not think it is right to profit by the mistakes of others, according to the Kansas City Star.

The Virginia young man who was fined $20 for kissing a girl against her will. If he is really gallant, will say, of course, that it was worth the money.

As yachtman Lipton explains the accident, his horse jibed suddenly, forcing the yacht to lurch to starboard and throwing the skipper overboard.

In his opposition to vacation travel Russell Sage has at last found an ally in the New York doctor who attributes the spread of typhoid to the "deadly vacation."

At Camden, N.J., the other day a woman deserted her husband, after drawing his pay for a month in advance. Yet some people think the indignation was cruel.

The able correspondent knows a sensation when he sees one. He cables under the Atlantic that a New York man and his wife are living happily together in Paris.

CONDENSED NEWS.

Information has been made public in Tokyo that three Japanese paymasters have embezzled $165,000 of government money.

United States Senator John Mitchell, of Oregon, had a serious fall in Portland, Oregon, he believed he was assassinated by Mexicans in Sinaloa.

Wm. V. O'Daly, a prominent civil and mining engineer of the Canada, Yukon, and Alaska, has been assassinated by Mexicans in Sinaloa.

Robert Hanners, a Chicago baker, shot and killed two years ago, a doctor who had opened and placed the pencil in his lawyer.

John D. Rockefeller has paid over $10,000,000 gift to the general education fund. The sum was transferred in six checks, two for $2,000,000 each and four for $1,000,000 each.

After hitting across country with $100,000 in his pocket, Wm. V. O'Daly, Charles J. Thompson, New York manager for the Hendricks Mfg. Co., Carbonate, Pa., was landed in Chicago.

Three thousand five hundred delegates from all over the world are attending the World War Memorial congress now in session at Park.

The census bureau has issued a bulletin showing that there are 362 electric light and power stations in the country representing cost of construction and equipment of $94,740,522.

Regret is expressed that the special election in the third congressional district of Connecticut, electing Edward C. Conner, F. D. Brandegee, chosen United States senator last May.

A report has reached Washington from the Y. of the situation in New Orleans has been so encouraging, owing to the steady reduction in number of cases of subjects in the city.

Horace Greeley's advice seems to be followed by the Y. of the situation in New Orleans has been so encouraging, owing to the steady reduction in number of cases of subjects in the city.

Horace Greeley's advice seems to be followed by the Y. of the situation in New Orleans has been so encouraging, owing to the steady reduction in number of cases of subjects in the city.

Horace Greeley's advice seems to be followed by the Y. of the situation in New Orleans has been so encouraging, owing to the steady reduction in number of cases of subjects in the city.

Horace Greeley's advice seems to be followed by the Y. of the situation in New Orleans has been so encouraging, owing to the steady reduction in number of cases of subjects in the city.

Horace Greeley's advice seems to be followed by the Y. of the situation in New Orleans has been so encouraging, owing to the steady reduction in number of cases of subjects in the city.

Horace Greeley's advice seems to be followed by the Y. of the situation in New Orleans has been so encouraging, owing to the steady reduction in number of cases of subjects in the city.

Horace Greeley's advice seems to be followed by the Y. of the situation in New Orleans has been so encouraging, owing to the steady reduction in number of cases of subjects in the city.

Horace Greeley's advice seems to be followed by the Y. of the situation in New Orleans has been so encouraging, owing to the steady reduction in number of cases of subjects in the city.

Horace Greeley's advice seems to be followed by the Y. of the situation in New Orleans has been so encouraging, owing to the steady reduction in number of cases of subjects in the city.

APOSTLE DOWIE OF ZION SUFFERS A STROKE OF PARALYSIS.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has been stricken with paralysis. He is now on his way to Mexico in a condition which he himself admits is the forerunner of death.

AN INSANE MOTHER BUTCHERS HER SEVEN CHILDREN AND SUICIDES.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

Isaiah Mother's Marked Deed. Mrs. Chiffney Markham, of Cambridge Hill, in a fit of temporary insanity, killed her seven children with an ax, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set it on fire. She was arrested by a stranger man, but later, when the sheriff arrived, she admitted the crime. She was committed by a judge to the insane asylum.

SOME FEATURES OF THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE OUTLINED.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

President Roosevelt's first draft of his annual message to congress is completed, and unless he should change his mind before the final copy is made the message will not contain mention of reference to the tariff. That much has been learned authoritatively.

RAILROAD RATE LEGISLATION WILL BE TREATED STRONGLY.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

Relative to the subject of campaign contributions, the president is understood to have reiterated his recommendation that congress should pass an act making compulsory the publication of all campaign contributions of candidates for political office.

THE MARKETS.

DETROIT.—The quality in the cattle market was better than in the market of light gray stockers, very little of the heavy grades, but the butchers' grades, hogs and sheep were in demand. The market for hogs was steady, but the market for sheep was lower than they were a week ago.

DETROIT.—The quality in the cattle market was better than in the market of light gray stockers, very little of the heavy grades, but the butchers' grades, hogs and sheep were in demand. The market for hogs was steady, but the market for sheep was lower than they were a week ago.

DETROIT.—The quality in the cattle market was better than in the market of light gray stockers, very little of the heavy grades, but the butchers' grades, hogs and sheep were in demand. The market for hogs was steady, but the market for sheep was lower than they were a week ago.

DETROIT.—The quality in the cattle market was better than in the market of light gray stockers, very little of the heavy grades, but the butchers' grades, hogs and sheep were in demand. The market for hogs was steady, but the market for sheep was lower than they were a week ago.

DETROIT.—The quality in the cattle market was better than in the market of light gray stockers, very little of the heavy grades, but the butchers' grades, hogs and sheep were in demand. The market for hogs was steady, but the market for sheep was lower than they were a week ago.

DETROIT.—The quality in the cattle market was better than in the market of light gray stockers, very little of the heavy grades, but the butchers' grades, hogs and sheep were in demand. The market for hogs was steady, but the market for sheep was lower than they were a week ago.

DETROIT.—The quality in the cattle market was better than in the market of light gray stockers, very little of the heavy grades, but the butchers' grades, hogs and sheep were in demand. The market for hogs was steady, but the market for sheep was lower than they were a week ago.

DETROIT.—The quality in the cattle market was better than in the market of light gray stockers, very little of the heavy grades, but the butchers' grades, hogs and sheep were in demand. The market for hogs was steady, but the market for sheep was lower than they were a week ago.

DETROIT.—The quality in the cattle market was better than in the market of light gray stockers, very little of the heavy grades, but the butchers' grades, hogs and sheep were in demand. The market for hogs was steady, but the market for sheep was lower than they were a week ago.

DETROIT.—The quality in the cattle market was better than in the market of light gray stockers, very little of the heavy grades, but the butchers' grades, hogs and sheep were in demand. The market for hogs was steady, but the market for sheep was lower than they were a week ago.