But the Hearst followers, so near victory that the scent of it is in their nostrils, are coursing up and down the streets, yelling for blood and a recount in the courts. It will probably require the official count to determine the matter, and even then there will always be the feeling that the battle was not fought on its merits.

Perhaps the greatest surprise of the entire country was the disappointing race put up by Jerome, for district attorney. Political forecasters everywhere said if there was a cinch in the entire field it was the overwhelming election of Jerome. Having accepted this as a fact, they dismissed Jerome from their calculations, counting him as good as elected.] However, when the returns began to come in, Osborne disaplayed glarming strength. Ip to 10 o'clock, it appeared that Osborne had won. Then Jerome began to gain slowly and the latest returns indicate his election by about £000.

There are hints of trickery in the opposition to him—of false instructions to voters as to the marking of their ballots—thereby depriving him of thousands of votes he would otherwise have received. This suspicion is likely to be cleared up if the Hearst people carry their battle into the courts.

HEARST WILL ASK A RECOUNT.

It says:

John M. Patison will be the next governor of Oh.o. The unexpected happened yesterday when the Democratic gubernatorial cauda date overcame the plurality of 250,000, received by L. C. Laylin, the Republican ejected to the office of secretary of state last year. Indications at this hour point to the election of the Republican state licket, with the exception of Gov. Herrick, while both Republicans and Democratis daim the legislature.

Congressman Harvey Garber, chairman of the Democratic state exceutive committee, said at 2 clock this morning that he was not giving figures on Mr. Patision's plurality, further than that the claim he mided in his forecast of last Saturday would be found to be correct. His estimate then was 35,000 plurality for Patitison. Mr. Garber also said he thought the entire Democratic state ticket had been elected, and that his party would have a working majority in the entire guestian samely. He could give no figures to substantiate the claim that the legislature would be Democratic.
