There are many delightful features about "The Seminary Girl," the musical production which comes to the Lyceum next week, commencing Sunday evening. The story is constant and wittily unfeigned. Steve Dwyer, a New York politician, realizing that his daughter, Dorothy, will soon leave the seminary, determines to have plenty of blue blood in the family.

R. E. D. NO. 1.

J. S. Cannon, while out west, killed a bear just as Billy and I came to a bear. Mr. Cannon will take a great deal of comfort with it. He told me he would just call it a bear and he will show you the bear skin. Now, the beauty of it, he says he will lend it to his neighbor. We hope that Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will take a great deal of comfort with it.
