

BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, FEB 11

What a long time it has been since we have had any live news from Michigan...

So unsettled is Europe just now that even old Father Time joins in the general uprising.

A trust has begun to gobble up the New York barber shops. This is the most unkind cut of all.

Let us hope that Russian students will not construe liberty as license and go to playing football.

Though all the world may say that beautifying is absurd, the sight of one pretty woman will deny it.

Hetty Green may be the richest woman in America, but most girls would rather be Maxine Elliott.

When the emperor of Korea wants to do a little ruling nowadays he has to contend with ruling his temper.

The profit of the United States mail service for the year is $5,289,919, with a respectable creditable many surplus.

Korea is to have a Japanese governor, but the natives of Korea will be permitted to keep on doing the heavy work.

Mr. Fitzsimmons calls Mr. O'Brien a "jumping jackrabbit." Well, if it's jackrabbit vs. kangaroo the latter ought to win.

And another great and needed reform could be achieved if the moving picture machines would show views of women running.

One trouble with the bluffs offered by the Sultan of Turkey is that the other fellows can always look into the mirror behind him.

There were 1,900 donations from the British men of war during their stay in American waters. Uncle Sam is a strong drawing card.

The Shah of Persia has bought six French automobiles. He must feel that something is necessary to stop the overcrowding in Persia.

Here is a fine sentence from The Outlook: "Happiness came to him because he did not seek it—only tried to become better and better."

Gen. Weyler has been sent from Madrid to see the Catalonians. If the Catalonians "deserve" owing the right man has been picked for the job.

A Filipino schoolboy has stabbed his teacher to death. The young lion does that way, as it is taught to shoot should be taught to cut.

If Prince Louis had ordered a full set of false teeth from that New York dentist, he might have had to pawn his teeth for his warships in order to get away.

A school teacher now in the Philippines grumbles that all he has to eat there is "rice, fad, chickens, mangoes, pineapples and bananas."

MICHIGAN ITEMS.

A defective gasoline lighting plant caused a loss of $9,000 in Sandusky, Mich.

Andrew Carnegie, who gave $200,000 for a gymnasium at Hope college, has just given $100,000 additional to equip it.

Business tax, which has just been fixed at $4.81 on every $100 valuation, is the highest the city has ever had to pay.

Eighty miles an hour is the speed claimed to have been made by a special on the third-rail electric from Albion to Detroit.

"Catastrophe," a comic opera, with book and music by Miss Jessie E. Palmer, of Marquette, will be given its first trial at the Grand Opera House.

After many years, Porterville has a saloon. The resort has been opened but three days, and there are threats of shutting it out of business.

Holland taxpayers want a county normal training class in connection with the public schools. The special election will be held in March.

The sale of scattering pieces of state lands by the state land commissioner Friday netted the state about $1,000. Only two new lots were sold.

Pinned down 150 feet in a shaft, Thomas Mills, a timberman employed by the Calumet & Hecla Mining Co., was rescued after being trapped by a rock fall.

Joseph McNichols, of Grand Rapids, was awarded $7,000 damages against the Pere Marquette for the loss of a $15,000 watch in the service of the railroad.

Thursday night the safe in the postoffice was "wrecked" by the colored negroes. The stolen papers and all the stamps in the office were taken.

Karl Hampton has been arrested and taken to the city jail, where he is charged with the murder of Helen B. Bentley, whom he playfully shot in the back, twice.

Local bank revenue receipts in the city for the month of January total $183,881.54. Saturday's receipts of $32,126 were the highest for any one day in the history of the office.

What is 94 per cent normal in the state, according to the bulletin issued today, during November, 24,352 bushels of wheat were sold. The stock is reported in good condition.

The skeleton of a man with one shoe intact was washed ashore at Lake Harriet. The police have been unable to find any clue to the girl, who was poorly dressed.

Two 14-year-old boys, Earl Bowman and Arthur Smith, were arrested for trying to emulate the hanging of Mrs. Rogers. They put a noose around the neck of a policeman and tried to strangle him on a stick of wood.

Joseph Lin, on trial for the murder of Francisco Cezco at West Neerth in October, says he shot Cezco when he saw the bullet in the history of the office. The bullet which did the killing struck Cezco in the back.

Boys who read two nature books a month from the Toledo Public Library Sunday school regularly are eligible for a trip in a hot air balloon. The trip is to be conducted by Rev. J. F. Bauer.

A 2-year-old child of Thomas Riley, of Gladwin, was killed by a train on Tuesday morning. While the mother was out on an errand the horse caught fire and the child ran into the path. The mother rushed in and brought the body out, but too late.

Charles Heath, aged 27, freight conductor on the Toledo and Ann Arbor, was killed and fell under his train at Frank Junction, 12 miles west of Morenci, Mich., on the morning of Feb. 10. His body and he died two hours later. He was unmarried.

THE JEWS STILL SUFFER BY THE RUSSIAN INHUMANITY.

The Philadelphia matter will open up a new chapter and the sugar men will be heard in opposition to the cutting of customs rates on the sugar interests are in Washington from Michigan and other sugar states.

Definite information has been received from Bucharest and announced privately to some of his close personal friends at Washington.

Already arrangements are on foot to entertain him as guest of honor at the banquet to be given at the Hotel de Ville.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Alice Longworth, the daughter of the late Senator Charles Sumner, to Mr. Longworth.

Revolution is on. The fragments of Russia that are still holding their way out of Russia despite the telegraphers' strike and the stores of food are fast melting away.

It is practically a country without a government. The army and the police are weakening. The "reds" are worse than hell.

New mutinies among the troops are constantly reported and the lawless and lawless is increasing.

A financial crisis is confronting the country to add to its other troubles. "Witte's" government, many believe, is fast approaching the end of its ability to cope with the situation.

Cost Two Tons. H. A. Heath and Randall Grosver, traversed Canada last November, were fooling with a small rifle and each had a bullet hole in his leg.

Retaliation For Exclusion. Capt. A. C. Baker, of the cruiser Raleigh, who has been detached for duty at Canton, has been ordered to return to Washington to report on the political conditions in China.

It is impossible to talk of the boycott as dying out. The commercial situation in China is absolutely at the mercy of the American government.

When Miss Anna Fournier, a pretty French girl, Chicago, learned that her former sweetheart, Leo Nelson, had been confined to an asylum, she fled to South Haven to his home and there she remained for some time.

Search of the effects of the aged and eccentric late Mrs. Harriet Miller, of Bloomfield, has been made for years on the charity of the Baptists, the Old Fellows and others.

While working in R. G. Peja's lumber camp, near Cadillac, John Featherstone was killed as the result of being struck by a falling log.

The Flint good roads committee has been organized. The committee is to support the Brownlow bill providing for good roads appropriations.

Somebody has entered an order advancing the argument in the 28 cases before the Michigan supreme court.

Secretary Bonagante has received the record of the case of Mildred Minor Meriwether, Jr., tried by court martial at Annapolis for alleged rebellion in the death of Michigan.

Allegations that miners in Webster and Union counties, Kentucky, had been ordered to give up their arms.

Senator Perkins introduced a bill at Washington Thursday authorizing Rear Admiral McCallin, of the navy, to receive a pension of $100,000.

THE PUNISHMENT FOR THAT FATAL FIGHT.

Another story that Miss Alice Roosevelt will marry Mr. Longworth.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Alice Longworth, the daughter of the late Senator Charles Sumner, to Mr. Longworth.

Revolution is on. The fragments of Russia that are still holding their way out of Russia despite the telegraphers' strike and the stores of food are fast melting away.

It is practically a country without a government. The army and the police are weakening. The "reds" are worse than hell.

New mutinies among the troops are constantly reported and the lawless and lawless is increasing.

A financial crisis is confronting the country to add to its other troubles. "Witte's" government, many believe, is fast approaching the end of its ability to cope with the situation.

Cost Two Tons. H. A. Heath and Randall Grosver, traversed Canada last November, were fooling with a small rifle and each had a bullet hole in his leg.

Retaliation For Exclusion. Capt. A. C. Baker, of the cruiser Raleigh, who has been detached for duty at Canton, has been ordered to return to Washington to report on the political conditions in China.

It is impossible to talk of the boycott as dying out. The commercial situation in China is absolutely at the mercy of the American government.

When Miss Anna Fournier, a pretty French girl, Chicago, learned that her former sweetheart, Leo Nelson, had been confined to an asylum, she fled to South Haven to his home and there she remained for some time.

Search of the effects of the aged and eccentric late Mrs. Harriet Miller, of Bloomfield, has been made for years on the charity of the Baptists, the Old Fellows and others.

While working in R. G. Peja's lumber camp, near Cadillac, John Featherstone was killed as the result of being struck by a falling log.

The Flint good roads committee has been organized. The committee is to support the Brownlow bill providing for good roads appropriations.

Somebody has entered an order advancing the argument in the 28 cases before the Michigan supreme court.

Secretary Bonagante has received the record of the case of Mildred Minor Meriwether, Jr., tried by court martial at Annapolis for alleged rebellion in the death of Michigan.

Allegations that miners in Webster and Union counties, Kentucky, had been ordered to give up their arms.

Senator Perkins introduced a bill at Washington Thursday authorizing Rear Admiral McCallin, of the navy, to receive a pension of $100,000.

One of the most astounding events of the phenomenal prosperity of the country is the fact that the freight cars for the Southern railway.

Mrs. Alice O'Day, widow of Judge John O'Day, of St. Louis, Mo., has been ordered to give up her arms.

THE PUNISHMENT FOR THAT FATAL FIGHT.

Another story that Miss Alice Roosevelt will marry Mr. Longworth.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Alice Longworth, the daughter of the late Senator Charles Sumner, to Mr. Longworth.

Revolution is on. The fragments of Russia that are still holding their way out of Russia despite the telegraphers' strike and the stores of food are fast melting away.

It is practically a country without a government. The army and the police are weakening. The "reds" are worse than hell.

New mutinies among the troops are constantly reported and the lawless and lawless is increasing.

A financial crisis is confronting the country to add to its other troubles. "Witte's" government, many believe, is fast approaching the end of its ability to cope with the situation.

Cost Two Tons. H. A. Heath and Randall Grosver, traversed Canada last November, were fooling with a small rifle and each had a bullet hole in his leg.

Retaliation For Exclusion. Capt. A. C. Baker, of the cruiser Raleigh, who has been detached for duty at Canton, has been ordered to return to Washington to report on the political conditions in China.

It is impossible to talk of the boycott as dying out. The commercial situation in China is absolutely at the mercy of the American government.

When Miss Anna Fournier, a pretty French girl, Chicago, learned that her former sweetheart, Leo Nelson, had been confined to an asylum, she fled to South Haven to his home and there she remained for some time.

Search of the effects of the aged and eccentric late Mrs. Harriet Miller, of Bloomfield, has been made for years on the charity of the Baptists, the Old Fellows and others.

While working in R. G. Peja's lumber camp, near Cadillac, John Featherstone was killed as the result of being struck by a falling log.

The Flint good roads committee has been organized. The committee is to support the Brownlow bill providing for good roads appropriations.

Somebody has entered an order advancing the argument in the 28 cases before the Michigan supreme court.

Secretary Bonagante has received the record of the case of Mildred Minor Meriwether, Jr., tried by court martial at Annapolis for alleged rebellion in the death of Michigan.

Allegations that miners in Webster and Union counties, Kentucky, had been ordered to give up their arms.

Senator Perkins introduced a bill at Washington Thursday authorizing Rear Admiral McCallin, of the navy, to receive a pension of $100,000.

One of the most astounding events of the phenomenal prosperity of the country is the fact that the freight cars for the Southern railway.

Mrs. Alice O'Day, widow of Judge John O'Day, of St. Louis, Mo., has been ordered to give up her arms.

THE PUNISHMENT FOR THAT FATAL FIGHT.

Another story that Miss Alice Roosevelt will marry Mr. Longworth.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Alice Longworth, the daughter of the late Senator Charles Sumner, to Mr. Longworth.

Revolution is on. The fragments of Russia that are still holding their way out of Russia despite the telegraphers' strike and the stores of food are fast melting away.

It is practically a country without a government. The army and the police are weakening. The "reds" are worse than hell.

New mutinies among the troops are constantly reported and the lawless and lawless is increasing.

A financial crisis is confronting the country to add to its other troubles. "Witte's" government, many believe, is fast approaching the end of its ability to cope with the situation.

Cost Two Tons. H. A. Heath and Randall Grosver, traversed Canada last November, were fooling with a small rifle and each had a bullet hole in his leg.

Retaliation For Exclusion. Capt. A. C. Baker, of the cruiser Raleigh, who has been detached for duty at Canton, has been ordered to return to Washington to report on the political conditions in China.

It is impossible to talk of the boycott as dying out. The commercial situation in China is absolutely at the mercy of the American government.

When Miss Anna Fournier, a pretty French girl, Chicago, learned that her former sweetheart, Leo Nelson, had been confined to an asylum, she fled to South Haven to his home and there she remained for some time.

Search of the effects of the aged and eccentric late Mrs. Harriet Miller, of Bloomfield, has been made for years on the charity of the Baptists, the Old Fellows and others.

While working in R. G. Peja's lumber camp, near Cadillac, John Featherstone was killed as the result of being struck by a falling log.

The Flint good roads committee has been organized. The committee is to support the Brownlow bill providing for good roads appropriations.

Somebody has entered an order advancing the argument in the 28 cases before the Michigan supreme court.

Secretary Bonagante has received the record of the case of Mildred Minor Meriwether, Jr., tried by court martial at Annapolis for alleged rebellion in the death of Michigan.

Allegations that miners in Webster and Union counties, Kentucky, had been ordered to give up their arms.

Senator Perkins introduced a bill at Washington Thursday authorizing Rear Admiral McCallin, of the navy, to receive a pension of $100,000.

One of the most astounding events of the phenomenal prosperity of the country is the fact that the freight cars for the Southern railway.

Mrs. Alice O'Day, widow of Judge John O'Day, of St. Louis, Mo., has been ordered to give up her arms.

COMMITTEE PLACES.

William Allen Smith has been given a place on the great committee of ways and means which will be the main membership in that body for the first time since Senator Burrows left the house.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.

Death from a strange malady which physicians say they have never seen or heard of has overtaken ten of the members of the Michigan legislature.