HOME NOTES.

The man who whispers down a well
About the goods he has to sell,
Won't reap the gleaming, golden shiners
Like one who climbs a tree and hollers.

Happy New Year.

Everybody a Happy New Year.

Lloyd Campbell (M. D. soon to be) is home from Ann Arbor enjoying the skating and having a fine holiday season.

The foot ball boys are resplendent in white sweaters with a big red B making them happy, and handsome to look upon.

Miss Maud Campbell started in for a weeks' holiday vacation, but a telephone call sent her back into the nurses' rank Wednesday.

Mrs. Emma C. Tibbits will visit for a month or more in Chicago and enjoy a good time as she has many friends all waiting for that promised visit.

Anyone interested in voice culture and wishing to study same, call at my home two doors north of the National hotel. Terms reasonable. Carrie Lee Brown. 14t

The Baptist church had their Christmas tree and entertainment on Monday evening. There was a good crowd attending and all enjoyed the music and recitations.

A Christmas dinner at S. H. Bortle's Monday last was heartily enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Parry and daughter, of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Bortle know how to entertain and the guests were filled to their fullness with good things and happiness, and enough left over for twenty more.

James McKimley is slowly recovering the use of his leg and is around on crutches. He is visiting his sister, Mr. Phillip Bott, at Gagetown, Mich., for the holidays.

Wm. Cockerline and son Wm. B. are visiting relatives at Blythe, Ont. It has been fifteen years since Mr. Cockerline left his old home, and the changes are numerous.

Yes, we're going. Every one is going to the New Years party. Dandy time furnished by the Birmingham Dancing Club at the Johnston-Shaw hall. Guy's orchertra.

Carrie E. Mitchell is home for the holidays. She and Miss Grace L. Smith expect to finish their studies and graduate from the Kirksville, Mo., A. S. O. College next month.

Clarence Heth and wife are enjoying their holiday season at the old home of Mrs. Heth, Wickware, Mich. Last report from the visitors is that they are having a right good time.

If you were in Detroit any day last week you could not fail to meet more Birmingham friends than you could in a three-day walk about our streets. Everybody goes but father.

In Kansas women have had full municipal suffrage since 1887 and of the 105 counties 85 are without a pauper, 25 have no poor houses and 37 have no criminal case on the docket.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Megian and little daughter, Mrs. Emeline Webster, Mrs. Rosira Tibbals, of Rochester, ate Christmas dinner at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dodds.

Milford is hot after the new sanitarium for consumptives with a bright prospect for landing the game. Guess our people would rather not have it than to be troubled with the sick ones.

Word has just reached us that Mr. I. D. Cook, who lived in this vicinity some 20 years ago, is dead. He was a genial, clever and a well-liked man, and had many friends in this vicinity.

LeRoy Webber and Wallace Webber, of Ithaca; Earl Webber, of Omena, and Mrs. Webber and children, Fairbanks and Charlotte, spent Christmas with Mrs. Bronson, of the Shattuck Terrace.

The many friends of Mr. Henry Kinney wonder if "Hank" has met his fuish in some of the recent heavy storms on the lakes during the past month or so. We hope Hank is not with the angels yet.

Miss Mollie G. Smith is this week entertaining holiday visitors; Mrs. Fred G. Smith, with her four children, the Masters Thos. and Clifford and the Misses Pauline and Evaline Smith, all from Illinois.

"Around the Study Lamp" is the name of the women's club of Louisville that has secured from the City Board the passage of an ordinance forbidding expectorating on sidewalks and in public places.

A Fred Warner cheese will be one of the prizes offered at the poultry show this year at Pontiac. Governor Warner has made the donation and the competition in the class in which the cheese is awarded is expected to be correspondingly fierce.

John N. Heth has bought the home of Mrs. H. J. Bloomburg. Mr. Will Bloomburg will soon go to Syracuse, N. Y., to resume his old occupation. By the provision of the sale Mrs. Bloomburg has a home with Mr. Heth and family as long as she lives.

The home-like restaurant of G. G. Fenwich, at 99 Woodward avenue, Detroit, is still supplying the hungry crowds that flock daily to this neat, clean and popular rest room and food house. We notice a great many Birmingham people make this cafe their headquarters while in the city.

Our sympathies are with the family of A. B. Glaspie, editor of the Oxford Leader, who mourn the loss of their first infant, David Milton Glaspie, who lived nearly a half a year and then passed away. Only those who have passed through this sad experience can understand their sorrow and grief.

Eugene Brooks and wife are happy over a big Navajo Indian blanket from Albuguerque, N. M., sent to them by Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Brooks. Its a beauty and very valuable. They also received a smaller piece of this work with all the primitive tools used by the Indian in weaving this goods.

Milford is certainly up to date. She has passed an anti-spitting ordinance and after about ten days more it will cost the careless, slovenly filthy spitter $15 or 30 days in county jail to expectorate on the sidewalks, cross walks, on public floors, stairs, steps, entresi or platforms of stores, offices or public halls. Isn't that a corker?

The Presbyterians gave their Christmas tree and entertainment on Tuesday evening. The program consisted of some nicely rendered recitations, after which a short cantata, entitled "Santa Claus in Wonderland," was given. It contained some very pretty music and the audience was well pleased with the success of the entertainment.

Congressman Samu l W. Smith has introduced a bill in Congress appropriating $100,000 for a federal building at Pontiac. The building would be used for postoffice purposes. Pontiac citizens have been working to secure such a building for several years and their hopes are likely to be realized by the passage of the bill now before the house.

Wes. Faint, our paint expert, paint salesman for the Memphis Lead Works, delivered an address to 42 salesman of the Cleveland (Ohio) McIntosh Corporation, a mammoth institution. Wes. is the artist that can paint them a fine picture, give expert testimony on paint, edify his listeners, entertain them all and jolly everybody, and do it so they will all demand more and more.

John D. Evans brought suit against Charles L. Randall, et al, in Justice Campbell's Court, December 21st, 1905, to recover $51.28 for apples sold. The jury brought in a verdict in favor of the said plaintiff for the above amount. Later the Court received a letter from the defendant's attorneys, notifying him that the Plaintiff need not take out an execution and that they will settle.

And this is the way Brother Fox, of the Rochester Era, speaks of a dear old friend: "Old Bill" Blair, one of the last of the old-time tramp printers, made The Era his quarterly call last Wednesday. The poor devil had that same old jag with him. Deputy Sheriff C sey picked him in a drunken condition, and Justice Peters sent him over to Pontiac to board with Sheriff Greer for twenty days."

Get ready and be sure to come Wednesday evening, Jan. 3. There will be given in the Methodist church a home talent concert, the proceeds of which are to help out the church funds. The entertainers give their talent and time, will you come and listen? or, if you cannot, buy a ticket and help us. The following persons are to take part: Misses Lee, Roy, Lignian, Rock, Ward, Tabor, Plumstead; Mesdames Brown, Peck, Saultzer, Crawford, and Messrs. Rainey, Smith, Saultzer, Rose and others.

Physicians are charged with a new duty under an act of the last Legislature in regard to filing certificates of births with Township, Village and City Clerks. The act takes effect on January 1, 1906. Under the old law births were enumerated by Assessors and Supervisors once a year, which proved to be a very imperfect and inaccurate way. When filed promptly within ten days after birth, the returns should be complete and reliable. Blanks and instructions have been mailed to all physicians in the State by the Secretary of State Lansing, who has charge of this matter.

In regard to the action of Fred F. Zillman and his late trouble with this office the following is the latest: The Rev. Paul Hayne, of Batavia, N. Y., wrote the editor of the Chesterton Tribune on December 7, urging him not to press the charge against Zillman, on account of his wife and infant and his mother, brothers and sisters, who live in that village and who are respectable people. Mr. Hayne wrote that the family would reimburse the editor for what had been stolen if the charge against Zillman were dropped. It turned out, however, that Zillman was under arrest in Michigan instead of in Indiana.

And this happened at Ortonville, Mich., according to W. B. McCoy's Hustler: "If you would feed your chickens red pepper," said a West Mill street lady to a neighbor, who had been complaining that she was getting no eggs from her flock, "they will soon begin to lay." Whereupon the lady of the second part decided to try the experiment immediately—and for a week or so the chickens in that neighbo hood looked "pretty hot stuff." But the change of food was ineffective, and in despair the wife told the husband of her fruitless effort in trying to make the chickens pay the grocery bill. "Why, my dear," explained the husband, "those chickens are all roosters. I bought them of Gord. Terry, to eat, not to lay eggs."

The following inquiry is made by the Gagetown Times: "Doesn't it make you weary to read the rot of those rattled brained idiots of the Chicago and Detroit press who are repeatedly ridiculing the country press for or on their locals? These lurch counter fiends think it awfully funny when some country newspaper says: 'Hiram Slocum has sold his Holstein cow to Ed Childress,' but of course it is a proper caper when they say: 'Miss Franklin Oliver Lowden has just returned from the Epsom Lorimer kennels.' The bull pup would bring 80 cents in the dog pound, while Slocum's cow would bring 50 dollars in the dark." These are plain unvarnished truths and The News means to call the other Detroit papers down. They deserve the skinning they have received from the Gagetown Times. —Detroit News.

The Methodist Sunday school held its Christmas exercises Saturday evening. The decorations were prettier and more elaborate than for several years and the cantata rendered by the members of the school was gone through without a break. Old Santa always doing well and growing more and more popular every year. The infant department had the best numbers, Master Edmund Bunyan, the littlest and youngest one of them all, was the first to heard from and he certainly made a hit. These little tots, under the care of Mrs. Roy and Miss Grace Bakerlee, are the pride of the church. Mrs. Frank Schlaack, Miss Mame Tabor and Mrs. Anna Bird coached the entertainers. Mr. Harvey G. Staley, who is their capable superintendent, extends an invitation to any who will to come, and they will receive a hearty welcome.

Have You a Friend?

Then tell him about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Tell him how it cured your hard cough. Tell him why you always keep it in the house. Tell him to ask his doctor about it. Doctors use a great deal of it for throat and lung troubles.

"I had a terrible cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it gave me quick and perfect relief. It is certainly a most wonderful cough medicine."—RENA E. WHITMAN, Sioux Falls, S. Dak.

Sealshipt Oysters are shucked, washed and drained in a perforated table, dropped directly into a white porcelain enameled case, SEALED and imbedded in ice in a Sealshipt Oyster Carrier.

Sealshipt Oysters do not come in contact with ice, air or water. They are not exposed until they reach the dealer. They come out fresh, firm, clean and of the natural color.

Sealshipt Oysters are free from preservatives of any kind. None are ever necessary. The oysters are absolutely clean, thoroughly chilled and protected from air.

Sealshipt Oysters are juicy, luscious, appetizing, with the true "half-shell" flavor, the tempting tang of the salt water.

AND THEN THAT

Tub oysters are shucked and dropped into water where they are allowed to soak and bloat far beyond their natural size. Then they are dumped into a soggy wooden tub with a loose cover.

Tub oysters have chunks of ice directly in contact with them, bruising, tearing and puncturing them, so that they come out ragged, unclean and bleached to a sickly white.

Tub oysters are, of necessity, kept presentable by the liberal use of chemical preservatives, formaldehyde, boracic acid, preservaline, etc., added with the ice.

Tub oysters are flat, insipid, slimy, soft, with no particular flavor, except that given by chemicals and the stale, slimy water.
