

To Our Friends.

When reading with any of our advertisements...

HOME NOTES

New Advertisements.

Frank Cobb, of Lansing, was in town last Sunday.

Mrs. Fred G. Crawford visited in Toronto, Ont., last week.

The next dance will be given at Library hall, May 5.

Mr. and Mrs. David McWhinney, of Indianapolis, are guests of Robt. Toms.

Window gardens are easily cared for and add to the appearance of every house.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Knapp, of Detroit, were Birmingham visitors Sunday last.

Mrs. Sarah Carter is home again after a two weeks' visit with her sister at Amy.

Summer has come—the popcorn street peddler opened the season last Saturday night.

For Sale—Early and late seed potatoes. Inquire of H. F. Daniels.

Our high school nine defeated Royal Oak for first honors Wednesday by a score of 14 to 9.

Mr. Thomas Cavanagh and family, of Detroit, spent Sunday with F. McHugh and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Weeks, of Detroit, spent Easter at the home of their sister, Mrs. A. Bunyan.

Sunday morning church goes complain of sidewalk filth from expectations of the previous evening.

For Sale—Good hickory mill wood, $2.00 per cord, delivered. Inquire of W. L. Miner at handle factory.

Albion and Linden are the two progressive towns in which new library buildings have recently been dedicated.

We do sincerely hope spring with all her ethereal mildness will now take the center of the stage and the time light.

Wanted—Board and room, or board without a room, or room without board. Address Box 44, Birmingham, Mich.

A very nice looking street is Woodward Ave. south where the stoops and rubbish has been cleaned from the gutters.

For Sale—One cook stove, base burner, small heater, gasoline stove with oven and sideboard. J. A. Tread.

One Birmingham lady says: "If Pontiac would keep her hoodlums at home, they wouldn't be down here disturbing our Easter services."

Early and late potatoes for sale. Early Everet and 'New York Rurals. Inquire of Thos. Cook, Birmingham, Mich.

Miss Zilpha J. Campbell, of the U. M., has been re-engaged as principal of the Rochester high school at an increase of salary.

For Sale—Trio of Silver Wyandotte chickens, and a pair of tame coons—male and female. John Wilkinson, Birmingham, Mich.

Mrs. Mary Poppleton, accompanied by her father, Stephen Cooper, have taken rooms in Detroit where they expect to remain for some time.

Property for sale on Saginaw street. Terms reasonable. For particulars inquire at Exchange Bank or of Mollie G. Smith.

Our village people say that there is only one way to advertise and that is NOT by scattering circulars over lawns, or dumping them on front steps.

James Hanks, a former resident of this place, made his mother and sister a short call this week. He was enroute from New York to his home in Duluth.

Special convocation of Birmingham R. A. Chapter, No. 93, next Monday evening. All members urgently requested to be present. D. M. Johnston, Sec'y.

Attention is called this week to the change of adv't. of the Adolph Eggagas Jewelry Co., of Detroit. If you are looking for wedding present don't overlook this popular store.

Mrs. Edward Hill, nee Ella Watkins, visited Mrs. Elizabeth Randall, Tuesday of this week and passed a pleasant day in Birmingham.

The barns on Sam Groves' farm, east of this village were destroyed by fire Friday last. Cause of fire unknown. Loss covered by insurance.

In spite of the heavy rain Thursday evening of last week the high school literary meeting was well attended and netted a neat sum for the seniors.

Mrs. Clancey and son, of Detroit, and Mrs. Simmons and daughter Genevieve, of Sanilac Center, were the guests of Mrs. Elmer Munro last Tuesday.

If you wish to increase your holdings in Sallas mining stock, or if you want to get next to a sure winner, call on C. H. Hoffman. He'll explain matters to you.

Married, at the home of the bride on Wednesday of last week, Miss B. Brush to Mr. Geo. H. Dash, of Detroit. The wedding was private and only members of the family were present.

Mrs. Samuel Johnson, of Randall's subdivision has been very low the past week but is now on the slow road to a recovery, much to the joy of her family and many friends.

Pupils Wanted—I am prepared to take a few pupils in piano music. Terms amde known at my home on Ann street. Lessons given at home of pupils if desired. Mrs. J. B. Parker.

Mrs. M. N. Noble, of 114 Selden Ave., Detroit, who has been ill for nearly two months past, is better. Her many friends here will be pleased to know that all danger is passed and she is now convalescent.

Dr. J. A. Mansfield Clark, of Cascade, Kent county, Mich., visited with his father Dr. R. A. Clark of Pierce street, last Saturday and Sunday. Both M. D.'s report favorably on Birmingham and her environments.

A tract of over 100 acres of land has been given to the people for three parks in five townships in Berrien county by Mr. E. K. Warren of Three Oaks. Hasn't Bloomfield some friend who will give land for one park?

A cheap home for someone. I offer for rent tenant house on my farm in Southfield, one-half mile south and two miles west of Erity's Mills. Call or write Jno. Young, R. F. D. Birmingham, Mich.

Here's something out of the ordinary. To every laboring man with a family, I will give a bag full of good potatoes if he will call with a bag at my home on Townsend street. Don't hold back, potatoes for all, only call. Hiram F. Daniels.

Dr. Walter E. Wilson, of Grand Lodge, Mich., has been appointed a member of the state pardoning board by Gov. Fred E. Warner. Dr. Wilson is a Birmingham boy, bred and born, and we congratulate him on his appointment.

Tobacco spit on our walks and in stores and public places, while filthy and disgusting, is, probably, not as dangerous to health as other excoriations. The general public all over the country are asking protection from both.

The treasurer and secretary of the Birmingham Cemetery Society will be at the library room Saturday afternoon to receive the dues for 1925. A prompt payment is earnestly requested. M. Baldwin, secretary; Eva B. O'Neal, treasurer.

In spite of their lesson of last year, many farmers failed to save good seed corn last fall. It is said that a large part of last year's crop is unfit for seed and it might be well for everybody to try a sample of their seed before planting their crop.

Pass any crowd of children on their way home from school, and you will hear, "Did you see what she did to me when I Wasn't Doing A Thing?" According to the children, the teacher is always doing something to them when they are not doing a thing.

Roger Caldwell, of West Virginia, was a visitor with Raynald A. Whitehead for the week's vacation from the U. of M. the past week, and both students had a royal rest, fishing, etc. Harold Corson and Glenn Robinson were home also. All are well.

Up where autos must be scarce the Holly Herald says: "The first automobile of the season was in town one day last week and from this date until snow flies next fall the horses will head for the tall and uncult about every time one of the whizz wagons goes past.

Mrs. Fanny Trollope has been and is quite ill. She has a Detroit nurse and all the care that a loving husband can secure and give. At this writing her case is considered hopeful and we sincerely hope and trust that the good lady will soon recover.

W. I. McClelland has moved his home to the south part of his lot, raised it nearly four feet and put a cellar under all, and with building blocks above the ground, and when finished he will have a cozy, comfortable home and one to be proud of. Succs-to William.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Smith, of Danville, Ill., are visiting their sister, Miss Mollie G., Mr. Fred Smith is Signal Inspector for the C. & E. I. R. y, with headquarters at Danville—has a good situation with a fat salary, all coming to him by his own personal efforts.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. C. H. Hoffman on Friday afternoon, May 5. Supper from 5 to 7. Frank Bakesley, George Mitchell, the village bard, the business men and the hardy sons of toil are especially invited. Ten cents says the bill.

The members of Mary D. hive, No. 393, L. O. T. M. M., will give a tea at Macabee hall, on May 3, 1925, from 5 p. m. to 8 p. m. Every member is requested to help furnish refreshments. Those holding tickets on the book, please be present at the drawing to be held in the evening Supper loc. R. K.

Quite a queer thing was seen by our editor this week while at a friend's house. There was a small brush pile in the rear of the yard and to the surprise of all in looking out at the brush there stood two of the handsomest robins that was ever seen and five of the largest rats together eating.—Wayne Review.

With the consent of the owner, the Village Improvement society has taken the advertising tags off several buildings and placed "Post No. Bills" in their place. Anyone who is annoyed by advertisements being placed on their property, can have the same taken off without cost, by applying to this society.

And this, too, from the Northville Record: "A young ball player, who has lately been at Mr. Schappacasse of Birmingham. When he gets made at any decision of the umpire all he will have to do is to go Ben Franklin's injunction several better and instead of counting just spell his own name. It would answer the double purpose, if he spelled it out loud, of giving his own anger time to cool and of effectually smothering the offender."

Next Monday, May 1st, this whole institution, the Exchange Bank, Eclectic office, and drug and grocery store starts off with Standard time, and everybody that wants to be up to date should do so. Why be a back number? Detroit has it, the trolley cars have it, the railroad always had it. Just get in the swim. The old song says:

And if you haven't got it, you will get it here soon. Louis Randall, of Brown street, is the happy owner of a brand new Edison phonograph with a big bunch of the latest and most popular gold molded records, and evenings now will find the young man "at home" with a few invited guests listening joyously to "Teasing," "Bedelia," "In the Shade of the Old Appletree," and a few such. This is a move the young man most heartily enjoys, and he certainly does to his fullest capacity.

The Ladies' Literary club has just finished a series of pleasant meetings held at the home of Mrs. Raynald. Monday last the following papers were read: "Leading Men of New Japan," Mrs. Zilpha J. Smith; "Future of Japan," Mrs. Crawford; "History of the Lewis and Clark Expedition, and the Expedition of 1925," Miss J. Post. The May meetings will be held with Miss Baldwin.

The Alpha-Omicron club of 14 of Birmingham's best and finest young ladies made a theater party and attended the Lyceum in Detroit last night (Thursday evening). They play this week is "The Watch on the Rhine," and each and all expressed themselves as delighted with the entertainment. Wash we were young again. A. R. Warner never entertained a finer or more appreciative club than the Omnicrons.

There were doings last Tuesday evening at the M. E. Church base ment where Miss Mayme Barber entertained her Sunday-school class of 15 young U. S. Presidents in miniature. This group of young ladies is known as the Taber-St. Paul club and they were all given the 4th degree and initiated with all the rights and privileges due them. Such an initiation was trying to their souls but all stood the tests bravely and well.

We have a new offering in the real estate department of the Exchange Bank this week. It is the Patch farm on the town line between Bloomfield and Troy. 200 acres of the best kind of farming lands and it is so situated that it might be divided into two farms and you can have either of them on easy terms and at a price which would make it attractive even if you don't want to buy a farm anyhow. Ask Whitehead at the bank. He won't be mad if you bother him.

What is called the Double-Ivory-Dickinson primary election bill, was passed by the house of representatives Thursday of last week by nearly a unanimous vote. The bill is a compromise between what the provisions and conditions that it is not much less than an insult to the people. It may serve as a starter, however, and in that view may be better than nothing. But as it comes far from pleasing either faction, it may yet be defeated in the senate.

Easter services were appropriately observed at the various churches on Sunday last. The programs were varied and interesting and the attendance was very large. The participants did nicely and the sight of those little tots on the rostrum took the old folks back to the days when they wore short frocks and made their appearance in public in the same conspicuous manner as did the children Sunday night. Even the gray haired men were taken back to the scenes of their childhood, and the thoughts of those happy, innocent days brought many a teardrop to the surface.

Married, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Frank Miller, at Crosswell, Mich., Tuesday, April 18, '25, Mrs. Jessie McCulley, and Mr. Daniel Allison, of Royal Oak town ship. There was a best man and bridesmaid, and the knot was quickly tied by the Presbyterian clergyman, Rev. T. G. Wilson, of Crosswell. When the happy couple left after the ceremony a perfect bombardment of old shoes, rice, etc., followed. The happy pair came at once to their new home at Royal O. k farm where they are daily receiving congratulations from their many friends and neighbors.

Mrs. A. Burhaus, who died a few days ago at River Rouge, was born in Troy 80 years ago and was well known in this vicinity. For many years she followed the occupation of school teaching. Mr. and Mrs. Burhaus moved to River Rouge about 18 years ago and went into the grocery business, retiring to private life a number of years later. Mr. and Mrs. Burhaus organized the first Sunday-school in River Rouge about 17 years ago it then being known as the Union Sunday-school. It prospered so well that in 1892 the Baptists formed a Sunday-school from it, and in 1893 the Union Sunday-school reorganized and is now known as the St. Mark's Episcopal Mission. Her funeral was held from her late home on Division street in River Rouge, in Detroit being in the cemetery at Royal Oak. A memorial service was held for Mrs. Burhaus last night in River Rouge showing the great esteem in which she was held by the community.

Attention. Experienced woman in confinement cases open for engagements. Address G. A. R., box 302, Birmingham, 1919.

For Thin, Poor Blood. You can trust a medicine tested 60 years! Sixty years of experience, think of that! Experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; the original Sarsaparilla; the strongest Sarsaparilla; the Sarsaparilla the doctors endorse for this blood, weak nerves, general debility.

Would Release Murderers. Peterson, N. E. dispatch. Six of the eight members of the New Jersey pardon board favor the release of Libbie Garbarant, in prison thirty-three years for poisoning her husband in a jealous rage.

UMBRELLAS. WE HAVE JUST UNBOXED new and delightful things in Silk, Black and Fancy Colored Dress Goods and White and Colored Wash Fabrics—the prices are particularly low just now. Dress Goods. Blue and Brown and Green and Brown light weight checks, regular Tailor Cloth, 50 inches wide, for only $1.25 yard.

Silks From Elliott's. Are always satisfactory. Our Rajah Pongee Silk, 33 inches wide, colors in stock. Navy, Gray, Brown, Emerald, Blue, Oyster White, $1.25 yard. The genuine "Rajah Pongee" is on sale at no other store in Detroit.

THE BIRMINGHAM GAS COMPANY. Is now ready to make connections with stores and dwellings. Acetylene light is the 20th century light. It is absolutely safe and clean. It requires no care, and is always ready for instant use. It is cheaper than electricity or city gas.

GROW SUGAR BEETS. FOR Mt. Clemens Sugar Co. Not owned or controlled by the Sugar Trust. HAVE SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS TO OFFER! Don't contract with anyone until I call on you J. F. Rundel. CLEAR UP THE COMPLEXION. Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb Say Laxative Tonic Tablets Work Wonders for the Skin.