THE ALLEGED MURDERER IDENTIFIED BY A DEFORMED LITTLE FINGER.

KALAMAZOO HAS A SMALLPOX SCARE AND PUBLIC MEETINGS ARE OFF.

VARIOUS MATTERS OF INTEREST FROM ALL OVER THE STATE BRIEFLY NOTED.

A Murder Mystery.

A murder mystery which the alleged murderer was identified by means of a deformed little finger was reported to the Kalamazoo police Tuesday morning. Bert Miller, aged 28, who came from Battle Creek about two weeks ago, was found dead in bed in a back room over a saloon on Two streets. His skull had been crushed in with some rather thin wooden board. The police were called by a neighbor. Miller had been dead eight or nine hours when the case was reported. The room in which Miller was found is about six by six feet in size, with a low ceiling and very poorly furnished. There was a small opening in the wall just over the foot of the bed, but there was no window in this wall. The police were looking for a clue which might reveal the murderer. They dusted the room and found a small piece of wood in the center of the bed which was the imprint of a hand as though it had been there for some time. The police went after a man with a crooked little finger.

Within three hours after the discovery of the murder the police had taken into custody a man who was identified as the murderer. The man, who is known as William M. Sexton, the husband of the woman who Miller killed, was taken to the police station and held in custody. He was released on $1,000 bail and is expected to appear in court on Monday.

Smallpox Epidemic.

The smallpox epidemic is becoming a serious menace in Kalamazoo and the suburbs. It is being advocated by local health officers. Two high school pupils were taken ill on Monday and died on the next day. The epidemic is spreading rapidly and it is feared that it will soon become a serious menace to the community.

The Dundee Fire.

The worst fire that Dundee has experienced for many years occurred on Monday night. The fire started in a building on the corner of Main and Second streets and spread rapidly. The fire destroyed a large amount of property and caused a loss of about $10,000.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

The legislators who have been in Detroit superintending the judicial reform are of the opinion that adjournment should be held in not more than 30 days.

The responsibility rests with the legislature, and we are in duty bound to urge upon it a fair trial, though personally, I have some doubts that it will prove as successful as its own boasts.

One of the most important and revolutionary election bills yet offered in Michigan is the bill introduced by Rep. Nat. Lovell, of Berrien county, and may be said to be a direct result of the Wayne county judicial reform.

The bill is to abolish the cross to signify the party the voter has voted for. It is to be a mark to mark separate name of each candidate he desires to vote for.
