

Here's to the end of Somebody's head—
A man of Somebody's upright nose.
Of course the more I think I said,
Please pardon these little stanzas.

Here's to Somebody's supple nose,
I mean the one that keeps it open.
I had in mind, as the context shows,
Somebody's little stanzas.

Here's to the ring of Somebody's voice—
I mean the rings 'round her eyes.
Not the one that keeps her face so close,
That Somebody's sweetest boy.

Here's to the gems that Somebody holds—
I mean the ones that she wears.
The ones that she wears on her fingers,
That Somebody's sweetest boy.

Here's to the pearl in Somebody's mouth—
I mean the one that she wears.
The one that she wears on her tongue,
That Somebody's sweetest boy.

Here's to the drink or the blanket—
I mean the one that she wears.
The one that she wears on her feet,
That Somebody's sweetest boy.

Here's to the one who is absentminded—
I mean the one that she wears.
The one that she wears on her head,
That Somebody's sweetest boy.

Here's to the one who is absentminded—
I mean the one that she wears.
The one that she wears on her head,
That Somebody's sweetest boy.

Here's to the one who is absentminded—
I mean the one that she wears.
The one that she wears on her head,
That Somebody's sweetest boy.

Here's to the one who is absentminded—
I mean the one that she wears.
The one that she wears on her head,
That Somebody's sweetest boy.

Here's to the one who is absentminded—
I mean the one that she wears.
The one that she wears on her head,
That Somebody's sweetest boy.

Here's to the one who is absentminded—
I mean the one that she wears.

Wisconsin Station Law.
A most important law relative to the service of stations has just been passed by the legislature of Wisconsin...

The bill was signed by Governor Wood. It is the first of its kind in the United States. The passage of this act is an important step in a propaganda recently commenced by the Wisconsin College of Agriculture for the advancement of horse breeding in Wisconsin...

In 1903 the War Department installed a post academy at Fort Scott, Virginia. The results were gratifying and the superiority of the Illuminist so evident that the government...

But the government has not confined its acceptance of acetylene to this military post. Since becoming a member of the Illuminist, it has realized the economical advantages of this particular Illuminist...

Acetylene gas is one of the simplest as well as the most perfect of all fuels. It is made from water and carbide, a manufactured product for sale at a nominal price...

It is a matter for national congratulation to identify a spot as Chickamauga, nothing but the best, including the lighting system, has been deemed good enough for the American people.

One day last week, Knight, a prominent farmer of the eastern part of the county, gave a rail-splitting, and there's one tree in particular that he wants to see...

The first cut split 107 lbs; the four cuts altogether made 235 rails! States Wetherington says it is the best wood he has ever seen...

Section 4. The owner of any station standing in this county shall cause to be made a complete and correct record of the breeding season...

Section 5 provides forms for purchase, cross-bred and no-breed stallions. Every bill, poster, or advertisement issued by the owner of any station...

Section 7. A fee of $2.00 shall be paid to the horse breeding department of the college of agriculture, university of Wisconsin, for the examination and enrollment of each pedigree and for the issuance of a license certificate in accordance with the regulations of the station...

Section 8 provides for a transfer of certificate with sale of station, for same as provided in this act. It provides that a violation of the act shall be punished by a fine of $50.

Beef Calves from Post Cows. I am not engaged in the production of beef myself, but I have neighbors that are and their work furnishes me with an object lesson and a text...

Some of my neighbors have spent a lot of money on calves, and I have followed the practice of making his calves get along on grass in summer and hay in winter, putting out corn for another load...

Military Honors for Seagull. A seagull, which remained in the Golden Hill Fort, Freshwater, Isle of Wight, as a pet of the Royal Garrison Artillery stationed there, has just died and has been buried with a semblance of military honors...

The body of the gull, which was known as "Mac," was placed in a coffin and carried to the shore. Two gunners acted as bearers, and others followed the coffin as mourners to the grave outside the fort, where it was buried with due ceremony...

Eagle Whipped by Crows. One hundred crows whipped a big eagle in a fight to death at the farm of Darlington Beebe of Westwood, and drew it to a point where it was killed. The crows attacked the king of birds in a body, and at one time had it so exhausted that it alighted in a field and fell over on the ground, though it was still able to walk...

Buyers Two Nations. The London Times says that the Russian government is ordering nothing in England or America that can be obtained in Russia. It is reported that the mutton eating habit is decreasing in England, something more than mere rumors...

Government Night.
Historic Chickamauga Park Available with Illumination.

United States System of Lighting Military Post Pronounced Gratiatingly Successful—Six and One-Half Miles of Main Street—Five Street Lights.

Chickamauga Park Ga., May 31.—The United States government has here in operation one of the largest electric gas plants in the world. The military post at the entrance of the historic Chickamauga battlefield where thirty thousand Union and Confederate soldiers were lost in the great battle of Sept. 19 and 20, 1862, contains an important step in a propaganda recently commenced by the Wisconsin College of Agriculture...
