Captain Mort Bigelow of West Point is home for a vacation. Miss Bessie, his sister, who is attending school at Tarrytown, N. Y., came home with him.

The prospect in Oakland county for fruit of all kinds was never better. The trees are all loaded with blossoms and the fruit record should be broken this year.

About 40 men from Detroit arrived in town Tuesday morning and started for Wm. Brooks' beet fields east of here, where they will slick up about 30 acres.

Edward Schultz was convicted of larceny in Justice Campbell's court on Monday last and sentenced to the Industrial School at Lansing until he is 17 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Bird Glaspie, of Oxford, are the happy parents of the finest baby boy that ever came down the pike. Here's good luck to the laddie boy.

Will the strolling parties who carried away valuable relics from the garden at the Stevens residence please return them if they wish to avoid publicity? Their names are known.

The largest, handsomest American Beauty rose was sent to us by Mrs. Chas. Parks. It measured 12 inches in circumference and was absolutely perfect. Pity it could not have always kept fresh.

Miss Maud Gates passed Sunday last with the family of John K. Adams. She has been a great sufferer from rheumatism (muscular) and although not really able to work, she pluckily kept grinding at Detroit office work.

Whitehead & Mitchell sold their Watkins Lake cottage to Mr. Monroe, of the Monroe Body Works, Pontiac, who will at once make this pretty spot the pride of the lake. With an auto and a naptha launch the property becomes invaluable.

Miss Sarah Sly left for Chicago last Monday to join her sister, Miss Martie Sly, and a party of eastern friends for an Alaskan trip. The party reach Yellowstone Park the latter part of this week and will enjoy ten days of camp life in that beautiful region.

Tom Ward always could catch fish. The other day catching minnows he hooked what he supposed was a log, but later it turned out to be a carp about — so long. Now it weighs about 25 pounds. That's what Dick Erwin says.

While working at Charles Eeley's, near Farmington, one day last week, some difficulty happened to his engine and Lyman Hood the successful well digger, got his left arm badly scalded by escaping steam. It was a surprise to Lyman as well as painful.

Mr. Miles Wooster, son of Erastus H., is a graduate from the Sterling, Ill., high school in the class of '05, and sends us a program for which our thanks are returned. Who ever would have thought that that boy was old enough or big enough to be a graduate?

Visitors at Lone Pine where the genial and hospitable owner Mrs. Emma C. Tibbils enjoys the visits from her guests just as well as they do, this week: Mrs. Amelia Bingham and daughter Miss Carrie, of Saginaw, and Mrs. Pearl Allen, of Grand Rapids. Having a good time? Yep.

It is stated by a well-known bacteriologist that a ten dollar bill will accumulate 73,000,000 microbes in a month. As the average newspaper man holds a ten dollar bill about 17 seconds, we have "figured" out that he parts with it just as the first microbe is borning.

The reason why the graduating exercises where changed from the M. E. church to Library hall was, as near as we can figure, on account of a misunderstanding or juggling of facts. One side says one thing and the other side says another, and it is apparantly like the case of the Dutch twins—"no von knew vitch from tudder."

Will Randall met with a painful accident at the handle factory Friday last. He got his left hand too near a saw that was working and as a result William will not be working for several days. His thumb and index finger were quite badly cut. Dr. Shaw dressed the wound.

"The village of Birmingham has more fine residences than any town of its size in the state. Oakland county can well be proud of that little town." Just listen to this from the Oxford Leader. Editor Bird Glaspie was in our village recently and knows just exactly what he talks about.

The finest doctor in the city of Pontiac can now be found at the residence of Dr. Neff. He is only a few days old, and weighs 10 pounds, and Grandpa and Grandma Bigelow of this place are correspondingly happy. Uncle Mort and Aunt Bessie side right in with grandpa and grandma.

The Orion Review says: "The family of George Duff arrived here recently from Colorado, where they have been several years for the benefit of the health of a son, who is improved. They will make their home here, with John Duff, father of George." Mr. Duff has many friends here who will be pleased to hear of his return to Michigan.

"There! George H. Mitchell, I have come clear from Winside, Nebraska, to pay you this $ for my Eccentric," said Mrs. Elizabeth Prince, who dropped into town fresh as a lark after her long ride from the West. She has five sons away out west, all doing well and satisfied with their new homes. She will visit friends in this vicinity for ten days and then return.

One of the attractions at the opening day of the Highland Park races last Saturday, was the beautiful four-horse team of bangtails drawing the Barbour Farm Tallyho coach. Going and coming it was packed full by a jolly crowd of ladies and gentlemen, and the way the bugle man bugled brought everyone to the door in a radius of seven mile..

"One of our newly married young ladies kneads bread with her gloves on!"—Ex. The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on, and needs it with his trousers on, and if our delinquent subscribers don't pony-up soon, this old rag of freedom will need bread without a gol darned thing on!—Savey?—Ortonville Hustler. Here, too, only more of it.

The B. H. S. Alumni will hold their twenty-fifth annual reception at the Presbyterian church Friday evening, June 23rd, at eight o'clock. A fine programa has been arranged. Tickets 25 cents. All members of the Alumni, old and young are urged to be present as business of importance will be brought before the members and a good time is asked for.

A tight-fisted grocer is an up-state town called on the editor of his local paper the other day and wanted him to raise a holler because agents for city grocery houses were going through the country taking orders for goods. The editor let him run on for awhile, and then suggested that if he advertised in his local paper he might prevent the city men from cutting into his business.

Miss M. Baldwin has gone to Chicago where she will meet a party of friends from the east and in their private car will make a trip to the Pacific coast. M. E. church Sunday, June 25, morning subject. The Divine voice. In the evening we will have a young people's service. Mr. Russel, who is in charge of the spiritual department of the Y. M. C. A. at Pontiac, will deliver a short address. Mr. Robert Hettach, a highschool student of Pontiac, will give an address upon the importance of religious character in youth. The Y. M. C. A. Quartette of Pontiac will sing for us. The services in the evening will be at 7:30, standard time.

Whitehead and Mitchell took in Barnum & Bailey's big circus last Monday in Detroit, all the sideshows, bought red lemonade, peanuts, popcorn in bulk, balls and crackerjack. Mitchell eyed the fat woman in the side show till he had to pay double price for coming in. Whitey had a speaking acquaintance with Raw Jaw, the rat boy, and Lionel, the lion faced boy, and saw the whirling girl whirl an hour and a-half, and she's buzzing yet for all we know. The fellow that played a game of base ball all alone in pantomime made it so plain that the boys (W. & M.) gave a quarter extra for the base ball game.

The 26th annual commencement of the Birmingham High School took place at Library hall Tuesday evening and the following class received diplomas from the hands of Prof. A. E. Bellis:—Hazel M. Carter, Lucille Hunt, Retta M. McHugh, Clarence J. West, Ida J. Hanna, Maude McDonald, Grace A. Purdy, and Mamie E. Wilson. The hall was crowded with enthusiastic spectators and the graduates were in fine form for speaking and received much praise from the audience. The Hon. Patrick H. Kelly delivered the address of the evening and Miss Grace A. Purdy delivered the valedictory.

The British House of Commons has voted by a majority of 150 to make women eligible as aldermen and members of borough councils. Many members stated, "That in matters of public health, the employment of, and prevention of cruelty to children, Industrinl schools, and many other matters, the introduction of women in local government was of greatest value. That they brought to their departments of local governments a knowledge of the conditions affecting women and girls, that men could not contribute." Our Oakland county women knowing these things, worked for a change in the laws of our poor commission but our legislators were so wise that the bill was not reported out.

A pretty little home wedding came off at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Randall on Brown street Wednesday afternoon, at which time Miss Nellie A. Randall, of our village, and Mr. William Nichols, of Greeley, Colo., were united in matrimony by Rev. Montrose Maxwell. Close relatives and nearby neighbors to the number of forty were present. They had a wheelbarrow of old shoes and a bag full of rice to throw after the departing couple and watched Mrs. Nichols hat as a sign of her departure. The wedding hat was a bluff and after ten minutes waiting they found the happy couple had flown to parts unknown. This popular couple received many valuable wedding gifts and start out in life with the best wishes of every acquaintance. Mr. Nichols is a well known business man of Greely, Col., and stands just as high in social, business and church life at his home as his wife does in her home. Here's our best wishes.

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, g-o-n-e!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It checks falling hair, and always restores color to gray hair. A splendid dressing also. Sold for over sixty years.

"My hair came out so badly I nearly lost it all. I had heard so much about Ayer's Hair Vigor that I resolved to give it a trial. It did so and it completely stopped the falling, and restored the hair very rapidly."—MARY H. FIELD, Northfield, Mass.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR stops the cough and heals lung is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevent pneumonia. Guaranteed at Whitehead & Mitchell's and Cobb & Cobb's drug stores, price 50c and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

LOOKS TWENTY YEARS YOUNGER

How a Birmingham Woman Shook Off the Hand of Time and Is Young Again.

"We don't need to speak her name," said Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb last week, "for you'll know who we mean when you next see her. Why, we never saw a woman's appearance to be so changed and improved. Her complexion is now as fresh and beautiful as a young girl's, her step is elastic and her eye has the snap and sparkle that goes with perfect health. And we are partly responsible for it," continued the druggists, "for we recommended what transformed her from a woman of forty to a girl of twenty. What is it? Well, it is Dr. Davis' famous prescription, Laxakola Tonic Tablets, and when we heard of it we immediately ordered a large supply. And the way they tone up the system, clear the complexion and rejuvenate the whole body is surprising. They are a gentle laxative, promoting an easy, natural action of the bowels and carrying off all waste matter that way instead of letting the poison come through the skin. There isn't a woman in town who can afford to be without Laxakola Tonic Tablets, for they cost only 25 cents a box, and if they don't do all that is claimed we pay her money back."

"A SQUARE DEAL."

How President Roosevelt's Motto Is Illustrated by Pepsikola.

Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb say Pepsikola Tablets is the best possible illustration of what our strenuous President means by a square deal. This remarkable remedy is sold to everybody with the express agreement that if it does not do exactly as represented the buyer's money will be cheerfully refunded. They are guaranteed to quickly relieve and permanently cure all stomach troubles, tone up the whole system, give new life and vigor, better courage, more vitality, and bring the weak, weary and despondent back to joyous health.

If they do not cure you of heartburn, sour stomach, loss of appetite, dizziness, headache, lassitude, and all other unpleasant conditions arising from indigestion, all you have to do is to step into any of the above drug stores and they will pay your money back.

The price is only 25c if they cure. If they fail the cost is nothing. But they won't fail. They will tell you that dozens of people you know have been benefitted and cured of indigestion and dyspepsia by Pepsikola Tablets, and they will give you a "square deal." No cure, no pay.

HUMOR of the HOUR

In Training.

"My boy Ezra is home from college for a week. He's a great athlete, you know."

"So I've heard."

"Yes. Well, I thought I'd test him a little an' I didn't know no better way than to set him to sawin' wood."

"Good idea."

"Well, I thought so. I proposed it to Ezry an' he said, 'All right, dad, I'll saw th' wood, but I want a glass of old ale, a mutton chop an' alcohol rubdown every thirty minutes.'"

"Well, well. An' what happened?"

"He didn't saw the wood."

Encouraging the Timid Suitor.

Freddie—Do you think your father will consent to my marrying your sister?

Lulu—Sure, and I think he will even give tradin' stamps if you'll hurry up about it. He's got seven more besides me.

Valuable Surgical Instrument.

Old Baggles (taking a suspicious-looking bottle from his son's valise)—I thought that there was nothing but surgical instruments in this bag?

Young Baggles—That's what I said, dad.

Old Baggles—Then what do you call this?

Young Baggles—That? Oh, that's my eye-opener, dad; very useful instrument, very; couldn't get along without it any way.

Not What He Expected.

"And now," said Willie, throwing aside the garden hoe, "and now, papa, where is the golden reward and rich recompense you promised me for hoeing out the weeds in the garden patch?"

"You will find it in the mental satisfaction of a duty well done," replied papa. And thus was another budding love for work spoiled by the theories of the idealists."

More Than a Hint.

"If I should attempt to kiss you," asked the young man, "would you scream for your mother?"

"I guess I would," the fair thing admitted, "but it wouldn't do me much good. Mother is visiting fifteen miles out in the country."

A moment later something happened.

Her Unique Position.

"I've got a wonder of a leading lady," chortled the first manager. "So far as murders and homicides are concerned she stands alone in the profession."

"Killed a lot of people, has she?" inquired the second manager with interest.

"No; she's never killed anybody."

Caught 'Em Fair.

"And Jones has lived to read his own obituary?"

"Yes—yes!"

"And what did he say about it."

"That he was real glad he wasn't the only liar in town!"

All He Had.

"I suppose your husband gave you all he had to give."

"Yes—advice and excuses."

Each in His Own Way.

Snaggs (bailing)—Why don't you help relieve the boat?

Jaggs—I am. I've lowered the jug three inches.

Starved.
