Capitan Jim Warren's Office

(Copyright, 1905, by Daily Story Pub. Co.)

If Capitan Jim Warren hadn't got... "But it's already sold," expostulated the worried Mr. Crowley...

Mr. Frank Strong, conversation with the visitor. Presently he came in the private office, peered in and said: "Mr. Frank Strong is here," he said...

"Well, he told me a hundred bags of coffee Monday, and I want it, I must ship it to-day." "Frank Strong," said Mrs. Warren with energy...

"Jim," said Mrs. Warren to her husband, "don't sell anything to that wretch, Frank Strong; don't speak to him." Mrs. Warren promised readily...

"Here's an order from Mr. Frank Strong for a hundred bags of coffee the captain sold him last Monday. I'll deliver it to the drayman." "Mr. Crowley," exclaimed Mrs. Warren, with a gleam in her eyes...

"I believe I ate them," replied that young lady, guiltily. "Your appetite," commented her sister, "is a good one."

"You'll not deliver it," snapped Mrs. Warren, "tell the drayman that I'm not here." "You'll not deliver it," snapped Mrs. Warren, "tell the drayman that I'm not here."

black on another and begins to kiss and hug. Oh, I laughed...

HOW "TOMMY ATKINS" IS FED

Costs 7 Cents a Day to Cater to the Signal station on the summit of Gibraltar. An interesting experience in the army method of feeding and catering for the soldiers...

The bill of fare is written on a blackboard and called out by the entrance to the kitchen. Each man fetches his own dinner and selects what he pleases. The whole of the catering is done on the principle of a set aside from each man's pay.

KEEPING ORDER IN CHURCH

Wrong Man Felt Force of Dr. Hirsch's Sermon. Dr. Emil G. Hirsch of the Jewish rabbi has a reputation for severity and sarcasm...

Two reporters entered Sinai Temple in Chicago several minutes late one night where Dr. Hirsch was lecturing. The second of the reporters carelessly slammed the door behind him...

Fine View from Gibraltar

"It is not a very hard climb to the signal station on the summit of Gibraltar," writes a traveler. The ascent is no more than 1,500 feet. It is a steep climb...

unexpectably grand. It seemed that one could never tire of feasting one's eyes on so sublime and so historic a prospect. No trees exist, but a good deal of brush and shrub clothes the parched surface...

Actors as Wood Carvers

During the nine transient years that intervene between productions of the passion play at Oberammergau...

A world-wide reputation is enjoyed by the "Christ carvers" of Oberammergau. They are so called because their work is so remarkably developed art...

He Didn't Know Jefferson

My agent had been a manager in Australia some years before, so he knew everybody, wrote Joseph Jefferson to the theater, where he introduced me to the manager...

The Soft-Spinner.

"Whenever I see a young looking fellow in a soft smock, I pity him. There can be no doubt where he has been, and he does not change his tactics. If he does not brace up, take stock of himself and put vim and purpose and energy into his work, he is bound to be the great loser of the 'might-have-been.'—O. S. Marden in Success Magazine.

HER WEAKNESS GONE

Hot flashes and blinking spells quelled at last. Mrs. Murphy tells her fellow-sufferers how she got rid of her troubles by Simple Home Treatment.

"I had been bothered for several years," says Mrs. Murphy, "by stomach troubles, and finally became very weak and nervous. Flashes of heat would pass over me, and I would feel as if I was sinking down. At such times I would be so nervous that I would not be able to do my work."

Rich and Rare Were the Gems She Wore. Rich and rare were the gems she wore, and a bright gold ring on her hand she wore. "Oh, her beauty was far beyond the reach of any snow-white wand."
