A CUP OF ROSES WAS MALICIOUSLY BUTCHERED

That is What Miss M. Baldwin Finds Portland, Oregon, to Be—Tells of Wonderful Sights.

PORTLAND, Oregon, June 30, 1905. EDITORS ECENTRIC:—The hundreds and thousands of miles are between us, hundreds of miles of prairie and valley, of mountains and desert, yet every now and then there comes to me on the wireless, some little message, which often says, 'Why can't we do that, why not try this or that in our little village?'

The examination of Bert Shuler, accused of shooting Aaron Levinson in the face with a blank cartridge on July 4, before Justice Snowden at Pontiac last Tuesday, was postponed in order that Attorney Felton might prepare his case for the defense.

Mrs. Christine Preisel of Troy was arrested Monday afternoon on complaint of her husband, who retails, who served out a warrant charging that his wife had said to him 'I will butcher you.'

ANOTHER ESSAY (?)

MR. EDITOR:—You recently printed a "prize essay" written for the Village Improvement Society that contained some good suggestions, one of which was the elimination of some of the worse than useless dogs that infest our village.

THE MERCANTILE QUAIL.

The mail order business is the quickest of commerce. It promises abundance and guarantees nothing.

THE TRAINED NURSE.

A recent experience of nearly three weeks in a Detroit hospital has enlarged my mental horizon as to the necessities of life, namely, "The Trained Nurse," and I beg the privilege of saying a word in commendation of the brave, heroic, cool-headed and cheerful young women who have given themselves to a life of self-sacrifice for humanity's sake.

FORCED TO STARVE.

B. F. Leek, of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies, with a sore on my upper lip, painful, sometimes it could not eat. After trying every thing else, I cured it, with Buckden's Arnie Salve." It's great for burns, cuts and sores. At Whitehead & Mitchell's, and Cobb & Cobb's drug stores; only 25c.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

A prominent real estate dealer ordered straight from one of our lively stables one morning last week, and when the rig was driven up in front of the real estate man's place of business, it was observed by many that a well dressed stranger accompanied the R. E. man, and they drove off in the country, and it was just as carefully observed that they didn't get back until after two o'clock in the afternoon and the stranger had evidently been busy for a day or so. At any rate he didn't come home with the R. E. man.

The high officials of the new proposed electric railway had a meeting with half a dozen of the more prominent business men of the village at the Exchange on the corner of the new road and a new era of prosperity for our thriving village. Hurro!

The latest news from Paris, is that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best if you take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Vanier, Tenn. "I had a cough for fourteen years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. King's Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." It comes quick, for Throat and Lung Troubles. At Whitehead & Mitchell's and Cobb & Cobb's drug stores; price 50c and 100c, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.
