

WHERE GAME IS PLENTY.

Newfoundland Declared a Paradise for the Sportsman.

L. F. Brown, the veteran angler and camper, writes in The Country Calendar: "Brook trout and brown trout are not appreciated in Newfoundland, being far more common than in any other part of the state. Catching them will soon surfeit the angler who is not a sportsman."

When people decide to tell each other their faults they generally get into a fight. And yet, our "Eating Critic," who has been interviewed, says that "nothing is more helpful than the act of helping each other overcome faults, and the world would be better if people would confess more to each other."

Some faults are best handled by forgetting or ignoring them, but there are other faults that need to be treated by the direct and positive plan. Some people get into trouble and make conditions worse by using the wrong medicine. One rule is to do nothing selfishly or in anger or for revenge.
