on Seiden Ave. Detroit, on Thursday evening, August 17th, 1935.
Mrs. Hupp was horn in Plymonth, Ind.
In 1832, and in 1870 she married Mr.
Hupp. They have lived in Detroit since 1833. Some years ago Mr. Hupp, having inclinations toward farming, bought the A. D. Simonson farm a mile and a half west of this illage and focated his son George C. thereon, after which they both naturally took considerable interest in Birminghammatters.
