SOÁD TO THE MICHIGAN FARNER.
In January, 1904, the Free Press Publishing Co. merged its semi-weekly edition of the Free Fress into the "Free Press Farm and Live Stock Journal," afterwards The Michigan Farm and Live Stock Journal. They soon learned that Lie Michigan Farmer, established in 1834, had a strong hold on the farmers of Michigan, secured through a thorough business knowledge as to the management of an Agricultural publication, added to their untiring efforts to serve their readers practical, up-to-date matter, A few weeks ago negotiations were begun by the Free Fress Co., with the above result.
