One day an elderly teacher was questioning Dorothy as to her knowledge. As Dorothy was only 4, the questions asked were rather deep. The teacher was satisfied, however, when on asking Dorothy what a dream was, the child replied, "Dreams are pictures the angels show us when we are asteep."

First Known Use of Church Bella.

The earliest mention of bells, as applied for purposes of Christian worship, is by Polydore Vergli, who states that Paulinus, bishop of Nola, a city of Campania, in Italy, first adapted them to his church in the year 400.

Wood for Pencils.

The amount of wood which is used every year for the manufacture of pencils is almost incredible. Nearly 4,000 acres of cedar frees are cut down annually for this purpose alone, and of these 2,000 acres are in Florida. In Invaria alone there are some forty pencil factories.
