TWO MEN MURDERED IN ROSCONO COUNTY BECAUSE OF DEATH.

State Fair's Good Showing.

Secretary Butterfield's figures show that the total receipts for the State Fair at Detroit were $188,804, of which $48,404 were gate receipts. The gate receipts last year at Pontiac were $18,513. The net profit for the year is about $40,000. It is estimated that the total attendance was 200,000.

President-elect Fred Post and Director W. E. Stevenson, of Post, will go to Grand Rapids to visit the West Michigan fair, and to the state fair at Springfield, Ill., to pick up ideas which may be of value in making improvements for next year. Mr. Post says he has no intention of dominating the state fair management, and he wants no action taken without the full cooperation of the other members on the board.

Pontiac Man's Story.

Fred Walker, of Michigan, recently released from a prison in Panama, has arrived home. His imprisonment was said to have been caused by the fact that he was caught near those territory Walker himself was conducting mining operations.

Walker told some of his adventures which befell him during the period when his enemies were trying either to shoot him or to shoot him in disappearance. This struggle against odds began as long ago as 1901, when he was in the employ of a man whose interests in a mine there. While selling to his destination, a Chinese merchant, he was robbed of his papers and cash box and made off with them.

Walker then found that he had been put in a mine known as the Old Abreite, had been covered by a landless man who was copper ore near his landless. He then went to the alcalde, or mayor, at Canazas, to have his house and land returned. The alcalde refused to recognize the copper, claiming others were ahead of him and that there was copper ore nearby.
