

In Hongkong at Night

(Special Correspondence)

A moment ago the peak was blanketed with a dense fog. It was as if the shrouding of Death hovered over the island. But now the Chinese moon and stars... the harbor and beyond... the mountains stand out black and wonderful against the sky.

Guardians of the Harbor. A turn in the street and you see...

Footbridge Approach to Ruined Buddha Temple.

rayed in purple and fine lines, are swirling in the moonlight. Mr. Wokee is attired in a flowing robe of white and pale blue baggy trousers. Trout...

Over the water from the lined-up sampans comes a woman's voice. She is drowning a Cantonese love song. There is six feet two of Bill Peck in bhakti lamp. His beard is shining in the lamplight.

"The coolie is a desperate fellow; you can see that by his face, a face that must have broken all the commandments of the East and West. There is a huge crowd following. It looks as if every coolie in Hongkong had turned up in the arm behind the Sikh. Stray pieces of road metal strike him, but he is not afraid, and his eyes are flashing and grand to behold."

Blinding Glow of Lights. The glow of light from the Chinese quarter almost blinds you at first. The streets are full of lanterns, red and yellow and green and blue; and blue and green and yellow and red...

Kennedy Statue. The Public Gardens, Hongkong. I hear the sound of the scraping of blades over the way, and the sound of iron. At one end of the road are about twenty tall, British-American, sitting on a long bench. At the other a bar with an array of...

Down in front, however, he noticed two youngsters looking intently at him, and evidently drinking in his every word. In his joy at the interest of these two patriots, he livened up his narrative, and speaking directly to the boys, delivered some splendid oratorical phrases in their decoration.

Meddler Girl. "Ah, my love," sighed the ardent lover, "if you only knew how beautiful you are!" "You mustn't speak of it," protested the meddler girl. "I don't want to know."

Go Back to Horses. A few months ago, at the Toronto and Rideau, Ontario, a motor omnibus service for its streets. Now it has sold the motor omnibus and returned to horse vehicles.

FAT AS INSANITY ANTIDOTE

Opinion of Medical Jurist Has Aroused Enthusiasm.

Are the majority of folk of weak intellect? Is insanity the result of a weak intellect? Are we all preparing ourselves for lunatic asylums? These startling questions have occurred to me after reading an article by a good and sensible surgeon on the "gospel of fat" as applied to the treatment of mental disease."

"Does this decided disposition on the part of men of good intellect to become insane, and the successful 'thinning down' that we notice on all sides, portend increase of insanity? If so, dieting and the use of cathartics and medicine ought to be forbidden by act of Parliament. By the way, Hamlet was fat and scant of breath, but he was certainly far from sane."

DUKE DID NOT LAUGH LAST.

Practical Joke Is Not So Funny as It Had Seemed. Duke Carl of Wurtemberg was very fond of practical jokes in his youth. Once he called at a farmhouse and asked the farmer's wife, who was churning for a glass of milk. She did not know her visitor, and he asked to fetch the milk, when the Duke set a cat which was lying near and threw it, with a duck, into the churn.

Big Price to Be Made Beautiful. The Duke of Brunswick has a young son who is a wrinkle remover. That was his well-known New York society leader has said, and without a doubt there are a number of persons who are willing to pay just such an exorbitant price if they had it for the same purpose.

Changed Her Appearance. Birmingham Woman's Ambition Realized. Nearly every woman in the world wants to be beautiful and attractive. It was only a few days ago that a woman from every standpoint, and perfect beauty means perfect health.

Truth Stranger Than Fiction. Surprising Statements Vouched for by Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb. All of us who know these druggists are confident that they would not make a statement which does not correspond to the truth.

Plain As Day. Blanche and Harry, aged 5 and 6 respectively, were very fond of maple sugar. Blanche, being of an inquisitive turn of mind, asked her mother how it was made.

Vanderbilt's North Carolina Taxes. The county tax collector of North Carolina, Asheville, N. C., shows that George W. Vanderbilt's real estate outside of the city is appraised at $1,419,250 and personal property at $122,219.

Hetty Green's Views. Mrs. Hetty Green has no particular religious opinions, but she is a Quaker, but she never goes to any church. "Indeed," she said, "I once heard a Quaker on the board of a Sunday school church. I am a firm believer in simplicity. That is why so many people believe me mean, when the fact is I am really a very extravagant."

THE DUTY OF ATTRACTIVENESS.

Why Every Woman Should Look Her Best.

The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world, but the woman who is truly beautiful reigns over a larger kingdom than any man. She is admired and respected by all who know her. Nature intended that every woman should have a beautiful complexion, intelligent eyes, a clear, ruddy glow, a clear skin, and a ruddy complexion, such as Lakaxola's eye-spirit until her condition is just what it should be.
