GOVERNOR'S DAY DO YOU KNOW HER BIG FLYING AUTO OBSERVE THE LAW

THE EASTERN MICHIGAN PRESS CLUB INVADDED FARMINGTON

And Was Entertained by Governor and Mrs. Warner—A Fine and Most Successful Day.

On Jan. 13th... We took the Governor's train and ate our chicken pie.

Our Junior Editor, with a great many others, enjoyed the generous and friendly hospitality of Gov. and Mrs. Warner at their home in Farmington on Friday of last week.

Over 700 members of the Eastern Michigan Press Club were entertained by Gov. Warner and wife at their beautiful home in Farmington, a beautiful and thriving country village which is noted throughout the State for being the home of the Governor and also the place that cuts across for the universe.

At one o'clock the crowd of about 700 members of the club, headed by the kindness of the Detroit United Railway, boarded the beautiful parlor car Volande, starting from the celebrated Griswold House, and were landed safely in Farmington after an hour's ride.

At the farm, the Governor and Mrs. Warner, with another young lady equally as gracious, served the punch and we all had our share without any trouble at all.

The Governor Warner opened the program himself and proved himself a member of the craft, being the first one to bring a printing press into Farmington.

Four pretty young ladies brightened up the exercises immensely. Miss McDonald, of Detroit, a real beauty and her cousin, a bright little Miss, favored the happy crowd with several numbers.

During the program Fred Post, Detroit, of Griswold House fame and President of the Michigan State Agricultural Society, told of the effort being made to open the exhibition on Sunday during the fair.

At 6 o'clock the party returned to the city of Detroit at Belle Isle, the Water Works Park and at Clark Park. Mrs. Warner's hand or other hand equally as good will be open to view.

A Canadian Girl, the Daughter of a Toronto, Attorney, Deported From Detroit.

Attracted by the queer actions of the eleven-year-old daughter of William Tremear, a well known Toronto lawyer, who, with her mother, arrived in Detroit Thursday afternoon, on the way to Los Angeles on a visit, immigration officers intercepted her and called on the Michigan Hospital authorities to examine the child.

The result was that they pronounced her mentally and physically unound and the mother was not allowed to proceed west with her daughter.

Mrs. Tremear was very indignant over the action of the federal authorities. She was permitted, however, to spend Thursday night with her father in Birmingham but her baggage checked and a transport was taken from her to prevent her from leaving the city.

OBITUARY.

John Gosh, an employe on George Hupp's dairy farm, two miles west of this village, was, on January 8th attacked by a vicious bull and so badly injured that he died about six hours later.

Frightened Horse and Caused Quite An Accident Here on Thursday Last.

Another one of those accidents occasioned by a frightened horse occurred at driver book place on Thursday last.

Mrs. Anderson, of the hotel, had been ill for some time, and on Thursday last her husband took her and little Willie Cager out for a drive with one of the horses from Baum's livery.

When the horse was started, it was so frightened that it flew down the road, over-topping the carriage and ran like mad until stopped uptown.

The occupants were taken to one of the homes near the city barns, where they were cared for by Mrs. Anderson and one of the neighbors.

One of the most pleasant social events of the season occurred last Friday afternoon when about twenty-five ladies of the Pontiac Women's Relief Corps met at the home of Mrs. Sarah Carter.
