MAKING HIS KNOWLEDGE FELT... Schoolboy Writes Home a Lucid and Comforting Letter.

"My Dear Mother... I have had 18 years' experience... I believe that the best time of year for a farmer to attempt to improve his flock by additions or to start a new flock is during the period of the year—November or December.

COLLECTED FIRE FOR THE BOY... Conductor's Simple Question Brought Desired Results.

The following is told about a well-known conductor of the Boston & North-eastern street railway who in his early days of railroading was a conductor on the Lynn & Boston road.

Improving the Flock... I believe that the best time of year for a farmer to attempt to improve his flock by additions or to start a new flock is during the period of the year—November or December.

Chicks in Brooders are often subjected to conditions that are their greatest enemy... The brooder is too hot the chicks get as far from the heat as possible in their attempts to cool off.

Artificial Incubation... While the old hen is the most successful incubator known, she is one that is adjusted to long days. She does not rise to the demands of the hour as they exist in the commercial world.

Check of a Stowaway... Young Captain Sealby of the Mediterranean liner Cretic, was talking about stowaways.

Empress Uses Swan Quills... The German empress, in an invariable manner, uses swan quills when she writes her letters.
