Ray county coal mine operators say they will not pay $2.00 to $3.00 per ton.

THE BEET SUGAR FARMERS CONSULT TOWNSEND ON TARIFF.

GOVERNOR WARNER'S FIRST PARADISE WAS UNDER PARITY, WHO WAS UNDER PARITY.

DETROIT FURNISHED FOUR MURDERS AND ONE JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE LAST YEAR.

Farmers Interested.
A delegation of 25 leading sugar beet growers from Blaisdell and vicinity members of the Continental Sugar Co. had a long interview with Congressman Townsend Friday.

Wm. M. Maher, an inhabitant of the Blaisdell district, established the beet sugar industry in Vermont. It is reported to estimate how much it will cost the farmer.

In Germany it is the farmer's duty to make the first social call. It is also the duty of the resident to return it.

It would be interesting to hear the McCord's express their views on the meaning of Mr. Hyde, who started all this fuss.

We may be optimistic, but we stand ready to argue that there never was as good a time as this for any man as there used to be.

Let us pray for Boston, says the Boston Globe. What's the matter with the city? A split initiative or a bad haul?

A report of the American board of foreign missions says that the British has broken some promises. That is what he makes them for.

The next Grand Army national encampment will be held at Minneapolis, beginning Aug. 13. It will be considerably warmer here.

A German baron complains that he cannot live on $40 a week. Couldn't he manage to pad a baron's existence on that sum, if he tried hard?

Col. Pettit's error arises from the fact that he imagines the nation exists to maintain an army. The army exists to maintain the nation.

The Chicago professor who says that beans, soup and pancakes are not wholesome food may be right about the pancakes.—Boston Globe.

A great deal can be said in support of the contention that no man in this country is worth a salary of $150,000 a year. Furthermore, a great deal can be said.

A letter written by George Washington sold the other day for $250. It would be interesting to hear somebody if George had used a typewriter.

Spit Pat McCarran of New York before an Irish audience. "I would put dynamite under London to-night, and let it off in the face of the mine." And spit the map?

MURDER CONFESSED.
