

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., THE BEST EVER STEPHEN COOPER SAVE THE BIRDS

A Birmingham, Mich. Gander Don't Like Southern Chivalry as Described as Follows.

BIRMINGHAM, October 6, 1906. DEAR GEORGE: I am enclosing a clipping from a morning paper and I am unable to voice my disgust as to the so-called Southern honor.

The first time you drop in on A. R. Parks don't market you cannot fail to notice his last and best investment—the American slicing machine—a machine he has long needed and wished for, and finally pulled the string and bought one. Here it is:

AMERICAN SLICING MACHINE.

With this machine, costing $100.00 he has the only slicing machine that is clean, economical, and satisfactory to him, while to his patrons it is very pleasing.

Died on the Home of His Daughter, Mrs. Mary B. Poppleton, Last Tuesday Morning.

Stephen Cooper, aged 88, was born at Queens, Suffolk county on Long Island, N. Y., in 1820, and came to Wayne county, this state, with his parents, John and Hannah Cooper, in 1832.

A Plover for the Protection of Native Birds that All Ought to Observe.

At the Webster Farmer's Club held at Waterford recently, in discussing the question "Do We Sufficiently Appreciate Our Feathered Friends?" a speaker said that it was a positive fact that since the introduction of the English sparrow the American small birds had decreased in number.
