E. F. D. No. 1

Mrs. Thomas Dickinson is on the sick list for the past week.

John Baldwin has just finished filling his silo, and it did a good job.

Miss Mary Miller and father James A. were callers at V. B.'s last Friday.

James McEride has a fine field of corn beans and he expects a good return from the same.

George Spangleberg is a very sick man, and attended by Dr. N. T. Shaw of Birmingham.

Miss Purdy of Birmingham was the guest of the Misses Lucy and Sadie Purdy last week.

Mrs. J. H. Russell and Mrs. John Graham spent last Monday with Mrs. H. M. Russell, Good time.

Dr. Prowdley and wife from Toledo, Ohio, visited his old home in Southfield last week to see his mother.

Mrs. John Graham and her little son Paul, from Ann Arbor, are the guests of Mrs. J. H. Russell for a few weeks.

Will Ellwood has got a full force of people gathering his grapes, before they are stolen; Uncle Bill has a great head.

The Sauerbrey combination, Will Conner, the Miller boys and a few such are very busy getting their cabbage ready for the knife.

James Bartlett and wife of Jackson, Mich., and twin daughters were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Ellwood of the Ellwood Homestead.

The Gleener Amateur club of Southfield will give a dancing party Friday evening, October 5th, at the Town Hall, and want everybody to come. Bill, 50 cts.

William C. Bell is making his buildings and his farm look fine. Just now he is painting his house, and James McKinley is whitening the brush and window sash, good, too.

Robert Hanna, Jr. had the misfortune last week to run a nail into his right hand, and now he carries it in a sling. Dr. Shaw will bring it around all right in a few days.

John M. Bedlow has recently purchased and brought from Lansing last week four more fine shagbald ponies making a herd of 14 all told, and the bunch of equines keep him a very busy man.

Fred M. Spicer and family entertained friends from Detroit the day last week and as Fred does not believe in doing things by halves, he hitched up his fine team of bays and gave them his most delightful drive around the country.

S. H. Blodgett had all of his grapes stolen last week, and now he is red-headed, his coat off, sleeves rolled up and ready to knock the tar out of, or the block off from the boys that were so low, mean and vile as to take all of his good grapes. Bad boys look out.

Mr. and Mrs. Volney B. Miller had the pleasure of attending the old-fashioned Redford fair last week. They made 29 exhibits and captured only captured 28 first prizes, and one lone second. We will bet this record never was beaten. Oh, yes, the prizes called for $7 cash.

We understand that there is some one meddling with the mail boxes on the R. F. D. routes; now a word on the way, let me tell you what the penalty is and if you lose $500, fine, five years in prison, or both at the discretion of the court, for even putting a letter in a mail box that don't belong to you without permission from the owner. Now do not forget this.
