Candidate for State Senator, Twelfth Rig Driven by Undertaker Kelly, of The Following Announcements Were District on Democratic Ticket.

He is 28 years old, a graduate of the stickmood High School and of the Detroit College of Law; was admitted to the bar in 1889 at the age of 21; as been engaged in the general practice of law since 1990; for the five years pre-ceding was engaged in the office of Attorney O. C. Lungerhausen. Mr. Parker is married and permanently located at Mt. Clemens. He is well qualified for the office he seeks, has good business and legal training, and is capable in every way. He is opposed to railroad domination and promises, if elected, to represent the whole

Among the many other needed re-forms, Mr. Parker advocates:

1. The nomination of all candidates for office by the direct vote of the people and will do all in his power to secure the adoption of an aimple and efficient primary law.

2. The election of railroad and tax commission rs by direct vote of people.

3. The nomination and election of United States Senators by the direct vots of the feople.

4. The repeal of the so-called Indeterminate Sentence Law and their restoring to the Judges, discretion in the punishment of persons convicted of punishmen: o. page crime.

5. The abolition of a political Par-

5. The abolition of a political Pardon Board.
6. The speal of the Change of Venue Law enacted by the last legislature, which makes it possible for a litigant
upon making a preseribed affidavit without any investigation as to the truth of the statements therein make,
to have a cause transferred to another circuit, discomnosing litigants and giving an en rown a lvantage to corporations and wealthy parties to civil actions.

7. The enforcement of equitable tax

7. The enforcement or equitative tastion on the immunes mining and corputate wealth of the state.
8. The repeal of the Limite<sup>4</sup> Liability Act, enacted by the last legislature at the beheat of the corporate interests of the state, limiting her liability for damages, where death results from negligent personal injuries.
