HOME NOTES

The Exchange Bank opens every morning at 9 o'clock standard time...

Don't forget "Rebecca's Triumph" at the Library...

No Sunday shows for Pontiac, secret or otherwise...

In Wisconsin there is only town of 2000 people...

Mr. and Mrs. August Miller and Mrs. Tracy spent Saturday with Mrs. W. B. Carter.

Mrs. F. B. Stevens, of Leesville, spent a few days with her sister...

The U. P. supper at the church was a fine affair...

Mrs. Flora E. Beattie has returned from her Idaho visit...

Mrs. Lucy Pierce and daughter, of Trenton, and Gardner Pierce...

It needs only a rainy day to prove that embroidered stockings are very popular among Birmingham ladies.

Mrs. Nellie Burr, of Linden, is spending several days with the Misses Jennie and Nellie Baker of Southfield Avenue.

E. Phillips, the station master at the D. G. & M. depot, has returned to his duties here...

Holly is the first town in Oakland Co. to have a free public library. Birmingham should have, might have been the first.

The home of Mrs. Emma Robinson on Woodland Avenue, has been handsomely furnished by a new coat of paint...

Charles Watts, an old and highly respected pioneer of Royal Oak, is dead at his home east of that village at the age of 88 years.

This so easy to call up THE CENTRIC and tell Mitchell your news items that he sits up nights wondering why you don't do it. Try it please.

The date for the play, "Rebecca's Triumph," to be given by 13 young ladies of the Presbyterian Church, has been set for December 14th.

Each woman's club in this vicinity and every woman's society, church, Y. M. C. A. and all should help to maintain the women's rest room in the court house.

Mrs. A. Whitehead entertained the Ladies' Guild, of St. James church, at her home on Woodland Avenue, Thursday afternoon. Supper was served at 5 o'clock.

Wm. Pallister, Jr., of Troy, is dead. His many friends were shocked to hear of his untimely death which came last Sunday. We will have an obituary notice next week.

Mrs. L. J. Roy has returned from Toledo, Ohio, where she has been staying with her husband the past few days. Mr. and Mrs. Roy will move there the first of December.

There will be a special meeting of Birmingham Lodge, No. 149, K. of P., on Monday evening, Nov. 29th, for the purpose of conferring the Third Rank. A large attendance is desired.

Regular conference Birmingham Chapter, No. 93, R. A. M., on Monday evening, Nov. 26, 1906. Special business requiring a full attendance.

D. M. JOHNSON, Sec'y.

Invitations are out for a senior hop to be held at the Johnson-Shaw hall on the 31st flat. Music by Guy's orchestra and everyone receiving an invitation will miss a good time if they don't attend.

The Women's Clubs, of Oakland county, are taking an interest in our County Home. Pontiac club women have recently visited there and three of our women spent the afternoon there yesterday.

We got so many new subscribers last week, after ordering our paper that most of our exchanges had to be lighted up. We would say by way of apology that we hope the same thing may happen often.

The Grand Trunk R. R. Co. are laying new and heavier rails on their line from Detroit and have a gang of nearly one hundred Italians working on the tracks here. The Italians are living in bunks on the siding and spend the greater part of the night beating the village making it unsafe for anyone to be out after 15 o'clock.

Has any one found a ten dollar bill he received it for a nickel or a quarter? A good lady friend of THE CENTRIC is a shy piece of gold and would like to know what became of it.

Fred Rainey, who has been spending the past few months in Stuart, B. C., with his father, David Rainey, is on his way to his home here. He is at present, at Newberry, Mich., where he stops, before leaving for his home town.

Fred E. Brooks is soon to start on a western trip, covering Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona. He will combine pleasure with just enough business to make the trip a pleasant one...

Charles J. Shain, Manager, of the Exchange Bank, has just had a fine electric bell installed at the front of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell's home, just north of this village. You know the Club Women started this line of trees last spring. It is to go from Pontiac to Detroit...

Mrs. Lauder, of Maple Avenue, has gone to Jacksonville, Fla., her winter home, and thereby escapes a Michigan winter, which is close upon us. We trust the good lady will have a most enjoyable change and return safely in the spring.

A paper written by Mrs. Hadly, of Holly, and read at the meeting of the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs, recently held at that place, was read at the next meeting of Birmingham Women's Club, subject, "Some Needs of the Average Village."

A Fenlon man, who is too poor to take his horse to a race, was found to take his horse to a race at a horse track on a receipt to stop a horse from slobbering. He sent a dollar in cash money for the receipt and carried a card on which was printed, "Teach your horse to spit."

Nine fires out of ten are due to carelessness. What about wild storms? You can be as careful as you choose...

Milo F. Baldwin, of Russel, Kansas; late of Niles, Mich., has been appointed to the position of Inspector of the Detroit Public Schools, and will talk on "Manual Training" at the High School Literary Meeting last Thursday evening. He gave an outline of the work through the grades, paper cutting and bookbinding, card making, wood work, sewing and cooking. The training of the hand is now considered as needful as the training of the mind.

It is found that manual training keeps both boys and girls in school and where it has been introduced, it has increased the number of students in the fourth and fifth grades. The Professor paid the Women's Club a compliment by saying that wherever manual training has been introduced, it has been done by a woman's club, or by the efforts of some woman worker.

TAKE NOTHING FOR GRANTED Make Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb Prove What People's Tablets do For Indigestion.

It stands to reason that Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb would not continue to advertise in these columns year after year and ask you to try Peppikola Tablets for indigestion if they were not sure they would give you a real benefit.

Some 20 or more new telephone subscribers are waiting installation. About 30 Troy phone users are to be put in on Monday evening, Nov. 26th, and this is all expected to be done any week as the gang has been promised to Manager Mitchell for over a month. As soon as this is completed a new telephone directory will be issued for Birmingham. Hasten the day!

Our town has never enjoyed such a trade as it has during the last few weeks, and every day it is increasing. The fact of the matter is our business men have got right down to business and are selling goods at such prices that can be bought in any town of this size in the state, and the people are fast to find it out and are coming here from adjoining counties to do their heavy trading.

The Adolph Engress Jewelry Company of Detroit, has a larger and more complete stock of merchandise for the coming holidays than they ever had before. Messrs. Enggress, Sr. and Jr., are already on hand with a pleasant corps of accommodating salesmen to attend to the wants of their Birmingham vicinity patrons. You will find the best of attention at this oldest jewelry store in the great City of Detroit.

If you know or hear of an interesting item in the community, make it your point to see that it finds a place in your local paper. We would be very appreciative of your effort and will send our thanks to ascertain or verify any lacking points. Anything which tends to better or brighten the news service of a paper makes it of so much more value to the community, and the subscribers are the ones mostly benefited thereby.

"I can make a better living in Michigan on 'cut over lands' that can be bought for $6 to $12 an acre than on Washington or Oregon lands that cost from $10 to $12 an acre." is the statement of a former Oakland County farmer who went from Michigan to Washington, filled with hopes aroused by alluring railroad advertising. "Michigan is better in every way than the West for the man who works for a living," he concluded.

We don't think that you will miss reading V. Nixon's big ad, in this issue. It is a corker and when Nixon offers you bargain prices, he means it. You know absolutely and surely in his special ad that he will not understate the cost that him $4.00 per dozen, regular 50 cent goods, for 22 cents and other bargains that regular retail price is 35 cents for 19 cents each. It gets the public to vote for Nixon's offer.

Then the Hair Falls. Then it's time to act! No time to study, to read, to experiment! You want to save your hair! And save it quickly, too! So make up your mind this very minute that if your hair ever comes out you will use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the scalp healthy. The hair stays in. It cannot do anything else. It's nature's way.
