R. F. D. No. 1

Henry Cort has a sick horse.

Dr. Meyer has just finished a new corn crib.

John Delmarter on the John Baldwin farm.

S. Drouillard at the Elliott farm laying stone for a big basement barn.

Miss Angstrom at Detroit is visiting her aunt Mr. Pauline Miller for a few days.

Royal Oak.

Mrs. Oliver Beach on the Simonsen farm, entertained friends last Tuesday from Detroit.

The wind storm last Thursday night, blew down about 40 rods of fencing for John D. Benjamin of the gravel road.

Fred Hansen has commenced to build and we understand that he will erect three new buildings before spring rolls around.

Miss Irene Ellwood after being sick with scarlet fever, and recovering, is now a great sufferer from rheumatism. Too bad, she is certainly a brave and patient little sufferer.

Everett Lockwood and family will move to Detroit in a few days, as Everett has a good job with the M. C. R. Road Co., and will become a railroad man, and we know a good one.

Miss Loretta McHargan last Miss Baumgartner, were called to attend the funeral of her nephew, who died last week at Romeo, a son of William Bell, aged eight years. He died Tuesday last and was buried in the old family burying ground at Royal Oak.

George Randall is at the Fairview farm with his husking outfit, and they hardly take time to eat their meals, for that will rain. The Miller lot says if it holds out two days longer, all will be finished up in good shape.

Our old friend and fruit tree man, Perry T. Pardee, will make his daughter, Mrs. Ella Brackett, of Newstead, N. Y. visit, and anticipates having a fine time, as he has not seen her for many a year. He starts Monday, via the G. S. R. Y. We wish a safe journey.

Dr. F. W. Young of the Evangelical Poultry Farm has been laid up for a few days, a bad attack of rheumatism, and a very sick man. You all know Dr. Shaw? Well, he brought him out in good shape.

Burgess starred in the game making a touchdown.

Word was received here last Thursday from Denver, Colo., of the death of Richard J. Kinney. Mr. Kinney was a former well-known resident of this village and went to Colorado two years ago on account of his health. He is survived by one son, Allen, of this village, and a brother in Detroit. Mr. Kinney was 45 years old and was buried in Denver.

Sluggish Liver a Foe to Ambition.

You cannot accomplish very much if your liver is inactive, as you feel dull, your eyes are sore, your digestion is exhausted, you are liable to indigestion. Orin's Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and bowels and makes you bright and active. Orin's Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe, and is mild and very pleasant to take. It is more effective than pills or ordinary cathartics. Refuse substitutes. All druggists.

School Notes.

A debate took place Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 23, at the school house. Many parents and friends were present and heard the disputed subject, "Resolved: That the farmer is more indispensable to Society than the Mechanic."

SIXTH GRADE.

Miss Clara Riess was absent from school Monday.

Ruth Elwood, of the sixth grade, has entered school again after a month's absence on account of scarlet fever.

FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADES.

Limis Cornish was absent from school Tuesday.

John Ekert has returned after a long absence.

Avery Morton was tardy one morning Tuesday.

Maud Rogers and Ida Edling were winners in the spelling contest.

FRANKLIN

Guests at G. H. German's one day last week, Herbert Renshaw, of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry German of Northville.

Mrs. Ethel McKinney and Mrs. Clara Aldrich, of Birmingham, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. D. German, Thursday of the past week.

Mrs. Bethune Bigelow will entertain the L. M. F. Society for the December meeting. Members are requested to bring or send their mite boxes to this meeting.

The body of Mrs. L. Adams, wife of the late Lewis Adams, late resident of this vicinity, was brought from Detroit for burial in Franklin cemetery, Friday, Nov. 23rd.

Fred German, of Oregon, was calling on friends here after an absence of 8 years. He will remain until after the holidays. His many friends are much pleased to see him home again.

The many friends of Miss Adie Sly are glad to know that she has her new house about completed and nearly settled. May she live long to enjoy it. The best wish of her many friends.

The social at Mrs. J. Haden's on Wednesday evening, will be attended considering the night. About $114 was netted the society for the benefit of the M. E. church, of Farmington.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller will take part in a play for the Ladies' Union of Farmington. With cut doubt this play will be a very interesting one. Any one wishing a hearty laugh, go over and hear them.

The Franklin Sabbath School is making preparations for a Christmas entertainment. As this town is noted for the excellence of its home talent, come and hear them. It will do you good at this time of Yuletide.

A genuine old-fashioned donation is talked of for the Rev. Mr. Dover, of this place. Everybody watch for the date and do your part to present Mr. Dover to working hard for the new edition of his holy Bible.

Mrs. Emanuel German will entertain the Ladies' Aid for the December month. As the tickets have all been sold on the quilt the holders of the tickets are requested to present as there will be only one lucky one and many disappointed ones.

Miss Smith, who yields the rod of the village school, concluded to try the good behavior of her pupils by telling them they could have their own way for five minutes, consequently it was taken advantage of very quickly. Some were thronging her and others hollering as loud as possible, while many were doing mischievous acts. Imagine if you will the tumult to any one within hearing distance and also the surprise of the children when told by their teacher to remain after school hours for 20 minutes. Without doubt doubt they will be better pupils in the future.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucken's Arica Salve," says A. C. Shultz, of W. Va.

"Persistent use of the salve completely cured it." Cures cuts, burns and injuries. See the Warnings, Mitchell's and Cobb's Cuts, Bruises.

Nothing has ever equalled it. Nothing can ever surpass it.
