R. F. D. No. 1

Miss. May Bell is home a few days, for a needed rest.

Wm. Johnston of Chicago is enjoying a fine visit with his sister, Mrs. Wm. C. Bell, for a few weeks.

Miss Iva Felder, teacher in the Starr district, will have a rousing big time, on Friday evening. Christmas tree and exercises.

Miss Maggie Young, teacher of the John M. Beddow school will have fine christmas tree, at the school-house, on Saturday night.

W. H. Wood RFD carrier, had a little bad luck one day last week; his horse playing leap frog broke a thill. So everything goeth.

Charles Burns and mother have moved into James McBride's tenant house and will work for Mr. McBride the coming year. Good 'nuff.

Mrs. John Bell has named her farm, and hereafter it will be known as the "Bell Home 1869." Say, it looks good and does the family good.

One of the old land marks in the shape of a barn that has stood for over 60 years, blew down last week, on the Baldwin farm, west of the twelve mile road.

Samuel H. Rogers, last Saturday had bad luck. Twelve miles out he busted one of his buggy tires, and had to borrow a farmer's buggy to pick up his mail and get home again o, k.

Miss Lettie Russell, who teaches the Caleb G. Jackson district school, will give a christmas tree Friday night at the school-house, and a general invitation is extended to all to come.

Born at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hopp, a nice baby girl, early Friday morning last. Mother and babe doing nicely. This maketh Otto worth at least $2000. more than he was two years ago.

Mrs. J. H. Russell was called away last Monday to her brother's home at Flint, Mich., Mr. John Young, whose daughter, Miss Marie Young lies at the point of death, but all the friends hope she will recover.

Everett Lockwood has returned from Detroit to the farm, and to the simpler life. He says now "there is no place like the dear old farm, and all is not gold that glitters, and now me for the good hard farm work."

Gus. Shultz who works for Henry Cort, of the River Bank farm, is thankful that the new bridge over the river Rogue is at last finished, as it saves him a great many steps on Sunday evenings when he takes the short cut west. It certainly is a great saving of time and shoe leather. There are others.

Miss Eva McClelland, the elocution teacher, held exercises at the Royal Oak school district, No. 1, last week Thursday afternoon, at two o'clock p. m., and it was a grand success. A big audience enjoyed the treat, and all had a good time. All who saw Gyp, as a colored servant, could see a good and jolly time ahead, and were not disappointed either.

Last Tuesday afternoon Fenn. Weston, RFD3, had more bad luck, by having his dandy new top buggy upset by RFD2's horse backing into Fenn's rig at the post office, and breaking both thills. Now if you want to see a long faced sober looking man, huut up Fen. tag! he's it. It was the first time the buggy was used, but Carrier Voorhies cheerfully says "fix her up J. Fennimore and send the bill to me, And still Fenn. looks azure tinted.

Gerge Keyser who has worked more or less, the past seven years, for Mr. Louis J. Haack, died, Wednesday Dec. 12th, '06, at the home of George Slatt, of Southfield, of pneumonia. He was 45 years of age, and came from Switzerland, some thirty years ago where he leaves a mother to mourn his death. He leaves no relatives in this country. It will be a long time, before his mother learns of his death; it seems sad that this good, honest, industrious and hard working man had to go. We hope even at the last hour he was saved. It devolves upon Messrs. L. J. Haack, and J. Mil. Henning to inform his aged mother, in that far away foreign land.

The Gleaner's Society met recently at the home of Mrs. Charles Simmons, and elected officers for the ensuing year, as follows: president, Mrs. Hattie Jenks; first vice president, Laura Gray; second vice president, Hattie Douglass; secretary, Fanny Gray; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Simmons. All new officers and all hustlers. Look out for a big year with good results. The next meeting will be held at the pleasant home of Mrs. L. M. Dunbar, where everybody will be made to reel at home. After business is over, an afternoon six o'clock dinner will be served, oysters predominating. This society was organized ten years ago, and has prospered right along ever since. You all know what kind of a woman Mrs. Dunbar is, so all come and enjoy her unbounded hospitality, Jan. 9th, '07

Charming Women

Nothing lends more to personal charm than a clear, rosy skin, and nothing is sure to free the skin from moth spots, sallowness and the effects of chronic constipation as the Dainty Laxakola Tonic Tablets. 25c. Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb.

FRANKLIN

Everyone in this vicinity is busy preparing for the holidays.

The weatherman is giving us dark, dismal weather at present.

Bethune Bigelow was a business caller at Wyandotte on Tuesday last.

E. Windiate, of Pontiac, was a caller on the town line one day of the week.

The Ladies' F. M. Society will meet for the January meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. D. German. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Robertson, of Walnut Lake, entertained at a musicale on Saturday evening, December 15th, at her home. A very pleasant evening was reported by those present.

Guests at G. H. German's during the week: Mrs. J. M. Rairey of Birmingham, Fred German, of Oxford, Mrs. J. A. Miller and Mrs. Harry Weaver, of Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beal, of Pontiac.

The Lady Maccabees entertained at a card party on Friday evening, December 7th. The event was a success in every way. An elaborate lunch was served. Mrs. M. Benjamin was the happy winner of the lovely picture given.

The entertainment given by the Farmington Dramatic Club, was well attended, many enjoying a hearty laugh. The play was carried to such a pitch of realism as to compel frequent outbursts of applause, all carrying their part in a masterly manner. This club has rounded up a goodly sum for the cause they are working for. Success for this club is the best wish we have to offer.

Thoughts of many are centered in holiday plans for Christmas and we will soon be in the midst of mirth and holly. The time of gift and giving and family reunions to many will be a day of sadness, to others, a day of happiness. Let us all realize how much happier would be the lot of everyone, if we could keep in mind the heart-aches experienced by those whose poverty forbids the luxury of giving gifts, on this day of all the year and help to make glad those who are less fortunate than ourselves.

A Western Wonder.

There's a Hill at Bowie, Texas, that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure cough and cold cure. Guaranteed by Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb, druggists. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

AT THE THEATRES.

LYCEUM.

That delightful Western play with the atmosphere of rural, cultured New England sobcharging some of the principal incidents, will be the offering at the Lyceum for one week, commencing Sunday afternoon. "Sunday" is no complex character, neither are the other characters of this delightful domestic drama just simply living human beings with hearts to feel and brains to suffer. With wonderful fidelity has Mr. Thomas Raceward drawn the characters of the four, great husky miners. This delightful play runs the full gamut of emotions, the exquisite love-story, the sparkling comedy and situations which prove almost tragic, all inter-woven so skilfully, result in a most charming and virile entertainment.

The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

WHITNEY.

The Russell Brothers, popular as Irish biddy impersonators, will be seen at the Whitney next week, commencing Sunday afternoon, in a second edition of their popular vehicle, "The Great Jewel Mystery," which concerns the efforts of a band of smugglers to cast suspicion upon a wealthy widow, Lucy Tempest, who innocently has purchased some valuable jewels of them. The jewels were smuggled into the United States but the Secret Service men are hot on the trail of the smugglers. To evade them the culprits sell the jewels to a rich widow. After several interesting and thrilling climaxes they succeed in finding out the truth and bringing the real criminals to justice. Several specialties are introduced, including the Russell Brothers' impersonation of "The Irish Servant Girls."

The engagement is for one week with matinees daily except on Wednesday.

GAYETY.

At the new Gayety Theatre, corner of Lafayette Ave., and Shelby street, opposite the post office building, Detroit, for the coming week, will be offered the followiug attraction. Wrestling on Friday night. Amateurs Thursday. Bargain matinees; seats, 15 and 25 cts.

The Great Behman Show and Bryan's Congress of American Girls, the highest priced musical extravangaza and vaudeville attraction of the burlesque stage, will be the attraction all next week. The program is one of the strongest and most unique that will be seen this season. It is varied delightfully, and embodies faree comedy, vaudeville and spectacular and presents a score of dashingly pretty girls, sweet singers and graceful dancers. Frank D. Bryan and his Congress of American Girls are seen for the first time out of vaudeville in a stirring patriotic act, that was rated as the highest salaried act in the vaudeville line. In the olio are the "Human Flags," 16 dainty girls in historic ensembles and rapid character changes; Geiger and Walters in a novel musical act; the two Ruppelts, direct from Berlin, Germany, in daring acrobat'e feats; the Leo Georgis, another European wonder, and a host of others all as equally interesting.
