

NEW YORK

CHAPTER V - Continued. "When may I expect to hear from you, Monsieur?" she asks...

"Ah, you see, Monsieur, you speak of your 'Monsieur'..."

"I will try to send in the report by this time, you shall have it before you, Monsieur..."

"I am greatly obliged..."

"I am here at your home, Monsieur..."

deceases the clown, says, 'or does his companion blush while admitting the truth of this remark.' ... Dick suddenly raises his hat as a carriage rolls by, and bows with unusual grace...

"The evening draws on apace, and lights begin to appear along the boulevard-still the crowds, still the throngs, and who are, at the best, the best of the best..."

"Let us dine," says the colonel, "and have a little wine with us, shall we not, against my principles?"

Smoothness in Swine. Swine for selling on the general market should be fat to the point of carcass...

Scalding Feed for Hogs. How much will depend on ear corn straight, it is a settled fact that they will do better...

Shoing Horses. The science of horseshoeing is one that is being taught in our agricultural colleges, and this practice is to be commended...

She Rose to the Occasion. This is the story of a Warrenburg girl, the fiancée of a man whose father is the president of the Warrenburg Normal is greatly opposed...

Words Used But Rarely. A philologist was talking about words. There are over 225,000 words in the English language, he said...

Power on the Farm. The introduction of electricity in various forms on the farm is constantly on the increase. There are many forms of energy that can be employed at a very small cost...

In His Line. "My man," we say kindly to the individual whom we take a slight interest in, "how do you do?"

Not to Be Influenced. "If you are very good, Otto, the work will bring you a little better," says the foreman to the boy...
