George Deer has a fine place with a wealthy gentleman, an invalid in Alpena, as companion, reader and private secretary. George is fast earning money to finish his college education.

Howard G. Carter is among us occasionally and gives glowing accounts of the success and progress of the Shobra Mining Co. of Mexico.

W. A. Barrow has been laying for us lately and Monday brought into our sanctuary a bouncing beaut-egg. It measures 6 x 2 1/2 x 1 1/2 and weighs just 1 1/4 of a pound.

Miss Maie Wilson of this place while visiting in Chatham was given a granite shower by Mr. and Mrs. Art Potter. The entertainment of the evening was progressive pedro, the favors being hearts engraved with capris.

Miss Lucy Ward entertained a number of the young ladies on Tuesday evening with a little girly party. To carry out the idea each young lady was dressed to represent a child and the evening was spent playing children's games.

The Ladies Guild of St. James church will give another foot wash this week Saturday at Cobb & Cobble's drug store from 2 until 5 o'clock.

There are sixty books out of our library this week. We doubt if any town of this size without a free public library can show so large a reading public. Add to this the number that would read if they were free, and the number of books called for...

Charles Castle of Armada is visiting his uncle, I. N. Baker of this village. Miss Jessie Baker gave a very glad and entertaining party in his honor one evening recently.

Mrs. Arthur H. Carpenter has been at the Harper hospital for nearly a month having undergone a successful operation and almost entirely recovered. She will be home again next month much to the joy of her friends and family.

Found—A wagon loaded with manure by the side of Willis street. It is reported that Mr. Dana of the subdivision had an accident recently. His horses slipped, wagon ran backward and brother Dana had three ribs cracked. To bail.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Clark of Pierse street, P. A. Sawyer and wife of Onaga, Neb. Previous to their western life Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer were residents of Livingston Co. and the longing for Michigan in Michigan has become so strong that they will not return to the west.
