

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington writes how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim that we have many thousands of satisfied women who have regained their health and vigor after suffering from various ailments.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham's of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give help to afflicted women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letter.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: I have been suffering for the past eight months with a trouble which has afflicted me from childhood. The pains were excessive and I was unable to do any of my usual work. I have consulted several physicians, but to no purpose. The doctor says I must have an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: I have written you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation. I could not stand it. I received your kind letter and followed your advice. I eat walk miles without pain.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little cost her recovery.

Parisian Politeness.

There is a thin strip of ice on the pavement. Horses slip and stumble, and one of them falls, but is not hurt.

Hard Water Harmful.

A physician who has practiced for thirty years in a California valley says the ailments upon which he lives is of granitic formation, and the water is hard.

Hans Mueller, Soldier.

Inscription Over Hero

Years ago in the Third Cavalry there was a German immigrant of the name of Hans Mueller.

He could tell his career from his cartridge belt, and to keep his horse fresh, so that he could get back to camp in a hurry if he happened to have a truce-off in the wake of Sergeant Nelson.

Sergeant's Judgment Wrong.

Sergeant Nelson was an old campaigner, and that day he made a mistake. He led his three men straight into an ambush.

Not Out for a Soldier.

He was ambitious and he hoped that some time he would overcome his awkwardness and be as firm a soldier as Sergeant Nelson.

Sent Out With Scouting Party.

One day, however, a severe cold kept him from going down the river with the scout party.

Beyond Ken of Little Child

Adventure Black Angel Had No Significance for Him.

Mrs. Dush is young, handsome and worldly. Morning, noon and night she appears fresh and eager for his gay life.

She has a small son 3 years old who seems to carry upon his tiny shoulders the burden of a world.

The little lad's fancies are quaint and fantastic and the days are short for his imagination to get its work in.

Recently his lovely mamma was stricken with a serious illness.

It was a fortnight he was summoned to the sickroom to see his mamma, who was beginning to feel the real glow of convalescence.

Successive Steps From Kitchen Table to Hall Mirror.

Mrs. Compton looked at her patient and wondered how she could get the first impression of good-natured superiority.

Know All About It.

How its Appearance Became Familiar to the Public.

The story of how probably the most perfect feminine hand in America became known to the people is rather interesting.

Romance and Reality

The young man had pulled the wrong woman up the hill on the to-boggan, and was amazed to find her moodily silent when he reached the summit.

"What is wrong?" he asked.

"If you had any romance about you, you would have taken advantage of the occasion and the opportunity to say that you would be happy to pull me up the hill of life forever and ever," she sighed.

But last summer when we were visiting your city you could think of no brighter future than to drift together under the stream of life.

Rich, Juicy Radishes Free.

Several times last day with the radishes of friends, servants with solemn faces moved about, noisier than trained nurse and went, doctors, to inspect the radishes.
