AITKIN, MINN. AVAIL, 18, 1906.
Editor of Birmingham Eccentric,
Dear Shi:—In your issue of April 13th
the article on Royal Oak sends o ses thoughts down memory's lane and brings back faces and incidents that are woven back faces and incidents that are woven into the great whe of human life. I knew those men whose names you mention and the are worthy of more than a passing notice. But as that would require more space than I feel at liberty! to ask for I will mention two or three and beg your indulgence.

Dr. Brewer was of Puritan stock, a lineal descendant of the Brewster that came over in the Mayflower in 1050 and was Pastor of the Plymouff colony butil 1549. Dr. Brewster had that sturdy independent manhood that characterized his ancestors. He was ever ready and will hig to blister and bleed according to the old school of which he was a graduate and he wis an important factor in the life of Royal Oak.

CONDON E. FAV.

CONION E. FAY.

Condon F. Pay was a mán that possessed a worderful fund of c'minon sense and humon. He had the entire confidence of all tat keew him, his iudge ment was never questioned. Any misanderstanding or rouble that alose among the people was referred to Pay and who it they made their statem state and Pay gave his spinion, that rettled it. Perhaps that was the reason Royal Oak had no lawyr. There were no hay scales in the town then and if anyone had anything to be sold by weight, cattle or a load of hay, it was left to Fay to say what the weight was and what he said it was went and buyer and seller were statistied. He was kind and accomodatup, kept a good hotel, was ever mindfa of the comforts of his guests and set is good table filled with the best of food. If had a way of injecting his humor into al hat he did which made him an interest ng character. I was present one day when a colored mun came in; he was the insert locking. lay's hunt and as they drove up said to div's hunt and as they drove up said to Fay 'is there any good hunting ground around here?" Fay said "Yes splendid", so they put out their team and asked Fay were it was. He said "Go over on the other side of the turnpike there is a long ridge running south, not much underbrush, its the best hunting ground I know of." So after 'taking something' they started but when they reached the door on turned and said "What kind of game is there over ther?" Fay replied, "Oh, there isn't any game but it is the, best hunting ground I know of.

DR. CARLOS GLAZIEI

Dr. Carlos Glezier, what blessed and delightful memories the mention of his name awakens. My friend, the friend of humanty, friend of all lying, I be-lieve it ever mau followed/ the life for which God called him it, was Carlos Glez-Tyr. I seem to see him tow as he is drive.
