SCOTT'S EMULSION, CHAMBERLAIN'S PAIN EXPELLER, FRANKLIN'S COLIC EXPELLER, CLAYSON'S COLIC EXPELLER.

FRANKLIN

A beautiful June day, all nature seems to be rejoicing in the summer. The birds are singing merrily as if it is a day of happiness never to be forgotten.

Rev. Dover lately purchased, for the benefit of himself and family; he says he will no doubt enjoy the cream, so he says but the good lady Mrs. Dover was heard to remark that she would look after that part of the proceeds, therefore an afraid Mr. Dover will have some.

Franklin's latest played base ball with the Hiss team of Pontiac, etc. It is in favor of Franklin. Hiss team, Franklin, German and German; Pontiac, Smith and Moran.

Emanuel German recently purchased a new top buggy of the make and color which will not give you any ache. Harry was out trying it one day of the week and without doubt enjoyed it to the full extent.

Miss Henderson gave a picnic to her pupils at Orchard Lake. An elegant dinner and boating made the day pass quickly and all report a fine time.

Automobiles are becoming too numerous on Town Line. Any one driving will have to keep a good watch out if they do not want a runaway.

Everything in the country is looking fine at this time of the year and the farmers are looking forward to a bountiful harvest.

Garce Walstead, who has been ill for many weeks was out riding and enjoying the sunshine. Her many friends are pleased to hear of her recovery.

The L. F. M. S. meet with Mrs. Hattie Evans on Thursday p. m. June 8th, are cordially invited.

Decorations day was here in time and was an ideal day as usual with its rain and gloominess. It would not be the national day without this dreariness although it freshens up the beautiful flowers and keeps them longer for the occasion.

Mrs. Wm. Trott of Agnada, a former resident of Franklin was calling on old friends in this vicinity lately.

Many of our young people attended the dress parade at Orchard Lake Sunday afternoon. Judging from the crowd it was as full of folks as ever there.

Miss Larue Hill has arrived home from Sterling, Kansas and talks in high praise of that place for people suffering with rheumatism. In fact thinks it is one of the best places for folks green earth.

Miss Adine Higby, one of Pontiac's hello girls, has been visiting in Franklin and vicinity the past week. Her many friends were glad to meet her once more.

James Cox has taken a day off and will visit his daughter, Mrs. Charles Jenks at Bloomfield Hills and other places before his return home.

Clears Up The Complexion.
Bright eyes, a ruddy glow, and a complexion free from pimples, spots and blotches, may be had by every woman who will use Laxativa Tablets, a positive cure for chronic constipation. Sold at Whitehead & Mitchell's and Cobb & Cobb's.

A TIP TO DELINQUENTS.

Some newspaper subscribers often wonder, not doubt, why a publisher will keep sending the paper when the subscription has expired. The reason is this: When the subscription is paid to a certain time, the time expires and the paper is stopped. It looks as if the publishers do not care for the integrity of the subscriber, and sometimes out of ten the subscriber will give the newspaper man a calling down for insisting that his credit is no good. Rather than cast any reflection against a neighbor's honesty by paying a small debt, it has become necessary for the country news paper to continue sending the paper after the time has expired. The city weeklies and dailies do not, generally follow this rule as their subscribers live in a distance and they are not acquainted with them and do not know their financial standing. One should deem it an honor to know that their credit is not doubted when the publisher continues to send the paper.

Should our subscribers desire to have the paper discontinued, they should inform this office and remit to date, if any is owing.

If there is any one now receiving this paper, who does not desire it, and the date upon which it is paid has expired, simply figure what is due, enclose the amount in an envelope and state plainly that you wish the paper discontinued. It is no offense to receive business communications. This paper is not forced on anyone, any more than a dry goods man would force one to accept a yard of calico every week. We believe the paper worth two cents a week to any intelligent citizen. This paper is not forced on anyone, any more than a dry goods man would force one to accept a yard of calico every week. We believe the paper worth two cents a week to any intelligent citizen.

It is in the interest of the public to have the truth known. It is in the interest of the public to have the truth known. It is in the interest of the public to have the truth known.

The following names will meet the last Wednesday in June with Mrs. William Shepard.

AT THE THEATRES
LYCERUM.

For the fifth and last week of the Vaudeville Glaser Stock company at the Lyceum the management has selected Marie Correll's great story of emotion and heart interest, "The Man". O'fall the stock plays that have met with the approval of the theatre-going public "The Man" leads, and when presented by a company that has the standing of Marie Correll's it should meet with a warm and hearty welcome from lovers of the deep, old-time comedy plays. No stronger play could have been selected for the farewell week than "The Man" as it gives each member of the company an unusual opportunity to display their versatility and power of emotion. It might be of interest to the several admirers of the company who have made in this city a visit will return to the Lyceum again next spring. Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

WHITNEY.
"A Montana Outlaw", a play of the west by Frederick S. Gibba and Herbert Hall Winslow will be the offering of the Holden Stock company at the Whitney next week. The first act is laid at the ranch of Wesley LeGrand, and introduces, besides the ranchman and his son, the hero, Jack the Buster, Irene LeGrand, the ranchman's pretty daughter and Manuel Barba, through whose efforts the ranch property is fraudulently taken from LeGrand, and the ranchman himself made to appear as the murderer of Jack Stacey, one of Barba's hirelings. The hold-up scene in the third act is naturally carried out and is stirring to the extreme. A complete scenic embellishment, original scenery, props and effects being used, and a strong company will be seen in the presentation. Matinees will be given daily except on Wednesday.
