Mrs. W. A. Powers, of St. Paul, Minn., is visiting friends for three or four weeks at Bay City, where she taught school for 14 years prior to moving to St. Paul.

George Handall, the thresher, started out August 1 for fall threshing, and his first work was at Churchill's, on the Cassius Crawford farm. He predicts a good yield this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Crawford took a grand trip over the lakes up to Mackinac and the Soo. Cassius says it was a great trip, and the only thing he regretted was his overcoat.

The new cemetery that was booked for Southfield, turned out to be a snare, as the promoter has fled to the land nobody knows where. Even his leaving bona don't know. So our little village will sleep once more.

William Brook is a very busy man these days. He has in 75 acres of corn, 20 acres of beets and 80 acres of oats; cut 100 acres of hay, and planted 30 to 40 cows. In all the family tills over 500 acres of land. Who can beat it? We would like to hear from others.

The farmers are making lots of improvements this year along the roadside. The law is such that it is the duty of all to keep noxious weeds cut, and we are pleased to see so many take hold of the matter in the proper spirit. Next season we hope to see the roadside cleared of every thistle and other weed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Hanna, and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, of Detroit, took a vacation of five days to Niagara Falls, and they report a grand good time going and coming. They made the trip on the famous P. & B. line, going on the Eastern States and returning on the Western States. Now little Robert J. says bring out the Y. C. T. U. to his annual picnic at the farm of John Benjamin, known as the Maple Grove Stock Farm. There were people present from Rochester, Detroit, Pontiac and Royal Oak. Music was furnished by the Pontiac Fife and Drum Corps. Of course everybody had a good time—couldn't do otherwise when your Uncle John Benjamin served as master of ceremonies.

A quiet wedding took place at Southfield last Thursday evening at the residence of Rev. L. S. Clark, where the bride was Miss G. and the groom was Stanley Johnson, of Detroit, a passenger bookman on the Michigan Central, and the bride Miss Ella Chasman, a school teacher of some note. After the ceremony they were furnished with a supper by the groom's mother, Mrs. H. J. Johnson. The best man was John Chapman, a brother of the bride, and the bridesmaid was a sister of the groom. The young couple boarded the trolley car at Sand Hill for Detroit, where their residence was in readiness for the honeymoon. May they enjoy themselves for the next 90 years in the wishes of all.

One of the most pleasant social events that has occurred in this section of the country for many years was the reunion of the Class of '86, B. H. S., held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M.

Hemming, on Tuesday, July 31. All the surviving members of the class, with their wives, husbands and children were present. One of the things of which this class is justly proud, is that it has held a reunion every four years since graduating from the Birmingham High School 20 years ago. One of the members of this class has passed to the other shore but he will never be forgotten by the rest. After a feast of good things provided by the members, the afternoon was spent in recalling pleasant memories of school days long ago, taking pictures of the class and its additions, and singing the old songs. Lots of regret from the old teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Hull, of Lansing, were read and enjoyed, although their presence would have been more preferable and pleasant. The members of the Class of '86 lay away: William McKee, of Chicago; Mrs. Charles A. Burr, of Rochester, Mich.; Mrs. J. M. Hemming, of Southfield; Mrs. William A. Carpenter and Miss Martha Allen, of Bloomfield; Mrs. John Hanna, Miss Mary L. Boardman and Cassius H. Carter, of Birmingham—all residents of Old Oakland but one. The next reunion is booked for Rochester, Mich.

Galveston's Sea Wall
Makes life now as safe in that city as on the highlands. E. W. Goodloe, who was the first to build a sea wall in Texas, needs no sea wall for safety. Now it's gone." Cures chronic coughs, la grippe, croup, whooping cough, and all other pulmonary ailments. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb's drug stores. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

SOUTHFIELD
Orvil Brooks was home the last of the week.
Mrs. Martha Brooks has been quite ill the past three weeks.
Dr. Morrison and wife are entertaining Miss Gregg, of Detroit.
Mr. and Mrs. Shovan spent Sunday with relatives at Royal Oak.
Miss Bernice Cushing, of Flint, is visiting friends and relatives here.
Miss Emma Miller is making an extended visit with relatives at Harbor Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Miller and children visited at James Millers at Birmingham last Saturday evening.
Mrs. V. B. Miller, and Mrs. Emma Brooks were callers at the pleasant home of Mrs. Lyman Green, recently.
Mrs. Amanda Purdy has been in poor health for some time, and will go this week to Harper Hospital for an operation.

Miss Margaret Young will teach in the Bedford school this coming year. She is very much liked, as is her second term.
Dr. Smith and wife entertained Mrs. Smith's brother Laurence, of Detroit; also Reuben Beattie and family, of Walnut Lake, last Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Brooks entertained the families of Rev. Leal Clark and Volney Miller last Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Clara Young of Pontiac.

Howard Russell, while bathing in the burg millpond, came near losing his life last Saturday evening. He had gone under water the second or third time when his brother Henry missed him and with other companions succeeded in getting him out of the water, but it was a narrow escape.

Miss Clara Young of Pontiac, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brooks. Wednesday evening, Mrs. Brooks entertained in honor of her youngest guest, the families of Rev. L. S. Clark, Dr. Morrison, and V. B. Miller. On the following Friday evening, the families of Dr. Smith, John M. Beddow, and Harry Russell. Miss Young is a fine musician and gave a number of selections on the piano which was enjoyed by all. Ice cream and cake were served.

The End of the World
Of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of near Gravel, Ia., of all his possessions, he writes: "Two years ago kidney trouble, weakness and weakness, led to a cure for all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, Blood Diseases, Headache, Weakness and Weakness, bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed by Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb."

FRANKLIN
G. H. German attended the races at Kalumau last week. A goodly crowd was in attendance.
Mrs. William Adams is visiting her sister on Fairgrove Avenue, Pontiac, the coming week.

Very dry, warm weather is now here, and much-needed rain would do lots of good to vegetation.
Mr. Stibel, who has been so seriously ill the past few days, is convalescent under Dr. P. P. German's care.

Clifford German, of Kansas City, and Mr. Clark, of Cleveland, Ohio, were guests of G. H. German and family recently.

Judis Cummings, of Holly, and a friend from Detroit, were guests of Mrs. Mattie Cummings over Sunday.

Mrs. Oliver Irish has returned home from Mt. Clemens very much improved from the treatment taken while there.
Mrs. Adams is about to visit his brother George in Northern Michigan, and if he likes it no doubt will remain until October.

Mrs. Rust and Mrs. Fred Chambers have gone on their annual tour to their old homes, near Durand and Bancroft, for a few weeks.
Miss Grace Demster, who has been the guest of Helen Slade at her summer home the past week, has returned to her Detroit home.

Deire Pins is enjoying a short outing at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Merri, near Marine City, and will visit friends in Detroit before his return home.
Mrs. Bryant, who has been visiting her former home at St. Johns, has returned to this village. Her many friends and acquaintances are glad to see her back.

The summer rush of company is now in vogue. Nearly every house in this vicinity is visited more or less by far-away friends. Greetings and good wishes are the order of the day. Welcome—thrice welcome.

Batem Wood gave a small evening party in honor of Miss Gaunt, of Detroit and Miss Gertrude Wood, of North Farmington one night of the week. A very enjoyable time by those present. Light refreshments were served.
Miss Grace Walstad gave a party to some of her young friends on Saturday afternoon. An enjoyable time was had by those present. With music and games the hours too quickly passed away. A very dainty luncheon was served, after which all returned to their homes.

AT THE THEATRES.
LYCEUM.
The opening attraction at the Lyceum next Sunday evening, will be the John W. Vogel's big Minstrels, which will commence a week's engagement on that night. Mr. Vogel starts out this season with everything new and clean. There are new costumes, new jokes, new stunts and new scenery. The latter, indeed, is one of beauty. The thousands of beads under ever changing colored electric lights produce a beautiful kaleidoscopic view that cannot be described in words. A Band of thirty solo musicians add much to the entertainment.
Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

WHITNEY.
Charles E. Blaney's stirring military play, "Across the Pacific" comes to the Whitney for the usual week's engagement, commencing next Sunday afternoon. From the popular standpoint, "Across the Pacific" is all that it should be. It is a melodrama of the ultra-sensational type, with the requisite number of thrills in every act and with the smell of gunpowder permeating all. The big dock scene, showing the departure of the transport "City of Pekin" loaded down with Uncle Sam's brave boys, bound for the Philippines, is without a doubt, one of the greatest scenic triumphs ever attempted.
