LITTLE ACORNS.

Hugh McLaughlin is reported as being no better.

Will McCavey won the suit started against him by Mrs. Carew.

Lee Campbell has started to build his mother's house on Center Street.

People who are always looking for the worst are seldom disappointed.

Jacob Lawson is having his house painted—yellow with white trimmings.

Gus Brown has gone on a week's fishing trip and will, no doubt, land a good string.

The reason why people always like babies and kittens is that they always act naturally.

Sam Alger has been on the sick list for some weeks, and does not seem to improve much.

The great trouble in practicing what you preach is that it is so easy to get out of practice.

Louis Erb has departed for Sylvan Lake, to join the crowd that went out some time ago.

Mr. McGuire has purchased the Bunclark house, on the 10-mile road, and has moved into it.

George Baker attended the Michigan Hardware Association's gathering in Detroit last week.

William Ford has sold his meat market to Mr. Halsey, of Detroit, the latter being now in possession.

Joe Brown is contemplating a year's trip to the Pacific Coast. Portland, Oregon, will be his destination.

The woman who never wonders what her husband does with so much pocket change is a pearl of great price.

Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Hanna, of Buffalo, N. Y., are spending some days with North D. Wilcox, on First Street.

The party of Royal Oakites, which has been sojourning at Sylvan Lake for two weeks, returned home Saturday.

The Village Council has ordered a cement sidewalk laid on Center Street, from Gene Clement's north for quite a piece.

Miss Richards has been engaged as teacher for the coming term in the primary department of the Royal Oak school.

George Dondero has returned from the North in the pink of condition and ready for another season's campaign as a teacher.

Threshing machines are beginning to hum these days. Will McCavey's outfit cleaned up on the Curtis place Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Radke is about to start a new house on Washington Avenue, next to the McLaughlin house. It will be of cement block.

Mrs. Esther Fay, who has been quite ill for some time, has about recovered, and is now out in her garden feeling quite herself again.

Lee Campbell will soon begin the erection of a new house for Mr. Richards, on the southwest corner of Eighth and Rochester Avenues.

Death has claimed another of our little ones. George Hunt's family removed to Royal Oak on Thursday, and their little baby died on Friday.

Captain Parr is having the cement block made for his residence on Troy Street. The Captain and his family will occupy the house when completed.

Henry Greene and family have removed from the Parr house on Center Street to Mrs. Robb's house, on the southeast corner of First and Troy Streets.

Allen & Leach will construct the new house Captain Parr is about to have built on Troy Street. This firm will also raise Frank Leach's house to two stories.

Dr. Anderson is slowly recovering from his severe attack of sickness, and contemplates spending a few days at Orchard Lake in order to get a complete rest.

A gipsy camp has been pitched at the lower end of the village, and we presume all the young ladies and young man will be down and have their futures looked into.

Telephones were placed in the residence of H. S. Gardner, F. A. Parent and Leon Freytag last week. North D. Wilcox will have one placed in his residence this week.

The Grand Trunk is to construct cement crosswalks at all crossings through the village where its tracks cross the streets. The rebates allowed by the village will amount to about $60.

Little Leone Hough had the misfortune to fall out of a hammock the other day and break her arm. Dr. Hammond set it and the little one is doing as well as can be expected from such a painful accident.

Would it not be well for the City Dads to give a little consideration to the road question? Many an automobile party would come up into "The Oak" if there was a decent road to get up on. As it is, once is about enough for any automobilist.

Owing to a miscarriage of the mails the Royal Oak news did not reach headquarters in time for publication August 3. While we know the patrons of the paper were greatly disappointed, such accidents will occur at times, and we will have to forgive and forget.

Mr. Kiser, an old gentleman of about 80 years of age, was helping unload a car on the Grand Trunk siding when a switch engine bumped the car and Mr. Kiser bumped the coal in the car, but no serious results occurred from the bumps, although it might have been serious.

If you wonder why some of our male citizens are going around without coats don't lay it in all instances to the weather. Frank Ash and Joe Burgess both had their coats swiped from in front of their residences. In Mr. Ash's case the gentleman who did the business left a much inferior coat, with a light lunch in the pocket, in Frank's back yard. Mr. Burgess didn't even get a light lunch for his coat. And while we are on the subject, Mrs. Hitchcock's barn was broken into and the only thing taken was a mirror, which Mrs. Hitchcock prized very highly on account of its associations. Truly Royal Oak is becoming quite a live town, both day and night.
