Get SCOTT'S Emulsion

When you go to a drug store and ask for Scott's Emulsion you know what you want; the man knows you ought to have it. Don't be surprised, though, if you are offered something else. Wines, cordials, extracts, tonics, or cod liver oil are plentiful but don't imagine you are getting cod liver oil when you take them. Every year for thirty years we've been increasing the sales of Scott's Emulsion. Why? Because it has always been better than any substitute for it.

R. F. D. No. 1

Clarence Blodgett was home last Sunday.

Miss Mary Harmon spent last week week at Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Birdie Van Amburg's daughis very sick at John Sharp's.

Mrs. R. Cromie is painting her wood house and summer kitchen a flaming red.

John H. Baldwin is getting ready for the erection of a new house on his farm.

Mrs. A. Porteous has gone East for a few weeks, and will visit friends in Canada.

F. W. Young & Son are just putting the finishing touches on their big chicken house.

Fred Spicer is cleaning out the ditch along the road, getting ready for our fall rains.

Lawrence Beattie, of Detroit, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. Smith, last Sunday.

J. S. Cannon is keeping bachelor's hall, but says he is tired and would like to get a rest.

James Edgar is fixing up his home, and it looks the same he gave it—Midway Pleasant.

W. E. Stevenson has bought a new corn binder, and he says the days are not long enough.

Mrs. John Kreger and daughter were called at Mrs. Mills', the former's mother, last week.

Joseph Croft has been sick for the past week, but at this scribbling he is again able to be out.

Fred Bell, of Detroit, and Clyde Goss, of Ypsilanti, were the guests of Mrs. James Harmon, last Sunday.

Miss Belle Kyle, of Toronto, Ontario, is visiting Mrs. John D. Evans, and her nephew, Master Bert Brailey.

Ward Parks is clearing up the brush and ditch in front of his little farm. Of course it is an improvement.

Master Frank Render has been very sick for the past seven weeks, but is now on the high road to recovery.

John G. Patterson, formerly employed by William Ellwood, has moved to Ball Mountain, and will, in the near future, work a farm for himself.

Starr, the big seed man of Michigan, had the misfortune to lose a lot of melons one night last week, a lot of young hoodlums tearing up the vines.

Mrs. John Sparling had a very nice present from her mother last week—a crate of White Rock chickens, freight prepaid. Now look out for that enterprising chicken farm.

Mrs. P. Ellwood, who has lived with her sister at Royal Oak for several years past, has returned to her son William's, where she will spend her remaining years on the old homestead.

The Franklin Foreign Missionary Society will meet at Mrs. Dr. Ed Smith's, October 4, for the purpose of transacting routine business and renewing old friendships, there being several residents of Southfield who formerly affiliated with Franklin. Business being completed, a bountiful 3-o'clock dinner will be served by the Southfield ladies. All who come are welcome.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS.

Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb Tell of the Remarkable Success of Pepsikola Tablets in Relieving Indigestion.

After selling all kinds of remedies for dyspepsia and indigestion we can truthfully say that we never knew anything to give such universal satisfaction as Pepsikola Tablets. They not only aid indigestion but they act as a grand nerve tonic as well. Many Birmingham people who have not enjoyed a good meal for years now say that after using one or two 25-cent boxes of these little tablets they feel as if they could eat a horse and digest it too.

Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb have been recommending this grand dyspepsia remedy for nearly two years now, and from actual experience know there is no other remedy so sure to relieve sour stomach, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, palpitation, sleeplessness, wind belching, and other distressing symptoms of indigestion. And Pepsikola Tablets must cure you or there is nothing to pay. They will renew your energy, steady your nerves, regulate the action of your heart, improve your appetite, put new life in your stomach, and will do more to tone up and improve your general health than anything you ever heard of.

SOUTHFIELD

Earl Russell has returned to college, at Muskingdom, Ohio.

Mrs. Lole Shovan spent Monday with relative at Royal Oak.

Lawrence Beattie of Detroit spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. Ed. Smith.

Mrs. Anna Harmon and Miss Mary entertained company from Ypsilanti over Sunday last.

The Willing Workers have been postponed one week, and will meet Wednesday October 3rd., at the home of Mrs. Marian White. Every one welcome.

The W. F. M. S. of the Franklin M. P. church will meet with Mrs. Ed. Smith on Thursday October 4th. A general invitation is extended to all. Dinner will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Halsey Stevens entertained a company of friends last Friday evening. Refreshments were served, music and games indulged in, and a general good time was had by everybody present.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs mean powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Fort Williams, Ohio, has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed by Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb, druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

CLAWSON

Miss Lucy Poole is quite sick at present writing.

Miss Lottie Lawson is learning the millinery trade in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, of Detroit, were Sunday callers at H. J. Bower's.

A family from Detroit has bought the John Hall place, and has started to build a new house.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Halsey, and Howard and Earl Halsey took the trip to Niagara Falls last Saturday.

We will hold our annual Sunday rally next Sunday, September 30, at 2:30 p. m. Addresses by several prominent speakers, and special music. Come; everybody welcome.

W. S. DICKEY, Sup't.

Starving to Death.

Because the stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair Street, Columbus, Ohio, was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters, with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed. Best health comes on earth; 50c. Guaranteed by Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb, druggists.

Tom May's cartoons have made the Detroit Journal famous. Subscriptions for that paper and for others received at this office. We can save money for our patrons.

Parlor Car Diversion.

"Porter," said the fussy lady in the parlor car, "I wish you would open this window."

The lady in the seat directly across heard the request, and drew a cloak about her.

"Porter, if that window is opened," she snapped, testily, "I shall freeze to death."

"And if the window is kept closed," returned the other passenger, "I shall surely suffocate."

The porter stood timidly between the two fires.

"Porter," remarked the commercial traveler, "your duty is very plain. Open the window and freeze one lady. Then close it and suffocate the other."—Puck.

Rivals.

Gunner—Why are those ships acting so queerly out there in the bay?

Guyer—I don't know. They are sister ships, though.

Gunner—Well, that accounts for it.

Guyer—Accounts for what?

Gunner—Why, I bet they are flirting with that big enemy over there.—Chicago Daily News.

AT THE THEATRES.

WHITNEY.

A story of more than passing interest at the present time is "While 'Frisco Burns", a new melodrama from the pen of Lincoln J. Carter. As the title suggests the play centers about the beautiful Pacific City and has to do with its people, and incidents following in the wake of the great earthquake and conflagration. Its narrative develops an interesting love story, intensified by the unusual amount of villiany, good heart interest and lots of wholesome comedy. The hero related of the vicissitudes the young people pass through, aided by Jack's strong arm and the help of his four friends; a Hebrew type writer, Ezie, the office boy, Benny Giroux; Mrs. Casey, a warm hearted Irish woman; and her daughter, Mary Ellen. The cast is an unusually strong one. Matinees "While 'Frisco Burns" will be presented at the Whitney all next week, commencing Sunday afternoon.

LYCEUM.

Hear ye all ye merry makers and joke lovers, Buster Brown is a coming, and will frolic around the stage of the Lyceum all next week, commencing Sunday evening. This season Buster comes to us with a brand new edition of fun and jollity, many new lines, jokes, witticisms and catchy musical numbers being injected into the piece for this season's tour. When E. F. Outheault first began drawing the "Buster Brown" sketches he little realized that he was furnishing material for one of the most successful musical comedies of recent years, one that is evident that will live forever. Of course it is not necessary to say that "Tige" will be there to help Buster out of his numerous escapades and receive his share of the castigation.

The engagement is for one week with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

GAYETY.

"The Golden Crook." Extravaganza and Spectacular company, which appears at the new Gayety theater, corner Lafayette and Shelby, opposite the post-office, Detroit, during the week commencing Sunday, Sept. 30, is a $60,000 production, and is regarded as one of the most elaborate of its kind on the stage. The company includes 50 clever people, of whom 30 are beautiful girls whose charms are displayed in the richest of costumes. They are singers and dancers of the liveliest kind and give an entertainment well worth going many miles to see. The Gayety theater gives bargain matinees every week-day afternoon, when seats are 15 and 25 cents.

A Reward.

We offer a reward of 25 cents for every case of skin trouble, eczema, ulcers, old running sores, wounds, cuts, or any kind of scalp trouble that Dermakola Ointment will not heal, for if not cured we pay the 25 cents back.
