UNDER WAGON ANDREW H. PORTER FOR COUNTY TREASURER

John McQuarier Meets His Death by a Fall from a Loaded Wagon. Wednesday afternoon about 2:30 John McQuarier left his village with a wagon loaded with business goods...

One of Bloomfield's Best Boys Asks Recognition.

Andrew H. Porter, who has been Supervisor for the past eight years, was Justice of the Peace for nine years, and has been effectively tried in the balance in various offices of public trust in our township and it is very evident that he has proven satisfactory to the Republican voters of Bloomfield, as his majority will amply prove.

BORTLE'S RELIC

The Grant Edition of the Vicksburg Citizen, Printed in 1863, in Mississippi - A Curiosity.

Mr. John Bortle, who recently purchased the cozy home on Maple Avenue, of Will Cray, is an old soldier, proud of his career as a soldier boy in the 69th, a G. A. R., of whom Birmingham may justly be proud. Among his war relics, curiosities and souvenirs the one he prizes the most is a copy of the Vicksburg (Miss.) Citizen, J. M. Swords, proprietor, printed on wall paper, July 1, 1863.

OUR BIG FAIR

Our Village is Almost Deserted - Everybody Enjoying the Grand Sights at the Show.

"Bryan Day" at the State Fair elicited all records of attendance, fully 135,000 persons obtaining admission to the grounds. Four cars a minute was the schedule adopted by the D. U. R. early in the day, and maintained up to the time the rush was over.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

BIRMINGHAM, Aug. 21, 1906. Special meeting called by the President, Special Johnson in the chair.

Whitehead moved, supported by Snow, that the walk on west side of Chester Street, from Maple Avenue to Martin Street, be cordoned, and that the Clerk be authorized to serve a legal notice on the owner of the same, advising the property of William Park, Carried.

SCHOOL TABLETS AND SUPPLIES

Whitehead & Mitchell, CHARLES J. SHAIN, Manager. Never in the history of this store has it held such an assortment of Tablets, Erasers, Pencils, Penholders, Inks, and all the other necessities to a full equipment for school.

Starving to Death

Because her stomach was so weakened by unwise drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair Street, Columbus, Ohio, was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was weak from unwise drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I was given no sleep and had to lie up to die."

How to Improve Your Complexion

Every one who wants a good healthy color, a ruddy glow and a clear skin should use the most effective and safe skin remedy that has ever been discovered. It is a simple, safe, and effective skin remedy that has ever been discovered.

Religion in the College

Men learn that religion is not a system of philosophy or a sacred society, but an impulse and an endeavor to make this present world a better place to live in. That which is the heart of the religious life of the American college. It beats true and in time with the heart of the Christian people.

A Midsummer Night's Dream

D. & B. Lake Trip is Refreshing and Interesting Like a Fairy's Legend. To float peacefully out on the bosom of Lake Erie, to be fanned by cool and breezy winds, to see the sun and stars in the eyes of the stars of life have lagged behind the delights enjoyed by travelers between Eastern and Western States who use the D. & B. daily line steamers.

A Long Wait

"What I'm waiting for," said Uncle Jerry Peabody, "is a chance to vote for a candidate that isn't the 'perfidious' and is just 'runnin'' 'em off on his own hook."

Monument to Kenton

A monument to the memory of Simon Kenton, pioneer Indian fighter, was unveiled at Old Town, 12 miles west of Springfield, O., in the presence of a large crowd. The monument is a work of huge boulders suitably engraved and inscribed with the name of the famous Indian captor.

Gave His Life for Boy

Crying to his companions, "Tie a rope around my neck," Henry Burns plunged into the water. He was saved by the life of a boy, and the boy was drowned. Not one of the spectators could swim a stroke and they saved helplessly at the struggling boy in the canoe. "I can't stand this," said Burns. "Tie a rope around my neck."

Kind Hearts

Write your name in kindness, love and mercy on the hearts of those who come in contact with you, and you will never be forgotten - Chalmers.

Wear Big Diamonds by Right

London supplies are those belonging to the duchess of Westminster, the countess of Dudley, and the duchess of Portland. It is eminently right and fitting that these lucky women should be the wives of three of the richest noblemen in the peerage.

Snake Dies of Appendicitis

Pete, the eight-foot, diamond-back rattlesnake of the Bronx Zoological park, died from the first case of appendicitis with which a reptile has ever been known to be afflicted. When his body was first cut open by Curator Raymond Ditmars the contents of a rabbit was found lodged in Pete's appendix.

Happy He Who Can

It is to live twice when you can see the recollection of your former life - Martial.
