

Rapid changes of temperature are hard on the toughest constitution.

The conductor passing from the heated inside of a trolley car to the icy temperature of the platform—the canvasser spending an hour or so in a heated building—and then walking against a biting wind—know the difficulty of avoiding cold.

Scott's Emulsion strengthens the body so that it can better withstand the danger of cold from changes of temperature.

It will help you to avoid taking cold.

B. F. D. No. 1

Little Irene Ellwood is on the gain, slow but sure.

Charles O. Parha made a business trip to Detroit on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lucy Churchill, of Chicago, is visiting Mrs. George McKinley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hunt spent holiday week with friends at Linden, Mich.

Mrs. Oscar Rogers is in Detroit caring for her mother, who is reported very ill.

Miss Mabel Baldwin returned on Saturday to her school duties at Elk Rapids, this State.

Miss Ruth Ellwood was compelled to leave her school last Monday by a severe attack of rheumatism.

Alexander Purdy and daughter Lucy were callers last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McClelland.

George Rush says that now the holidays are over, let us put forth every effort to make a good record for 1907.

A. M. Cannon and wife ate their first dinner of the year with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Henning. Of course everybody had a jolly time.

Mr. Lockman died at his home on Sunday evening, and was buried in Southfield Cemetery. A widow and one son survive.

Miss Margaret Young opened her school in the J. M. Diddow district on Monday. The scarlet-fever children are all in condition to attend.

Master Lawrence Sniley is out of school on account of sickness. However, he is improving and expects to resume his studies in a few days.

H. A. Miller presented the mail carrier with a nice big Plymouth Rock rooster for New Year's, and it was a dandy. Many thanks to H. A., your kindness will never be forgotten.

At the home of Wm. J. McClelland there was a grand big New Year's dinner and all of the children were home to enjoy it and all had a grand good time. Mr. and Mrs. Dave McClelland and son were there.

Mrs. George McKinley and son have returned home from a two-months visit with her sister, at Arcadia, Mich. They have now seen the North with its blankets of white snow and are very much pleased with the country.

While getting ready to kill a calf on Monday J. McKinley was kicked under the left eye, by the juvenile bovine, and temporarily put out of business. Nevertheless Dave says he is still in the ring and will die game.

Mrs. Oliver Beach has left the Simonson farm and is now living in her beautiful village of Birmingham, and she can give her daughter a good education before they start for the Philippines where Mr. Beach is employed by Uncle Sam and is also interested in a cocoa nut grove.

At the home of our friend, Wm. Mills, a family reunion and an old-fashioned Christmas reunion was held. It was a grand success and one that the family won't forget for years to come. The big Christmas tree was loaded with presents for one and all. The little folks were highly pleased. Everybody worked hard to make it a success and Santa Claus was Tom Jackson, a son-in-law of Mr. Mills. Everybody had presents galore.

The annual reunion of the Benjamin family was held at "Maple" on New Year's Day. Friends from Detroit and Pontiac helped in making this day a happy day indeed. The old homestead has seen this scene of many such gatherings, and the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren love to gather around the old fireplace and live over again the old times as "granma" and "pa" by experiences when she came as a bride to this same place 71 years ago. All her friends wish for many more such reunions in the future.

At the home of Viggar Spicer there was a family gathering and a most delightful day was enjoyed by all, with Grandpa, Hester, Sr., as hostmaster. The men of the present were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spicer, Miss Orpha Spicer, Mrs. Minnie O'Neal, and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stoll, and now comes the grandchildren, Gordon O'Neal, Henry, Erwin, Howard, Hazel, Dale, Lyle, Stella, Leonard, Grant, Clyde, Harold, Lillian, Esther, Henry, Leonard, Thelma, Viola and Doris, all little Spicers. The tale of Spi's can not be far away, hence the flavor, all Spicer's, Casper Case and Walter German were also present. Now come the presents. Everybody

SAND HILL

Died—The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lockerman.

Three of the children of Arley Jenks have just recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia.

The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Simmons is dangerously ill with pneumonia. Dr. Holcomb, of Sand Hill, is in attendance.

Mr. Clibe, of this place, dropped dead while eating supper Thursday night. He was 65 years old.

The father of Wm. and Gust Lockerman is dangerously ill and hope for his recovery is not entertained. His illness is due to old age. Mr. Lockerman moved here from Detroit five years ago and is a respected and well known citizen. He is 89 years of age.

Messrs. John Van Dyke and Bert Cole will be the lucky men to succeed Oliver Millard of this place. Mr. Millard has lived here 10 years and in this time by hard work has made himself able to retire. He has no parents in this country but has earned his fortune by actual labor and of this he is proud to tell. His many friends are glad to learn that he will take a rest for he certainly has earned it.

REDFORD

Thomas Roper and wife are visiting friends and relatives here.

The funeral of Gustav Lockerman, aged 88 years, 2 months and 29 days, was held here Thursday.

Sand Hill is no more. The name has been changed and hereafter the place will be known as Redford.

Master Harry Beckwith and Arthur Simmons are cutting off 12 acres of timber for Robert Churches.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now 11 years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight—170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at Whitehead & Mitchell's and Cobb & Cobb's drug stores, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.
