Grippe or Influenza, whichever you like to call it, is one of the most weakening diseases known.

Scott's Emulsion, which is Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites in easily digested form, is the greatest strength-builder known to medical science.

It is so easily digested that it sinks into the system, making new blood and new fat, and strengthening nerves and muscles.

Use Scott's Emulsion after Influenza.

Invaluable for Coughs and Colds.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.

Alexander McClelland was a business caller at Detroit last Friday.

Emma Conroy is again at school after entertaining the scarlet fever.

Miss Grace Jackson has been sick with a cold, but is on the gain.

F. M. Spicer on Saturday bought 12 fine steers. F. M. is always busy.

Mrs. M. E. Clark, of Troy, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bert Smiley, for a few weeks.

Ward Parks, on Long Lane Farm, is attending to his mother's wants, and to things in general.

R. J. Hagna, Jr., is one of the happiest men in Southfield. He now grinds his feed at home.

H. A. Miller's children are all on the gain now, after a two-weeks confinement with la grippe.

Margaret Young attended the teachers' institute at Pontiac last Saturday. A good meeting is reported.

The large wire sign of Dr. F. W. Young & Son, on Evangeline Farm, was blown down Saturday night.

Alexander Porteous and sons are busy hauling bolts and logs to Amy. Everybody works on Lone Oak Farm.

Dan Shaughnessy and wife and Chas. Algrim and son Carl attended the funeral of the former's aunt last Friday.

Mrs. Harry Russell is sick and under the care of Dr. Morrison. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Fred Hansen has just finished one of the many buildings he intends erecting. It is a double corn-crib, and a dandy a that.

F. M. Spicer has closed the year 1903 with success, and if 1907 continues as it has thus far it will prove a record-breaker.

Thomas Dickinson says now he won't have to work so hard, as he has a good hired man. Nevertheless Tom can't keep still.

E. L. Parson has just returned home from the East, where he has been the past two months looking over some of his mica mines.

Miss Dora Dickinson has retuned from a three-weeks trip to Ubley, Mich., where she has been visiting friends and having a good time.

Mrs. Oscar Rogers has returned home from Detroit, where she was called to take care of her mother, and reports the latter on the gain.

Last Saturday night's wind did some damage for George Rusch. Two barn doors were blown from their hinges and mashed into kindling.

Miss May Bingham, daughter of M. and Mrs. L. Bingham, is very sick with scarlet fever. A trained nurse, from Detroit, has been engaged.

William Mills & Son, who operate the Cooper farm, south of Birmingham, are very much pleased with the past year, it having been a prosperous one for them.

Uncle William Ellwood and his best man, Oscar Rogers, are more than picking up and sticking things about the old homestead. They make a hustling team.

James Sharp is kept busy cutting wood to fill the fiery maw of his furnace, but, he says he wouldn't be without one, even though he was to work to keep it going.

Laverne Blumberg is getting out a lot of logs and will have them sawed into lumber. He intends to build and fix up some of the old land marks the coming summer.

Robert Cromie is preparing to get up his summer's wood. He is a firm believer in doing his work early, and the appearance of his farm is ample evidence of his thrift.

Charles Shepherd has bought his summer's wood from the Northville Novelty Co. It's slab wood. This company has 15 to 20 men at work in the wood-lot, and will finish this week.

On account of sickness in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry St. phens the Willing Workers will not meet there next week, as had been planned. It is not known at this writing where the society will meet.

We won't say anything about George Rusch, only this: He looks happy and contented, enjoys three good square meals each day, and is able to perform all the labor necessary at this time of year about the dairy.

John H. Baldwin is keeping close to the stove this winter, as it is the first wigter that he can remember when—Well, owing to good help on his old farm he doesn't have to fret and fume, as that end will look after the business; so Uncle John bids fair to enjoy 100 years of ease and rest.

E. G. Tucker has the bulge on most of the farmers in the way of cutting corn stalks. He has an outfit of his own, and cuts his stalks when he wants to. It is operated with an old-fashioned Sweep-stake horse-power, and the way Mark makes the horses go is a caution.

The Best Laxative for Children.
Parents should see to it that their children have one natural, easy movement of the bowels each day. Do not dose the child with salts or griping pills, as they are too powerful in effect, and literally tear their little insides to pieces, leaving the bowels weakened and less able to act naturally than before. Laxative Iron-ox Tablets tone and strengthen the bowels, and stimulate all the little organs to healthy activity. Chocolate coated tablets, easy to take, never gripe or nauseate. 10c, 25c and $1.00.

In the fourth and fifth-grade spelling contest of a week ago, William Parr proved his ability by spelling down the class.

Helen Bowers, of the second grade, is home entertaining mumps. We hope this is their farewell visit among our pupils.

Maude Rogers stands highest in the fourth grade spelling class. She has 11 stars and has spelled her class down twice this year.

James Wilson, a member of the 10th grade, went home from school sick last Thursday afternoon. He came back Monday afternoon.

Flora Marshall takes the lead in the fifth-grade spelling class. She has nine stars in the roll of honor, each star representing five perfect lessons.

Now that the cold weather has set in and it's almost impossible to enjoy ourselves out of doors, a number of young people get together and tell stories during noon hours.

A debate was held in the high school room, on a recent afternoon: "Resolved, That women are less brave than the men." The question was decided in favor of the negative.

Prevent Colds and Rheumatism.
If you do not have one natural, easy movement of the bowels each day, you are unconsciously poisoning your system to colds and rheumatism. Laxative Iron-ox Tablets tone and strengthen the bowels, so that they do the work nature intended.

TROY

Kenneth Nichols visited his grandma, Jarvis over Sabbath.

Miss Jennie Dusenbury sang a solo at Friday evening's meeting at the church.

The Troy Farmers' Club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Houghton on February 2nd.

AT THE THEATRES.

LYCEUM.

The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

The offering at the Lyceum for one week, commencing next Sunday afternoon, will be the popular Irish singing comedian, Andrew Mack, in a repertoire of popular Irish plays. On Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, he will offer a sumptous revival of the great play, "Arrah-Na-Pogue", a typical drama of old Ireland written some thirty-six years year ago by the late Dion Boucic ult; and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday will present that beautiful and romantic Irish comedy-drama, "Tom Moore." As Shuan the Post in the former, and Tom Moore in the latter Mr. Mack will be seen to advantage, and he plays both characters with a grace and charm that have firmly established him as the leading actor of his class now on the American stage. The Company supporting Mr. Mack is one of the strongest ever seen in an Irish drama and interpretation shows a careful study of the character in hand.

WHITNEY.

The offering all next week, at the Whitney, commencing Sunday afternoon will be A. H. Woods big production of the racing melodrama, "Ruled off the Tu f." As the title would indicate the play deals principally with race track incidents, and tells of the trials and adventures of an American jockey, who, in striving to remain honest, incurs the enmity of a scoundrel, who, in revenge, causes him to lose his license. The boy, a plucky little fellow, sets himself on the villian's track and after many dangers and almost death itself succeeds in catching the rascal "with the goods" trying to tamper with Fire Fly, a favorite horse in the suburban, and brings him to justice, which of course establishes his innocence in the previous deal and once more installs him among the list of jockeys.

The engagement is for one week with matinees daily except on Wednesday.

GAYETY.

At the new Gayety Theatre, corner of Lafayette Ave., and Shelby street, opposite the post office buil ling. Detroit, for the coming week, will be offered the following attraction. Wrestling on Friday night. Amateurs Thursday. Bargain matinees; seats, 15 and 25 cts.

The Gay Morning Glories Burlesquers and the Hungarian Boys' Band, the latter comprising 35 pieces —will be the double attraction, for the week of Jan. 27th. The Hungarian Boys' Band is one of the most popular foreign musical organizations now touring the U. S. The Morning Glories present two lively burlettas, a nautical musical comedy, "The Three Admirals," and a rollicking sketch entitled, "A Night in Japan." Both skits are of the bright and pleasing kind and admit of room for the introduction of talking specialties by the dozen comedians, and both male and female and the chorus of 40 shapely girls in a series of medleys, dances and marches.

An Insidious Disease.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease, and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble, as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. All druggists.

At His Service.

"Hit!" shouted the rich man, peering cautiously over the stairway. "I want you!"

"Well," chuckled the burglar, reaching for the silver, "I'm at your service, sir!"

THE FEELING WAS MUTUAL.

Mr. Knagge was putting on his coat, preparatory to going to business, when there came a ring at the front door bell. He opened the door. A canvasser stood outside.

"I beg your pardon," said the canvasser, "but I like to show you a sample of our improved talking-machine."

"I don't think I care to see it," replied Mr. Knagge.

"You are not interested in talking-machines, perhaps," ventured the other.

"I can't say that, either. But I have one already. Talks all day. Never needs winding up, and never runs down."

At this moment a high-pitched voice came floating downstairs.

"It isn't so!" exclaimed the person with the high-pitched voice. "But I've got a growling-machine that runs whenever it's in this house!"
