"Go to father," she said, when I asked her to wed.
And she knew that I knew that her father was dead;
And she knew that I knew what a life he had led;
And she knew that I knew what she meant when she said:
"GO TO FATHER!"

The young men of Birmingham will give their second dance of the season to-night, (Friday) at the Johnston-Shaw hall. Music by Finney's orchestra.

A line from John R. Nye all the way from Telluride, Colo., tells us of his continued success in the cigar business. He is happy, healthy and has the best job he ever had.

George F. Ball, who died recently at Midland at the age of 93 years, was one of the pioneer stage coach drivers for this county. He drove the first stage from Oxford to Lapeer 75 years ago.

Pontiac is a great place for branching out. Monroe, the body-works man, is running a branch at Jackson, as is also D. I. Oliver, of the Pontiac Steam Laundry, and now Harry Coleman, of the Press-Gazette, assisted by Stuart Perry, is to run a branch at Adrian, having purchased the Telegram plant at that place.

Good things come high but some things come higher. According to the apportionment for the current year, Oakland county's state tax will be just $31,595.04 more than last year, an increase of about one-third. When settling with the treasurer, look pleasant and remark that the Michigan peach crop was a failure this year.

Mrs. W. T. McClelland and daughter, Miss Annie, of Fremont street, started Wednesday of this week for New York and sail on Saturday on the Steamer Kaiserin Louisa, of the Hamburger line, for Leipsic, and a visit of three months or more with friends and relatives in Saxony. It has been 26 years since Mrs. McClelland has been to her former home and she is anticipating a fine visit.

There will be a shadow social in John Donaldson's new barn, Friday evening, Oct. 4th. Conveyances will be at the postoffice at 7:30 local time.

There will be a regular meeting of Birmingham lodge No. 149, K. of P., Monday night, Oct. 7th, at 7:30. Every member is requested to be present.

Two frosty nights last week put vegetation out of business. Even corn received its scorching and many farmers have begun to harvest their corn crops.

Miss Edna Ford, daughter of Charles Ford, of Troy, and Roy Hawthorne, son of Samuel Hawthorne, of the same township, were married at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday evening of last week. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hawthorne are popular young people here, where they have hosts of friends. They will be at home to their friends in Troy after November 1st. Presents were received from their many friends in great numbers and of more than the ordinary value.

The fair at Redford was another success. Bad weather interfered with its usual brilliancy but our visit there the last day showed up great. The races were on, the grand stand packed, and all over the grounds the exhibitions, merry-go-rounds, Aunt Sally, etc., were all doing a thriving business. The flowers, fancy needle-work and vegetables were more than anyone would expect to see. The stock show was good, hogs, sheep and cattle being numerous. Altogether the managers gave a good big show for the money. Many Birmingham people took in the sights.

The Detroit Journal of a recent date says: The Episcopal church at Birmingham and missions at Royal Oak, Rochester and Romeo are to have a new rector, who is leaving the Congregational for the Episcopalian church. Rev. L. W. Snell, who is to take the charges, was rector of the Congregational church at Tuckahoe, N. Y., and will be received into orders in the Episcopal church by Bishop Potter of New York, Sunday. Mr. Snell is a personal friend of Rev. William F. Faber, rector of St. John's church, by whom he was recommended to Bishop Williams. He is an energetic worker and has some reputation as an author.

William C. Stacy, of Detroit, has started suit in the chancery court against Benjamin J. Wynneparry and Rilla A. Wynneparry, of Royal Oak, to recover a judgment of $204.25 and costs that was given Stacy in Justice Linabury's court some time ago. The bill of complaint states that Stacy secured such a judgment against Rilla A. Wynneparry and Estelle G. Holton and that it was placed in the hands of the sheriff for execution. It appears, from the bill of complaint, that these two people conveyed the property to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Allor, of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Allor, in turn, deeded it back to Benjamin J. Wynneparry and Rilla, the bill says, so the sheriff was unable to make an execution.

Two ladies were talking the other day and in some way the telephone subject came under discussion. They both had "party-line" telephones. One of the ladies was telling about how mean somebody in her neighborhood was. To use her own language, the somebody would "talk to some other fool for half an hour and never say anything either, and there I would be nearly wild wanting to order things for dinner or tell Tom what I wanted him to fetch home. Are you bothered that way?" The other replied: I used to be, but am not any more. A friend of mine who is connected with the service, told me how to put on a choker and I will tell you. You may have noticed those two metal knobs at the top of the instrument. Well, they are there whether you have noticed them or not. Now, when somebody has used the line about twice as long as they ought to, I just lay a key or a short piece of wire across those two knobs. Then, in a minute or two, I take off my short circuit and can get central all right. I used to feel as if I wanted to say bad words, but now I let the gossips feel that way." The hint was thankfully received by the one to whom it was given, and perhaps others will be thankful too.

Walled Lake Baptists will spend $150 in repairs on their church.

Visitors at the home of Prof. and Mrs. A. E. Bellis, and having a good time too, are Mr. and Mrs. Wanty, of Muskegon. Mr. Wanty is a brother of the late Judge Wanty, of Grand Rapids.

The many friends of Pinder Worth will be glad to know that he is able to be about the house once again. His recent illness was quite severe but we trust that he will soon regain his former health.

John Felder and F. Sherman take notice—and all the rest of our brick-layers: By laying 37,000 bricks in one day, Cornelius O'Neal, the champion brick layer of Illinois, has broken his own record.

Mrs. A. E. Andrus, of Detroit, will speak at the Baptist church next Sunday evening, Oct. 6th. Subject, "Temperance Cause." Speaking will begin at the regular hour for evening service, at 7 o'clock.

H. Babcock has bought out the milk route of Charles Parks, and is now delivering the lacteal fluid to a delighted lot of customers. He has a big delivery, likes the business and will succeed no doubt.

Hereafter it will cost any motorman or conductor not less than $10 nor more than $50 every time he runs his car through the streets of Oxford at a speed more than half as fast as the average auto driver on country roads.

The Holiday House at Pine Lake has been closed and everything put in shape for the winter. Owing to the fact that so much remodeling was done the past season, it is expected that the house will be opened a few days earlier next spring.

Happiness reigns turoughout the family of Frank Eno, of Milford, and the house of Davenport, Birmingham, over the safe arrival of a bouncing boy September 27th. Grandpa Jim has braced up wonderfully and all are very happy indeed.

Do not forget Mark Hall's big auction sale of his entire herd of milch cows, on Saturday, October 5th, at 1 o'clock p. m. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer, will sell over 20 of as fine milkers as you ever looked at; also calves, a bull and a pair of chestnut mules. Don't forget the date. It's close by.

We are pleased to announce the fall advertisement of that reliable house, Taylor-Woolfenden Co. who start in with an advt. of seasonable goods this week. We give you the following tip. This firm has reduced its entire stock of 12½ cent ladies linen hemstitched handkerchiefs, to ten cents apiece.

D. B. Wilkinson, proprietor of the Plumbing, Heating and Sheet Metal Works, has removed his shop and office from the Poppleton building to the shop lately occupied by J. Jones' Motor Works. He has a fine location and enjoys a constantly increasing patronage due to careful and satisfactory work.

For the first time in 23 years four sisters and one brother met last week at the home of Mrs. L. L. Houghton, just west of the school house, for a grand good visit and one that was enjoyed by all. Tongues flew fast and a royal dinner was served. The happy quartette was William Morgan of Saginaw, Mrs. H. J. Bowers of Clawson, Mrs. Sarah P. Carter and their hostess, Mrs. L. L. Houghton, of our village.

Next Tuesday the opening of what Birmingham has long needed, will take place. We refer to the new bakery. Everything will be home baked. Come to this opening. You dear reader, are most cordially invited and tell your friends to come also. We would like to have every house-keeper see our fine toothsome and delicious display of bread cakes, jelly rolls, angel food, pies and doughnuts. Everything for the table in our line. Prices right too. Everything is new. New firm, new goods, and independent of and from any other business in Birmingham. Yours for good living, Levanseler & Warner, Erity's block.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burtraw, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. George Dawson were in attendance Friday evening at the installation of officers of Wayne Chapter O. E. S., of Detroit. The hall was tastefully trimmed and everything well carried out. Mrs. Lowe, retiring Matron, was presented with a beautiful Past Matron's jewel from the Chapter, and from her past officers a large bouquet of flowers. Mrs. Carsons, the newly installed Matron, is also a Past Matron and is a sister of Mrs. Charles Todd, of this place. She was the recipient of a bouquet of carnations from the Birmingham visitors present. A short program was rendered and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing.

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes. 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This produces constipation. Poisonous substances are then absorbed into the blood. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommended and sold.
