

The End of Her Waiting

By Emma Howard Wight

(Copyright, by Joseph B. Bowles.)

I was a girl of 15 when I first came to live in Barclay street...

Sitting at the parlor window a great deal, I soon became very much interested in my opposite neighbor.

After a little while I spent a great deal of my time with Miss Molly, and my life was no longer dull and lonely.

A Moment Later the Door Was Thrown Open.

As she turned her face towards me I saw it was white and stained from long and bitter waiting.

"My parents were well-to-do people of the middle-class, and I was their only child for ten years, and then my little brother was born."

"I will not linger over the years that passed until Robert reached his twenty-first year."

"Puzzle—What Did He Find?" She had just returned from Europe, and had been met at the pier by a New York friend who was bearing her off to the seashore.

HOME-MADE REMEDY

"What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from the New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, as formulated by a noted authority, who claims to have tried his remedy with success.

NO NEED FOR WORDS.

Brief Pantomime Told Everything to the Onlooker.

Harrison Gray Blake discussed, at a dinner in New York, the art of acting. "I believe," said Mr. Blake, "in subtlety and restraint. A nod, a shake of the head, a silent pause—these things are often more effective than the most violent rolling and ranting."

FURIOUS HUMOR ON CHILD.

Itching, Bleeding Sores Covered Body—Nothing Helped Her—Cura Cura Cures Her in Five Days.

"After my granddaughter of about seven years had been cured of her itching and bleeding sores, I was informed that she had been cured by the Cura Cura.

First Aid.

A Washington doctor was recently called to attend to a young woman formerly in the service of his wife. In great agitation the daisy advised the physician that her youngest child was being held in a "strait jacket."

Annoying. "I suppose your family had a good time during the holidays."

"Well," answered Mr. Cumrox, "I don't think mother and the girls enjoyed themselves all the time. You see, they had to go through the foreign money back into dollars every now and then they were embarrassed by finding they had accidentally received something that wasn't expensive."

Women Avoid Operations.

When a woman suffering from female troubles is told that operation is necessary, it is, of course, frightful news.

"I'll be there in a short while to see her," said the Medic. "In the mean time have you done anything for her?"
