Enormous Flood of American Gold Goes with Title Hunters

TOTAL IS SAID TO REACH $900,000,000

New York World Thinks That If Anything, the Amount Is Underestimated—Alphabetical List of Wealthy Heiresses of This Country Who Have Married Holders of Foreign Titles.

BY HENRY CLEWS.

"I think that the statement that $900,000,000 of wealth has been taken out of this country—or, at least, that the ownership of this vast amount of assets has been transferred to aliens—by the marriage of American girls with foreigners is conservative. Undoubtedly the withdrawal of such an enormous sum has an appreciable effect upon the money market.

"The policy of Americans who have Europamania is extremely costly to this country. Our tourists spend at least $150,000,000 of good American money abroad every year—most of it foolishly.

"I am glad to say that American girls are beginning to realize that nothing but unhappiness comes from the majority of these international marriages—though, of course, there are exceptions. They are beginning to prefer American sovereigns to European princelings."

New York.—A French journal—Le Petit Parisien—declared the other day that American girls who had married abroad, mostly for foreign titles, had carried with them to Europe the astonishing sum of $900,000,000. The Paris writer did not associate this rather startling statement with the reports of "tight money" in America, yet on this side of the Atlantic the fact that hundreds of millions have gone out of the country with the title hunters may well occasion a little financial as well as social speculation.

Upward of 400 American girls have married in Europe within comparatively recent years. The New York Sunday World, prints the present names of 259 American women who have married titles. It adds a list of 22 heiresses who have carried off sums reputed to be upward of a million. This list alone foots up $160,000,000. Undoubtedly upward of $300,000,000 has been paid for titles alone, for the dowries have by no means represented all that went with the brides. In some cases the actual dower was small in comparison with the money that was subsequently spent by them. It has been estimated that the Dowager Duchess of Marlborough, for example, spent $1,000,000 on repairing Blenheim castle; it is known that many of the Huntington and Mackay millions have been spent in paying the debts of Princes Hatzfeldt and Colonna. How many millions it cost Levi P. Morton to have a title for his son-in-law, and then to get rid of him, probably only the former vice-president could tell. What Count Boni de Castellane cost Anna Gould, all told, is known only to her brother, George.

Running over the list of rich American girls who have married titles it is notable that there is scarcely one famous American family which has not contributed a share of its fortune to gilding some coronet. Astor, Bryant, Bronson, Beresford, Beckwith, Bonaparte, Burden, Butterfield, Carroll, Caldwell, Curtis, Cutting, Carlisle, Cary, Corbin, Colgate, Cuyler, Clayton, Claflin, Davis, Endicott, Field, Flagler, Grant, Goelet, Gould, Garner, Grace, Garrison Gallatin, Goddard Huntington, Hecker, Haggin, Hoffman, Hamilton, Hale, Hyde, Jerome, Jay, King, Lathrop, Leiter, Lawrence, Lee, Livermore, Livingston, Moulton, Motley, Morton, Martin, Magee, Phipps, Phelps, Parsons, Roosevelt, Roberts, Riggs, Rives, Sturgis, Slocum, Stokes, Sibley, Schley, Singer, Sharon, Spencer, Stevens, Sumner, Schenck, Thaw, Turnure, Van Cortlandt, Van Buren, Vanderbilt, Winans, Work, Withers, Whitney, Wilson, Wadsworth, Whitehouse, Yznaga, Zimmerman—the list reads like a social register, the names are synonymous with vast fortunes.

Dry Rot in Men.

The first strong external revelation of the dry rot in men is a tendency to lurk and lounge; to be at street corners without intelligible reason; to be going anywhere when met; to be about many places rather than at any; to do nothing tangible, but to have an intention of performing a variety of intangible duties tomorrow or the day after. When the manifestation of the disease is observed, the observer will usually connect it with a vague impression once formed or received that the patient was living a little too hard. He will scarcely have had leisure to turn it over in his mind and form the terrible suspicion "dry rot" when he will notice a change for the worse in the patient's appearance—a certain slovenliness and deterioration which is not poverty nor dirt nor intoxication nor ill-health, but simply "dry rot."—Roanoke Times.

COULD NOT ESCAPE THE DUTY.

American Traveler Unable to Circumvent German Officials.

Germany is jealous of the foreign candymaker and exacts a rigorous toll upon anything in the shape of confectionery that comes across its borders. Ignorant of this, one of Uncle Sam's sons in the course of the summer just past disembarked from a liner at a German port carrying in his hand a five-pound box of candy bearing a New York trademark. At sight of the box the Teutonic customs official exhibited marked activity and prepared to seize upon it, declaring that it must be weighed and examined for the purpose of computing a duty payment.

"Not for mine," said the American. "I won't give up a sou. I'd rather eat the stuff here and now." He opened the box and commenced to dispose of its contents without delay. Everybody in sight was offered a handful. Nobody declined except the customs officer, who said blandly that he had not a sweet tooth. The traveler himself ate many pieces. It was not long before the last bit had been eaten.

As soon as the box was empty the official seized the traveler by the arm. "The gentleman," he announced, "will accompany me to the bureau, where we'll make out his bill for duty. Come, it is at the other end of the dock."

"Never," said the American. "You have no right to charge me duty. I didn't bring it in. I'll see my consul right away and he'll send a big fleet and bombard this blooming town."

"Softly," said the officer. "You'll pay duty all right. There are 15 witnesses to prove that that candy of yours was consumed on German soil."

The duty was paid and the consul has not as yet been consulted.

Single Blessing.

Pearl—"They say blessings never come singly." Ruby—"Yes, but blessings come single sometimes." Pearl—"Singles? What do you mean?" Ruby—"Why, Belle captured an old bachelor worth a cool million. He was a single blessing, wasn't he?"

WANDERINGS OF POSTAL CARD.

Had Gone Through Four Countries Before Delivery.

"Here is a postal card with a story," said a young New Yorker to a bunch of chums in one of the cobweb dining houses over in old Greenwich. "About the middle of last summer I said good-by to the chap whose chirography is on this card.

"The imprint on one end of this card shows that it was made in Germany. To this information you will see is added the words, in print, 'Sold in Honolulu.' On the other side of the card is a colored picture of the Bay of Honolulu.

"Here in the proper place is a United States postage stamp. The postmark is Yokohama. And here, just over the superscription, is the stamp of the steamer which brought it across the Pacific.

"The name of the steamer shows that she carries the French flag. There it is, if you know anything about French you know what I say is so.

"From Berlin across the Atlantic, maybe it was by way of Suez, but if the first is true, then across the continent to Honolulu; then to Japan, back again across the Pacific, and then again across the continent from Frisco to New York. From Japan to the metropolis for two cents, United States postage.

"And it's as fresh as a daisy. That isn't all. You all know Slimthy Jim, as we called the infinitesimal runt that caused more trouble at Cornell than a grasshopper under a lawn shirt waist.

"Well, I met the runt recently and when he got his second wind he said he had met the man whose name is written here, in Yokohama, and that he told him he had just mailed this card to me. It came over with the runt on the French steamer. The mail puts the runt out of the Ananias class where I had pegged him. Garcon! Get busy."

A Drawback.

The principal trouble about letting well enough alone is that it you do it won't stay that way.

Real Estate Exchange

OF WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL

Exchange Bank, Birmingham, Mich.

The following is a partial list of Farms, City and Village Lots, and Real Estate generally which we have for sale. As our list is constantly changing, we request that parties will write us if they do not see what they want in this list.

Five acres and 4 good buildings, making a nice little home within the Village of Southfield. Stores, school, church, etc., within 200 rods. The buildings cost more to build than the price asked for the place, and are well worth looking at. Only $1,000, and $250 cash will take care of it, and the balance you can pay at your leisure.

Fine home with good barn on Townsend Street. Good 2-story house, plenty of fruit, beautiful maple lawn on south side makes it a shady, restful residence. Would cost $2,500 to build the house alone, and $2,300 will buy it if you take it right off the bat. Owner is leaving town, and that's the reason.

211

Just an acre of land. Does not read much, but was a popular some years ago, entitled "One Acre Enough." No? Well, you ought to, it's worth while.) There's a house on this acre. Good house with 4 rooms, and 2 closets. Possession given any time before April 1, and $225 gets it if you come early.

212

The premises formerly owned and occupied by Jacob Ide, Esq., Gibbs St., Troy township of Troy. House and some small buildings on the south side of the road, with barns and all other necessaries. The land is 20 acres of land and can be bought separate if desired. Several fine acres on the north side of the road, with barns and all other necessary buildings. Location exceptionally fine; ½ mile from electric line—Flint Division D. U. R. After you have looked at the 5 acres and the 20 acres, the price we ask would seem to be cheap, but is about $40 per acre. Take out to see it any time.

213

Fine little farm of about 75 acres in Royal Oak, on the line of the Rochester Electric, 2 miles north of Royal Oak; fare to Detroit 15c; good cellar; well 120 feet deep; good pure water; 1-acre bearing apple orchard; 3 acres timber; 2 acres pasture, and $4,000 will buy it, subject to a small mortgage, which can run two years if desired. Will exchange for improved Detroit city property.

215

Decidedly the prettiest lake farm in this county of lakes. Situated on Pine Lake, noted for its excellent fishing, 4 miles west of Birmingham; 12 rods from lake with fine view; 2 buildings; 2 acres barns; fences in good shape; 2 acres of young orchard; the rest is in peaches, and 4 acres apple orchard, which bore 700 bushels of marketable apples the past year. One mile north of Franklin. Daily mail and telephone at the house. Abundance of pure water pumped by windmill and piped to house and other buildings. Only 80 acres and the price is $7,000; if you will let us take you to see it and you buy it isn't the worst thing that can happen you for a ride on the lake, each you a nice string of fish for supper, and you'll have a time you'll be to you any day—any time.

217

Farm of 80 acres on Section 1, Troy; 6 buildings, 4 acres beech and maple timber, 76 acres cleared, 2 acres orchard; 2½ miles from Rochester line D. U. R.; 4 miles from Detroit, and that's only a trifle over $30 per acre. $1,000 cash will buy it, and the balance you can pay on terms to suit yourself. Seems as if that ought to interest almost any body.

219

Tidy little place for some one with moderate means. Corner Chestnut and Palm, Campbell Addition. Lot worth at least $500 and the house is insured for $1,240; that's $1,700, and prices are rapidly rising all along the lines in that location. If you come right away we will consider an offer of $1,500, and if that is too high after we have shown you over the premises, we will introduce you to the owner, and you can make your own terms. That's fair.

220

An acre and a quarter right on the west side of Woodward Avenue, just north of the village limits on the electric line. Without exception the finest little home in the village. Just the place for chickens and a cow if you want it. Nice little 2-story cottage and 1-story wing, making 6 rooms in all. Good barn, best well in town, plenty fruit of all kinds. Buildings are insured for $1,200, and the place can be bought for $2,800. Confidentially, this is one of the best bargains on our list. Let's look it over and talk it over together. Any time.

221

Fine house and two and one-half lots on Davis Street, Brownell's Sub-Division. Hot and cold water, furnace, water-closet—everything! Also vacant corner of Davis and Maple Avenue, just east of the Presbyterian Church. Will sell the whole business, or the different parcels separately. Prices very reasonable. Ask the man at the bank.

222

Two-story tenement or terrace, on the east side of Woodward Avenue. Two distinct 2-story houses of 5 rooms each. Furnace, water-closet, bath, hot and cold water, and gas; each house has a number of other apartments. Rents for $12 per month each. Forty dollars per year will keep all in repair, and insurance. Good barn on the premises, and the lot is 70 feet front on the best frontage on Woodward, and 165 feet deep; room for a dwelling; can live in one apartment and have a steady income from the other. This is something to consider over. Come and let us help you ponder. Always at your service. If you can't call, write.

223

For sale or exchange—Brooks Farm, 174 miles from Birmingham; 80 acres; the best stock and grain farm in Oakland county; no waste land; 10-room house; horse barn, and box stalls for 12 horses; grain and cattle barn, stable for 20 head cattle; box stalls for 100 head; corn crib and elevator; 2 wells and never-failing spring; 2 roads; 4 good flowing wells; 2 miles from Birmingham. Apply at farm, or Exchange Bank, Birmingham.

226

Forty-acre farm on Section 7, Troy; 8 acres timber, 4 acres orchard, 5 buildings (which are worth $1,000); 8-room house, good cellar, well and windmill; water piped to house and barn; 1 mile new wire fence with cedar posts; 2 acres strawberries, which will realize $400 per acre; 400 peaches, 100 plums, 100 pears and—$3,000 will buy it. Good little farm, level and clear, 2½ miles from Rochester line, and 2 miles north of the Pontiac line.

227

Five acres just outside of the corporation limits of Birmingham, about 18 rods from frontage on Woodward Avenue, on the Pontiac electric line; one stops in front of the place. Fine soil; rich sandy loam; creek (branch of the River Rouge) crossing the back end of the premises. Finest location in the county for a nice little chicken farm. No buildings, but can be bought cheap enough so that you can build to suit yourself and have most of the fine timber left. Only a few rods away is the Bloomfield Hills district. Postal card request will bring you further particulars. Rather show it to you, though.

228

Fine stock farm in the Township of Troy; 230 acres, on a good road; 4 miles from Birmingham; 3 buildings; good house and six other buildings, all worth $12,000; 4 wells and never-failing water; 2 miles of fine timber; 2 acres of orchard. Quite mile from the Rochester line of the D. U. R.; 2 acres good beech and maple timber, plenty of land for small fruit; buildings are insured for $3,300. Terms easy and price $85 per acre. Seems as if that would interest someone. Now is the time of buying such a farm as this. Take you out to see it any day.

229

A pleasant and sightly farm of 71 acres in West Bloomfield, ½ mile from the North-western electric; 8 acres orchard, 4 acres good timber, 5 buildings worth $3,000, and the price is $6,000—and it is worth it; 6 rod sandy loam and clay loam; under high state of cultivation. Better investigate.

230

Seventy-one acre farm in Township of Troy; good buildings, well fenced and tiled; well watered; branch of River Rouge runs through the farm—never dry; ½ mile from good school; fine 2-story house, basement barn 32x60, other barns 30x80, two good wells, and $5,000 will buy it. Cheap enough to amply secure will take it. One of the most desirable farms in the Township of Troy, and that's one of the best towns in Oakland county, as you well know. Now! Well, we'll prove it to you if you'll let us.

231

Two-story, 7-room house in good repair; well cistern, cellar, fruit, etc. House would cost more than $3,000 to build, and that's all we ask for it. Opposite school house, between Merritt and Marietta, on Chester Street. Terms easy.

232

Farm of 27½ acres, just outside the Village of Birmingham, on the D. & P. electric line; 15c fare to Detroit; 5 minutes' walk; land all cleared; two acres; four buildings, all in fair repair. Best open location between Detroit and Pontiac.

233

Farm of 107 acres, one hour's ride from City Hall on Jefferson Avenue; 1,000 feet on Lake St. Clair; 7 acres of apple orchard; splendid buildings. The price is very low.

234

Farm of 77 acres, 60 rods from D. & P. electric line; all cleared; good buildings; 10c fare to Detroit. This farm can be purchased very cheap.

235

Farm of 20 acres—will exchange for Detroit property; 5 acres of mixed orchard; buildings are fine as any in the county, as an exclusive residence; 2 miles from Interurban; on account of limited means I will sell this place at a bargain. Price asked, $6,000 cash, or better yet—sell.
