Nice fall weather at a writing. Mr. A. Whithead, of this city, while in Detroit, James W. Cobb and J. H. Reynolds saw the great Pennsylv-Mich. game of football at Ann Arbor last Saturday.

ATTENTION! R. A. M., No. 93. Special Convocation of Birmingham Chapter No. 33, on Monday evening, Nov. 23rd. Work in the P. & M. E. J. ALLEN, BIGELOW, SECRETARY.

Notice to our Patrons! We will be closed all day Thursday, Nov. 23rd, Thanksgiving Day. No business will be transacted of any kind or nature on that day. S. H. BROWN & HAGERMAN, The Gregg Hardware Co., 410 Cadillac Square, Detroit, would like an opportunity to furnish prices on hardware to persons contemplating building. They feel confident that can save you money. Read their new advt.

Attention! This carefully and thoughtfully! A woman gave ground on which the first free school in America is located. Women held the first meeting to protest against the infamous Stamp Act. A woman gave America her flag, and her battle hymn, but yet, America classed her women along with idiots, lunatics, paupers and felons.

Over fifty ladies of the L. O. T. M., of Pontiac, were royally entertained by the members of the Birmingham Hives last week Thursday afternoon and evening. The ladies arrived late in the afternoon, and were served a delightful supper and hospitably entertained all through the evening. The Birmingham ladies prepared a fine menu of dishes which they gave, following that the evening was devoted to cards.

Here is an auction sale coming, worth going to. On Monday, Nov. 25th, Mr. H. B. Hinton, auctioneer, will sell out Messrs. R. W. Barton & Son, on the premises known as the McAllister farm three and one-half miles south of Birmingham, on Woodward Ave., at ten o'clock a. m. There will be sold horses, cows, farming implements, harnesses and everything used on this farm. All machinery used less than two years. See advt. in this paper and big bills.

The Ladies Missionary Society, of the First Presbyterian church, which met at the home of Mrs. George Mitchell last Wednesday afternoon, was exceedingly entertained, and the usual pleasant time, enjoyed by all. After the usual business meeting the members listened to a talk on the "Mission School of New Mexico" and the mission work in general, by Mrs. Dr. Pence, of the First Street Presbyterian church, Detroit, which was very appreciated by all.

Word from the deer hunters in the far north, comes to us of the real good times the entire party are having. No accidents have occurred to men, women, sport, and game is plenty and abundant. Pinder Worth killed the first deer; Web, Bray has two down, and they do say that one of the Purdy Boys, has killed the largest deer of the season as yet; it weighs over 200 pounds. Pontiac hunters have got Teddy beaten to a finish, as they have already killed a big black bear.

What do you think? After telling of all the Birmingham men, who worked on Mitchell's Brown street job, and the Birmingham material that went into it, we forgot entirely to mention, the most important man of the whole job. We refer to Irving H. Wilson, the plasterer, who finished in his job, a little over 1400 yards in his his superb manner. This is not all at all; many means; he plastered all the other houses mentioned, every one of them except Mr. A. E. Bunting's, and all are pleased with his work.

Mr. Chevalier of the Detroit Scenery Company, at his Studio, says that what he hears from auto people who see his place in print; ever since the bridge at the power-house has been torn up and the travel has been diverted around Harmon and Willetts streets. When one of those big limousines, on a soft day, gets stalled near by, he don't have to leave his work and go to the window to hear what the travelers, from the Chiffonier up to the multi-millionaire owner of the machine think of Birmingham and her bridges. Brother Chevalier says, "he'd be arrested if he repeated the remarks."

Miss Tillie Finn, of Detroit, was the guest of Miss Jennie Purdy last week. Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Klump, of Detroit, were the guests of Miss Lucy Ward recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence McHugh are now pleasantly located in Royal Oak, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. T. A. Ward has returned home after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Schmuck, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Our old friend Frank Young is a very sick man with pneumonia. Pears is entertained, that he will not soon recover.

Word from Ellis Platt, announces his good health, and that he is still working his way westward, headed for Los Angeles, California.

The Massachusetts State Federation of Labor, at its recent annual meeting passed a resolution in favor of woman's suffrage.

We are pleased to hear of the continued improvement of Mrs. M. Estella Hemmery and her family to announce her complete recovery.

Melvin Deere spent several days last week in Ann Arbor as the guest of his brother, George, and took in the Michigan-Pennsylvania football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smith, of Trenton, were guests of Mrs. M. Estella Hemmery and her family, last week Thursday, and George cooked the dinner.

Miss Charlotte Blanding and Miss Grace McBride and the Messrs Knox Popperton and Earle Jenks enjoyed the Michigan-Pennsylvania game last Saturday.

The Public Library question having been disposed of in a satisfactory manner, we will not make a united effort for that sewer system? What say you gentlemen who shouted "Sewers!" last spring?

Our old time friend, Mr. William Satterlee, of Town Line fame, is quite ill at Harper hospital, Detroit, where he is suffering from an operation. We hope soon to see him home, completely restored to health.

"Doc" Bray who was recently brought home from Wyandotte very ill with typhoid fever is getting better every day. The trained nurse has returned to the city and he is being cared for by his mother.

The thanks of our people are due to Miss Grace Cooper for her yearly subscription to the "Nation", a weekly one of the best papers published in this country. You will find it on the reading table at the Public Library.

The front end of Charles J. Shain's drug store is in a state of disrepair. Whitehead & Mitchell, will, by the aid of Walter C. Smith, have in place of the old style front, a modern storefront, much to the delight of the lessee Chas. J. Shain.

To those department stores tell you that if their goods are not satisfactory you can return them. Sure! But you have to pay express or freight both ways and you decide to keep them. If your home merchants' goods are not satisfactory, you can take them back and it costs you nothing.

Miss Olive Dennison has resigned her position at this office and accompanies Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson to Albuquerque, New Mexico. She will remain in this office until longer. Miss Ethel Johnson is a member of the board and all expect to have a pleasant trip and escape the rigors of a Michigan winter.

The dancing party given by the young ladies of Birmingham at the Johnston-Shaw hall last Friday evening, was very successful and pleasant affair. Guests were present from Detroit and Pontiac, and the music furnished by Finney's orchestra, of Detroit, was, as usual, excellent. The young ladies were so congratulated on their success.

The Woman's Literary Club met with Mrs. Barr last Tuesday. Roll call was answered by giving a common error of speech. The papers given were Abyssinia-Nubia, by Mrs. Blodgett, South Carolina, by Mrs. Smith, and Eric's in the Bible, by Mrs. Hulbert. Wednesday, the County Federation meets at Clarkston. A full account in our next week's issue.

If there is one thing in which good times need to be more careful, it is the matter of promoters' careers. With an indifference and an insensibility which we cannot understand many churches seem to think that contract between themselves and the minister is no contract at all. They promise him a definite salary then pay him whatever is convenient. The gas man, the coal man and even the sexton would be paid, but debiting the minister is looked upon as altogether right and proper.

The Hon. Brown Cannon, of Denver, Colo., is home on his annual visit. He certainly does one good just to meet him. He is full to the brim of Denver and enterprise, and unconsciously imparts it to others as he travels through this vale of tears, and Birmingham. His firm, and the one in Denver, have practically the entire retail milk and cream business of the whole city. Brown tells that he never had so much money in all his life as now; for he keeps depositing his cash in the banks there, and can't draw any of it out, and the consequence is, he is being more "magnanimous" than he ever thought was in him. He is the popular owner of the celebrated Windsor Dairy Farms, and his daily output is 4000 bottles of cream and milk. It takes $2000 cash, (when he can get it) every Monday morning to pay off his farm milkmen. Brown believes in distributing his cash, and assist in relieving the stringency of the money market. The Economist got his share as usual. Whenever we see Brown in town, we know that there is something coming to us.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson, of Highland Park, Sunday at David Roy's.

Mrs. Mrs. J. Chaffetz still continues very ill with no prospect of recovery.

Mrs. David Roy was quite sick last week, but is now recovering rapidly.

Mrs. Dr. Vincent, of Deckerville, Mich., was a Birmingham visitor last week.

Mrs. W. H. Jamison is home again after a five weeks visit with friends in Canada.

Mr. George Thain has been enjoying a trip east and also took in the Jamestown Exposition.

Don't forget the musical treat at the Methodist Episcopal church, Tuesday evening, Nov. 23rd.

A Quartette, a reader and a violinist will serve supper on Tuesday at the M. E. church, next Tuesday evening.

A popular divine of our town carried a jug through the streets, creating much comment, Tuesday last.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will hold their annual Fair, and will serve supper in connection with the same, Wednesday, December 1st.

Mrs. M. Poole, of Detroit, Monday, Dr. W. H. Poole, is enjoying "Sun-side air" at their new home, the John Merritt place, just north of the village.

Don't fail to read I. Lee Truax's new Thanksgiving turkey offer. Say, it is worth the amount of real turkey you can get free by buying a range at Truax's.

Rev. M. H. Bartram, of South Lyon, smiled on us Tuesday. Mrs. Bartram was with him, and they were enjoying a side trip to Birmingham and many old friends, while on route to Pontiac.

Louis J. Roy is home from Colorado. The love of home and wife and baby, was too much for the young man to stand alone away out in the far west. He has improved in health quite a good deal since he went to Colorado.

My Hair is Extra Long

Feed your hair; nourish it; give it something to live on. Then it will stop falling, and will grow long and heavy. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only genuine hair-food you can buy. It gives new life to the hair-bulbs. You save what hair you have, and get more, too. And it keeps the scalp clean and healthy.
