Paris Prices. Gagner—Allow me to congratulate you, old man. Guyer—What on...

When the games were finished an elaborate luncheon was served. After which every one declared that they had enjoyed themselves greatly...

Attention That is Appreciated. There is a touch of pathos in the following: "I did not issue a card of thanks when my husband died, but now that three months are passed I desire to thank not those friends who came in when he lay dead in the house, and bustled about arranging chairs and flowers and answering the door, but those who came in since the parade was over, and who have sat with me in loneliness when they might be with happier people elsewhere...

Resolved, That we agree with the State Federation in its protest against wearing bird's wing or aigrettes.

Correct. "An oration" wrote a Western Reserve freshman in examination the other day, "consists of three parts: the preamble, the body of the speech and the peroration. The preamble, is what you say before you begin. The body of the speech contains what you say after you've got it all through..."

A Significant Prayer. "May the Lord help you make Bug-fun's Arnica Salve known to all," writes E. C. GARDNER, MANAGER, BIRMINGHAM GAS CO.

He Fought at Gettysburg. David Parker, of Fayette, New York, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bites have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me."

The New Pure Food and Drug. We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs, colds and lung troubles, is not affected by the National Food and Drug Law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. All druggists.

Advertisements. List of letters remaining uncalled for in Birmingham postoffice on November 23rd, 1907. Michele Laconte, Norman Wright, Miss Hazel Christie, Miss Laura Leo, Mrs. Helen Stead, Mrs. Maggie Truscott, Hattie Westland, Miss Agnes Woods.

Notice to Gas Users. A few gas users are still behind in the payment of their bills. Service will be discontinued if these unpaid after the first day of December, 1907. E. C. GARDNER, MANAGER, BIRMINGHAM GAS CO.

By Way of Example. The old seats were utilized by one of the small churches in Detroit, and were delivered right at their door by Mr. Peter Anderson. Let's all go and try the new seats.
