LOST—A small package of hosiery in this village between the D. U. R. and the home of John H. Snow. Finder will please leave it at this office and get reward.

We call your attention to the business card of Raynale A. Whitehead in another column. Do not fail to look it up, read it over, and remember when you need his services.

The Woman's Literary club met with Mrs. Barr last Tuesday. Papers were read by Mrs. Satterlee on "Cairo," by Miss Durkee on "Alexandria," and by Mrs. Ferguson on "Egypt of Today."

It is very seldom that our farmer friends have a chance to buy thoroughbred horses, registered sheep and cattle, at their own price, but you may have that chance by attending the big Joy farm sale, W. S. Walker, manager, to be held Tuesday, Nov. 19th. William H. Hulsizer, auctioneer.

M. H. Blunt, auctioneer, will sell at auction Tuesday, November 12th, for R. W. Barton & Son, on the premises known on the McAllister farm, 3½ miles south of Birmingham on Woodward avenue, near the 12-mile road, (get off at McClure stop on Pontiac electric) at 12 o'clock m. sharp, the following property—3 horses, 1 mare, 7 cows, brood sow, chickens, farming tools and implements all good, hay fork carrier 150 feet rope, 40 potato crates, and many other articles too numerous to mention. All machinery used, less than two years' credit as usual. R. W. Barton & Son, proprietors.

The farmer, if he only knew it, is a little nearer the kingdom of heaven than anyone on earth. He is certain of three square meals a day and is the only man who can fence himself in and live in spite of the rest of mankind. A few cattle and sheep and fowl provide him with food and clothing, while his fields yield him flour and a source of revenue. So generous are these provisions and so common, that hardly one farmer in ten makes any account of them, although the ordinary business man thinks he has done well when he reaches the end of the year and finds that he has a little more than made ends meet.

About 75 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Volney Nixon gave them a surprise party on Hallowe'en last week. The surprise was perfect as well as the whole affair. As a remembrance of their esteem and good will, the happy crowd left a beautiful silver fern dish for Mrs. Nixon while Volney was made glad over a handsome smoking set, and both received a pair of twins that have found a welcome home. All the Hallowe'en tricks and games were played, cards, visiting and social chat made the time fly all too fast until a bountiful repast was served that all did ample justice to. All this was in honor also of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Here's the sad, sad tale! Ding! Dong! Ring the funeral bell! One delinquent said: "I'll pay you Saturday if I live"—He's dead! Another promised: "I'll see you tomorrow"—He's blind! Another vowed and swore: "I'll pay you this week or go to h—" He's gone! Our mission, dear reader, is to catch 'em before they're blind, before they're gone. On the great clock of time there is but one word—NOW! Yesterday is a dead one, tomorrow is—well tomorrow is in the land of Maybe! Tomorrow is not on the calendar. We are sorter restless, feverish and fussy about this matter of delay. Won't you kindly see that green label on your paper and divy up enough to make it read 8nov08, one year in advance of this present date?

One of the greatest sales of thoroughbred stock that has ever been held in this vicinity, is coming. On Tuesday, November 19th, at 12:30 sharp William H. Hulsizer, auctioneer, will sell for W. S. Walker, manager Long Meadows farm or Joy farm, ½ mile east and 2½ miles north of Birmingham, the following bargains. The sale is positive, rain or shine, and is made to close an estate and make final settlement. Six head of horses, Hackney bred and Standard; they are all fine and will be sold without reserve; 28 Shropshire ewes, registered; 13 Shropshire ewe lambs, eligible to register; 8 head fine cattle; 25 hogs; a fine quantity of farmers' tools. See big advertisement elsewhere in this issue and bills. No by-bidding, everything has to go.

Every public library is numbered at Washington. Ours is No. 2942.

Mrs. Henry Randall visited her daughter, Mrs. James Casey, at Rochester last week.

The Oakland County Federation of Woman's clubs meets at Clarkston November 20th.

Watch out for the oyster supper at St. James church Thursday evening, December 12th.

Miss Snell, a student at Ypsilanti, was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Peter Anderson last week.

The Art Needle-work class will meet with Mrs. Seymour Adams November 14th, from 1:30 to 4 p. m., standard time.

Frank Ford, with son, Stanley, is back from his visit out west looking the land, reports everything prosperous and doing nicely in the far west.

You remember that neat, tidy, little home that Rousseau owned at what we used to call Mud Mills, now known as Cranbrook Place? Well, it is sold to George G. Booth, who will add it to the Cranbrook estate.

FAUND.—A buck sheep strayed on my premises, 1½ miles south and ½ mile east of Birmingham. Owner can have same by proving property and paying charges. E. SIMONSON, R. F. D. 1, Birmingham, Mich. 2t

At the last meeting of the Woman's Literary club, the following resolution was adopted—Resolved: That the Woman's Literary club, of Birmingham, request our congressman, Samuel Smith, to give to the Adirondack and White Mountain Forest Reserve bill his favorable consideration.

Mitchell is always in trouble. This time it is his umbrella that is missing. If you notice it standing around just doing nothing, please bring it to him and get a quarter as a reward for your trouble. You will know it when you see it because his nameplate on the handle tells its own story.

Miss Lucy Ward, Mrs. F. G. Crawford and Miss Lou McDougal are arranging a musical and dramatic entertainment to be given at the First Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, November 19th. The program will be published next week, and will consist of vocal solos, readings and sketches.

The Ladies' Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian church, will hold their Thanksgiving meeting at Mrs. George Mitchell's Wednesday afternoon, November 13th. Mrs. Dr. Pence, from the Port Street Presbyterian church, will speak to the ladies, so we hope to see a house full. The gentlemen are invited to tea.

Frank L. Shuler, aged 15 years, has found his way into the juvenile offender class. He pleaded guilty Nov. 4, 1907, in Justice Campbell's court of running away from home, being wilful, wayward and unmanagable, and was sentenced to the Industrial School at Lansing to remain until he is 17 years old. County Agent Stuart, of Holly, was present at the boy's trial to look after his interests.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Pontiac Poultry club was held at the office of Secretary E. E. Hymers, in the Turk block, Saturday evening with 22 members present. The object of the meeting was to select a judge of poultry for the annual show and also to make final arrangements for the poultry premium list. A committee was selected to get the premium list ready and James Tucker, of Concord, Mich., was chosen as judge of poultry. Tucker is an acknowledged authority on poultry and is a capable judge.

Hallowe'en was passed off quite nicely in our town, no very great damage being done. Things were changed around some but all were straightened out the next morning. Windows were marked up a little, but soap and water quickly obliterated all that. Quite a number of little shavers, with older ones, were out with jack lanterns and devil teasers, and visiting their neighbors was one of the pastimes, and altogether all sides were happy. It only comes once each year and we can stand it if the visitors can.

In former years when the corn crop was put in shock the ground was yellow with the luscious "fruit," equally appreciated by man and beast. It was delightful for pies and made an excellent side dish for "bossy," to say nothing of the Hallowe'en torch for the small boy. But the advent of the corn binder has changed all this, and the pumpkin is, like the board and rail fence' practically wiped off the face of the earth, and now the pie-eater must depend on canned pumpkin, which, like modern sausage, may or may not be the real thing.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Merritt have sold their pretty home just north of the village. Dr. George W. Poole, oculist of Detroit, is the lucky man, and will make it his home. Consideration, $8,000. Last Tuesday evening nearly 80 of the old time friends of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt met with them for a farewell party and a fine time was enjoyed by all, as might be expected when Mr. and Mrs. Merritt are host and hostess. It is hoped by everybody that the worthy couple will not leave our midst, but will find another home in the village and still live among us.

M. H. Blunt, auctioneer, will sell at auction for Edward Kaiser, on the premises known as the Fred Schlitzke farm 1 miles south and 2 miles east of Royal Oak, on Saturday, November 9th, at 1 o'clock p. m. sharp, the following—1 span of horses, brood sow and 9 pigs, market wagon, plows, top buggy, farming tools all nearly new, quantity of hay, 3 acres of corn in shock, harnesses, heating stove, 45-gallon kettle, 2 heavy log chains, ice box, 10 bushel of small potatoes, 600 bundles of corn stalks, and many other articles. Terms as usual. William McCavey will officiate as clerk.

L. Y. Irish, Pontiac's well known piano salesman, is now head push for a musical establishment at Rochester.

TO RENT—One or two furnished rooms with bath and furnace heat. Reasonable rent. 2t

MRS. M. A. MILLARD, Daines St.

The Woman's Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian church, will meet on Wednesday afternoon, November 13th, at the home of Mrs. George H. Mitchell.

The following magazines for November are now in at the library: Harper's, St. Nicholas, Review of Reviews, Reader, Ainslee's, Metropolitan, American Boy, The Nation.

FOR SALE—A good as new Retort Oak heating stove. A bargain. Can be seen at my home, second house west of the power house, south side on Harmon street. GEORGE NEWMAN. 1nov

The St. James ladies are making extensive preparations for an experience social to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bigelow November 21st. A supper will be served from 5 to 7. Price 10 cents.

Mrs. David J. Rainey and son, Fred, have returned home after a summer' visit with David J. at Stuart, B. C. They have had a delightful time and have passed through many strange experiences.

The W. H. M. S., of the M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Corey Thursday afternoon, the 14th inst. An interesting program is expected. All are cordially invited. Don't fail to be present.

By ORDER OF PRES.

The ladies of the St. James church will hold a rummage sale at the corner of Antoine and Benton streets, Detroit, Saturday, November 16th. All having contributions will please notify Mrs. H. C. Wilson, Mrs. James Cobb and Mrs. A. J. Harris.

Mrs. William McNally, an aged lady of 75 years, was buried in Greenwood cemetery Monday. She has been very ill for several weeks and was a great sufferer. Her death occurred Saturday. She will be sadly missed by a large number of friends.

Nature studies should be found in all grades of public schools, from the kindergarten to the college; that it is of utmost importance, since it appeals to our practical life, and for developing our highest and best good, by bringing us close to nature's heart, and near to nature's God.

There are no merchant princes here, as are often found in the larger cities, but at the same time the town is remarkably free from the class that is watched with tender solicitude by the wholesale houses, and whose devious ways cause much foreboding to their numerous creditors.

A Kansas man is convinced that advertising pays. He advertised for a lost two dollar bill and a stranger who had picked up one on the streets, read the advertisement and restored the bill to the advertiser. A few days later while looking over a vest he had laid off, the original lost bill was found in a pocket. He says advertising pays 100 per cent.

If an editor makes a mistake he has to apologize for it, but if a doctor makes a mistake he buries it. If an editor makes one there is a lawsuit, swearing and the smell of sulphur, but if a doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers and smell of varnish. A doctor can use a word a mile long without knowing what it means, but if an editor uses it he has to spell it. Any old college can make a doctor. You can't make an editor; he has to be born.

Help! Help! I'm Falling

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.

COAL of all kinds

When we speak of our Coal we get a bit enthusiastic. Why? Because our Coal spells economy; you experience little or no difficulty in getting up a quick fire. It burns so freely and makes such an intensely hot fire that it is in universal favor with housekeepers. There is no better Coal delivered than that which leaves our yard. We have raised the Coal standard without raising the price. Try a ton. It will do a ton's work.
